Here and There

Despite a somewhat later season this year, crop conditions throughout the Prairie Provinces provide cause for optimism in the opinion of J. M. McKay, general agricultural agent, Canadian Pacific Railway. He based his view on improved moisture conditions and generous growth everywhere, which at some points was the best since 1928.

Completing a sensational visit to Canada and the United States lasting several months, the Oxford Group sailed recently aboard the Empress of Australia for England under the leadership of Rev. H. Allen Viney. Their Canadian visit terminated with a house party at the Chateau Frontenac at which 500 members were present.

The death at Vancouver recently of F. W. Peters, former general superintendent British Columbia district, Canadian Pacific Railway, severed one of the last remaining links on this continent with the pioneering railroad days of the early seventies. His service extended to nearly 52 years. He was born in Saint John, March 25, 1860.

ELLARD-PHINEMORE

In Willowdale Baptist Church, Miss Audrie Evelyn Phinmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Phinmore of Newtonbrook, became the bride of Mr. J. E. Ellard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellard of Thornhill. The bride is a granddaughter of the late ex-almshouse J. Phinmore of Toronto. The young couple were married by the Rev. Oswald Smith of Gerrard St. Tabernacle, Toronto, assisted by the Rev. M. Simms. The bride was attended by Miss Mildred Phinmore. The groom by Mr. Jack Thompson, the brides uncle. The charming bride was beautifully dressed in pastel pink, as she entered the church on the arm of her father, Mrs. Cecil Phinmore played the wedding march. The church was beautifully decorated by the ladies of the church, with peonies, roses and other flowers. As the young couple left the church, daisies were strewn in the aisle before them. The ushers were Mr. Victor Phinmore and Mr. Eric Trewin. A reception was held at the parents' home and a buffet lunch was served on the lawn. The bride and groom left on a motor trip to Port Severn and district. Upon their return they will reside at Thornhill.

A happy evening was spent on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Thompson when over thirty friends of Miss A. Hodson met to pay tribute to her prior to her marriage in July. A table on the lawn on which a large basket piled high with gifts was placed and from which streamers were attached from a huge wedding bell hung above the centre. As the bride-to-be joined the gathering and was led to the table by the hostess, Mrs. Thompson, an orchestra played Lohengrin's wedding march. After opening the gifts Miss Hodson in words of appreciation thanked the donors for the lovely gifts received. Lunch was served and a social time spent.
