Rev. E. J. and Mrs. Whan and family of Villa Nova, motored up to Belle Ewart, Lake Simcoe, after visiting over the week-end with Mrs. Robert Gies.

Awful thought! The more the government does now, the longer the investigations will take when it's over.

They're Coming!

Paul Revere Had Only One Way To Spread the News

Don't Buy a Horse -- Use The Liberal

Good Old Paul. We've heard a great deal about him and the ride that eventful night 'way back when. And though we've heard hardly a thing about that trusty horse, we're sure he must have been a grand steed, but we're also sure that if Paul Revere were living to-day and wanted to get a message to the people in the North Yonge Street district he wouldn't have troubled his poor old horse to go galloping over the countryside. Of course he would have put an advertisement in The Liberal. No more do merchants and business men to-day need to buy a horse when they can get their message to thousands of readers each week through the medium of the Home Paper.

If you have something to sell you have a message for the people. Deliver that message through the columns of Mrs. Murphy was the proud possessor of twin boys, and while taking them out in the park, ran across her neighbor, Mrs. Casey.

"Arrah," said the latter, "an' it's a perfect pair o' boys they are; but tell me, how do you manage to tell one from the other? For divil a bit of difference can I see between them."

Her friend smiled as she rocked her children to and fro.

"Ah," she replied, "it's quite easy; for, you see, little Mike has a tooth comin' up and Tim hasn't. So I put my finger in Tim's mouth, an' if he bites, why, then it's Mike.
