DECORATION DAY SERVICES

A large crowd attended the Decoration Day Services at the Richmond Hill cemetery last Sunday afternoon, when an impressive ceremony was carried out following the decoration of the graves of the departed. Addresses were given by Rev. G. E. Coulter, pastor of the United Church, and Rev. L .Claude Secrett, rector of St. Mary's Church, and the gathering joined in singing of familiar hymns. Despite a dry season and the general scarcity of flowers, a large number of floral tributes were placed on the graves by friends and relatives of those who found their last resting place in Richmond Hill's cemetery. Among the gathering were many former residents of the village and community, and the local Boy Scouts and Girl Guides attended
