

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

The Harvest Festival was fittingly celebrated with impressive services at Bethesda Lutheran Church last Sabbath. The chancel was resplendent with many beautiful flowers and splendid specimens of fruit and vegetables. The largest attendance on record for similar services is reported, approximately a hundred people being turned away at the evening service. Rev. E. Huenergard, the resident minister, officiated and for the morning service chose as his subject "The Covenant of God." Two solos "The Stranger of Galilee" sung by Mrs. W. J. Russell and "Jesus Lover of my Soul" by Mr. E. Quengesser of Toronto were delightfully impressive special music. At the evening service the subject "No Harvest, but a Harvest Festival" was ably presented by Rev. Huenergard. Selections by Peaches United Church male quartette and a solo "Come let us sing of a Wonderful Love" by Mrs. W. J. Russell was appreciated special music. Mr. Ewart Stiver presided at the organ for both services.

The annual Rally Day Service in connection with Central United Sunday School is announced for next Sunday commencing at 10:30 o'clock and will be held in conjunction with the regular morning church service. Rally Day is the day when the note is sounded challenging each one of us to more efficient service in connection with the religious training of the youth of the church. A really great Forward Movement with an on-ward urge toward the promoting of the on going progress of the Kingdom of God and with an individual responsibility. A cordial invitation is given to attend this splendid service.

The annual Banquet in connection with the Junior Farmers Organizations is scheduled for Friday evening, Sept. 29th, to be held in Crosby Memorial Rink commencing at 7 o'clock. Denton Massey, leader of the York Bible Class, will be the guest speaker, a good program is assured. Plan to attend this interesting event, and manifest your interest in these organizations.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. Auxiliary of Central United Church held at the home of Mrs. H. Miller last Thursday afternoon brought an attendance of eighteen ladies. Mrs. Crawford presided. Following the devotional exercises and the reading of the minutes, the roll call was responded to by a verse of Scripture containing the word "Work." Regret was expressed for the absence through illness of Mrs. G. R. Whaley and Mrs. Jas. Gibson. Plans were formulated for the annual Thank-Offering meeting that will be held in October. The Bible talk from Josh. 3, was ably taken by Mrs. A. Coulson—God was guiding the Israelites through their leader Joshua. Their faith was rewarded in crossing the Jordan on dry land. God is amongst us now as then. After Mrs. Bewell led in prayer Miss Harriet Thompson, formerly a missionary, spoke interestingly on some of her work in India. At the time of the famine in 1899 people flocked to the City of Indore. The relief supplied by the Government was inadequate to supply the demand. Funds sent from Canada at this time helped to take care of a number of the boys and girls which was part of the work under the supervision of Miss Thompson. She also had charge of the widows home in Newich for a time. Some of these women turned out to be splendid Bible women and Doctors, etc. The curios exhibited by Miss Thompson added interest to this splendid talk. The singing of a hymn and the closing prayer by Mrs. Crawford brought to a close this interesting meeting.

Regret is expressed that the passing of another of our citizens is recorded, Mrs. (Dr.) R. J. Trumpour, formerly Emma Augusta Miller, who died at her home North Main Street on Wednesday, Sept. 13th, following an illness of short duration. She was born in Prince Edward County January 25th, 1852, one of a family of ten, of which but one brother, Horatio of Bloomfield, now in his 85th year, survives her. On October 28th, 1878, she married Dr. R. J. Trumpour, also of Prince Edward County, and in 1903 they came to Unionville where the Doctor became a well known Practitioner. She was predeceased by her husband some twenty years ago. Mrs. Trumpour was originally a Quaker, but since coming to Unionville was actively connected with the Anglican Church, and was Hon. President of the Glensiders Organization. The funeral was held at the family residence on Friday evening the cortage leaving by motor early Saturday morning for Picton. The service there was conducted in Glenwood Cemetery Chapel. Rev. R. R. Robbins officiated.

Harvest Home Services in connection with St. Philips Anglican church are announced for Sunday, Oct. 1st. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services. Further particulars next week.

A special service for young people will be conducted by Rev. A. E. Owen in Central United Church on next Sunday evening. The subject of the discourse will be "The Rallying Spirit of one young man." Everybody welcome.

Owing to unfavorable weather conditions the Corn Roast scheduled by the Junior Farmers Organization for last Friday night was not as well attended as anticipated. However the party was held at Adam's Pavilion where dancing and the corn and weiners were enjoyed.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Allan Armstrong who is on the Central Convention Committee of the Women's Institutes, attended a meeting in Toronto last week which was held at the Parliament Buildings to make preparations for the C.C.E. Women's Institutes convention to be held on Nov. 21st, 22nd, 23rd at the Royal York Hotel.

The first meeting of the Home and School Club will be held in the Public School Tuesday, Sept. 26th, when the parents are invited to visit the teachers in their rooms from 7:45 p.m. to 8:15. Come and see where your children spend their working hours and make the acquaintance of their teachers. By doing so you are helping the teacher to understand your child better, and thereby giving him or her the advantage of making better progress.

Of special interest to parents will be the presentation of a short Home and School play. We also hope to have as our speaker Mrs. Clarke Steele, President of the Toronto Council of Home and School Associations.

Children will not be admitted unless accompanied by a parent.

The many friends of Miss A. Clark Richmond Street, who has been seriously ill for several weeks will be pleased to hear she is now improving satisfactorily and extend to her best wishes for complete recovery.

SCHOOL CHILDREN RELIEF FUND

Editor, The Liberal, Sir: The other day I was asked if the teachers of the Richmond Hill Public School intended having a relief fund for needy pupils this year. Certainly we are if the people are kind enough to give us donations. Last year we spent over $200 for needy children. We bought underwear, outerwear, stockings, boots, shoes rubbers school supplies food repaired footwear and supplied many other necessities. We took good care of our dear ones and the result was that we had little sickness in the school. Parents sent their children to school regularly and punctually and the result was that the whole school took an exceptionally high standing on the year's work.

Fortunately we had a few dollars left from last year because already this term we have had to buy school supplies meals, have shoes repaired besides giving out some clothing. Oh yes, our "Relief Fund" will continue if possible because "good times" are still around the corner and is apt to stay there until next spring. Miss Richardson is our treasurer.

MAPLE

The Women's Association of Hope entertained the ladies of Edgeley at their meeting last Wednesday. A short program was given in which solos were sung by Mrs. Locke and Mrs. Huenergard, and a reading was given by Mrs. Bilborough. Prizes were given for the best blocks for a quilt, the judges being Mrs. Ough, Mrs. Bilborough and Mrs. Dunning of Aurora, and Mrs. E. Stong of Edgeley. The first prize was won by Mrs. N. A. Malloy, second by Mrs. Doris Cook and third by Mrs. J. Cousins. A large number of guests were present and a splendid hot dinner was served.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. F. S. Rumble, quite a large number being present. The roll call was responded to with Economy Wrinkles, and Mrs. W. O. Duncan gave a demonstration of making salads. A piano solo was given by Mrs. Wade and a reading by Mrs. Manning. The hostess and a committee served refreshments at the close.

Edgeley girls and Maple girls played a baseball game on Thursday evening, the score being 10-8 in favour of the latter.

Dr. W. S. and Mrs. Caldwell were made the recipients of a handsome Tea Wagon, by the members of the United Church last Friday night. Addresses of appreciation of their work in the church were given by members of the different departments and a number of slides of snapshots taken in the Old Land were thrown on the screen by Rev. D. Davis of King City, Dr. and Mrs. Caldwell replied feelingly to the words of appreciation and expressed their intention of remaining in touch with the church here. The evening was also made the occasion of a reception to Dr. and Mrs. Bigford who have recently come into our midst. Refreshments were served at the close by the ladies.

The final game of the church softball league was played here on Saturday when Maple won from Edgeley by a score of 14-10. A Masonic service was held in the United Church on Sunday evening when Rev. A. M. Partridge preached an impressive sermon to a large number of members of the lodge, and others.

While coming to business on Monday, Mr. F. Farr had his car badly damaged on No. 7 Highway by another car running into it.

At this meeting a Lutheran Ministers Association of Toronto and vicinity was organized. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. E. Huenergard; Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. J. Sarinen, Toronto. A joint Reframation service is planned to be held in First Lutheran Church, Toronto, on Sunday evening, Nov. 12th, in commemoration of the 450th anniversary of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther.

Y. P. S. School

The Young People's Training School opened on Monday night in the Newtonbrook United Church. The program was extremely interesting and instructive.

The opening Worship period was conducted by the Newtonbrook Young People's Society. Rev. Frank Bowes, Dean of the School spoke a few words on the necessity of running on schedule and paid tribute to the Toronto Young People's Council for their work in arranging the School. Mr. Willard Simpson gave the announcements and Miss Holman spoke of the Leaders' Retreat to be held at Whitby on the week-end of Thanksgiving.

Rev. Harold Young, B.D., D.D., gave a very helpful study on the "Qualifications of a Good Hymn" and the definition given was "A song of Prayer or Praise to Almighty God." In the course of his remarks he pointed out that a Hymn must be worthy poetry and be set to suitable music.

The meeting then divided into three groups for the discussions as follows: "A Christian in the World to-day" led by Rev. J. Myer. "Acquiring a Technique in Missionary Leadership" led by Rev. Fred Smith, B.A.

"The Art of Making Effective our Christian Fellowship Department" led by Rev. M. R. Sanderson, B.A. A few games conducted by Rev. A. M. Partridge, B.A., were enjoyed at the conclusion of the Discussion Groups and the school closed for the day.

Next Monday night, Professor John Line will address the open meeting on his topic of "A Christian in the World To-day" and will continue this subject in his discussion group. Rev. Fred Smith, B.A., will have his group again on "Acquiring a Technique in Mission" and Rev. M. R. Sanderson, B.A., will lead his group in "The Art of Making Effective our Christian Fellowship Department."

All the subjects proved extremely interesting and instructive to those who were fortunate to be able to attend on Monday night. Be sure and come next Monday and advise the Secretary so transportation may be available. The school starts at 7:45 p.m., extra sharp, at Newtonbrook United Church.
