Hamilton, the tables were decorated with fall flowers. A vote of thanks was given the Laskay ladies by Mrs. A. Hadwen, and seconded by Mrs. E. The afternoon was spent in sports, of novelty races and baseball, these were conducted by Ralph Williams and Miss Hodgins. A bon fire then was lit, and every one sat down to supper of weiners, buns, corn, pie, cake and coffee, one remark heard was "I never saw so many pies in one place before," the reply being "I never put so many pies in one place before." A sunset hour service was then held, Miss Scullie being in charge, also a lively sing song.

I am sure the Laskay Y.P.S. members enjoyed the fellowship with these Toronto young people very much, and hope to meet them in Toronto in the near future.

Miss W. Boys spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Boys.

Y.P.S. was held Thursday, the meeting was in charge of Miss M. Ezard. She gave a brief account of Mr. Ridouts address on, Missions, given at the School of Methods. Misses Helen Hunter and Mary McCallum played a piano duet "Over Hill and Dale," Mr. E. Wiltshire sang a solo.

Several of the young people attended the School of Methods at Newmarket, a profitable and much enjoyed time was reported, we hope more will be able to attend the school in the next few weeks.

Miss Anah Baldwin was home over the week-end.

Coons seem to have a liking for more than corn, some melon patches have suffered visitations so we hear.

Mrs. William Irwin Buried at Bolton

Mrs. William Irwin (Rebecca Paterson) died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. McMahon, Grace Street, Toronto, and was buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Bolton. After a brief service in Toronto the funeral proceeded to Bolton where the burial service was conducted by Rev. L. E. Kennedy and Rev. David Robertson in the United Church where many old friends had gathered. Mrs. Irwin was a daughter of the late William and Mary Sharp Paterson and was born at Nashville 82 years ago where she lived until her marriage when she moved to Meadowvale and farmed, moving on retirement to Bolton about 16 years ago, and a few months ago took up residence with her daughter in Toronto. Surviving are her husband, daughter, a brother and four sisters, they are, Archie, Nashville; Misses Mary and Annie, Nashville; Mrs. J. W. Ellerby, Woodbridge, and Mrs. Albert Wiley, Saskatchewan. Mrs. Irwin's father, the late William Paterson, was a native of Roxborough, Scotland, who came to Canada in 1830, and with his parents, settled on Concession 10, Vaughan, where he lived all his life, and was well known throughout the Township as tax collector and fence viewer whose advice was sought on matters affecting the Community. As a young man when the country was all bush land and countless deer wandered about at will he was regarded as a great huntsman whose aim with a rifle never failed. He was equally expert with rod and line when the streams in the vicinity were well stocked with trout.

Schoolmates Meet With Same Type of Accident

Mrs. James E. Devins, one of the District's oldest residents had the misfortune to fall on her dining room floor on Sunday last which resulted in a fractured hip. Mrs. Devins has been in failing health for some time and at the age of 84 the outlook for her recovery is not very encouraging. A strange coincidence in connection with her case is the fact that Mrs. Donald McMurchy who, before her marriage, was Miss Eliza McClure and a cherished schoolmate of Mrs. Devins (who before her marriage was Eliza Burton) happened with an accident of similar nature, just a week ago. Mrs. McMurchy is in her 83rd year and lives with a daughter on Pacific Avenue, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wallace Celebrate Golden Wedding

An event of more than ordinary interest took place on Tuesday of last week when Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wallace celebrated their Golden Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace were married by the late Rev. R. Pelligrew, Pastor of Woodbridge and Weston Presbyterian Churches, on September 13th, 1883, and have lived in Woodbridge ever since. Mr. Wallace served as Rural Carrier on No. 1 Route Woodbridge for many years, and is a son of the late George Wallace, Vaughan Township Pioneer, who came from Ireland early in the 19th Century and settled on Lot 10, Concession 8, where the subject of this sketch was born. Mrs. Wallace was a daughter of the late John and Margaret Agar Natrass, natives of Vaughan, whose ancestors came from Yorkshire, England, and settled on Concession 10, Vaughan. Mr. Wallace is a staunch Liberal and a cousin of the late Honourable N. Clark Wallace, one of Canada's leading Conser-ative statesman. Many old friends and relatives called on the aged couple to offer congratulations on celebrating their Golden Wedding. The house was decorated with flowers of golden hue to fit the occasion. The family which consists of two sons and two daughters are, Leslie and Sheldon Wallace, Woodbridge; Mrs. George White, Woodbridge; and Mrs. LaRose, Weston.

Mr. C. W. H. Bunt of 112 Edith Drive, Toronto, is spending a number of days with his many Woodbridge friends.

Although the drought and heat has been unusual some fields of early sown wheat are showing a healthy growth.

North York and Etobicoke School Fair at Thistletown

North York and Etobicoke Townships School Fair held at Thistletown Community Park, Thistletown, on Thursday of last week attracted many friends of the pupils to the playgrounds. The District is composed of seven schools, and include Richview S. S. No. 4, Highfield No. 6, Smithfield No. 7, Thistletown 10, Elia 18, Downsview 17, Emery 19. Bruce McClure of S. S. 19 who won most points was awarded the Eaton trophy, while Velma Middleton 10 and Olive Horsley 17 received books as winners of second and third form in the district. The exhibition of fruit, grain and vegetables while not up to the standard set in former years because of climate conditions were good when these conditions are considered, as the struggle for existence by plant life in 1933 has been unequalled in the history of the Humber Valley. The Fair was in charge of R. E. White, Agricultural Representative of Newmarket, while the judges were, for Oratory, Public School Inspector A. L. Campbell, Weston; Live Stock, Clarence Graham, Don Dalziel and Gilbert Wallis.

The event of the season, Ye Olde Tyme County Faire, under the auspices of the Woodbridge Junior Institute in the Orange Hall, Woodbridge, on Saturday, Oct. 7th from 5:30 o'clock.
