MILLIKEN

The funeral from her late residence here on Sunday, Sept. 24th, of Mrs. Hope, wife of Mr. W. S. Hope, who passed away on Thursday, Sept. 21st, was largely attended and the many beautiful floral tributes show the esteem in which she was held.

The late Mrs. Hope, who before her marriage was Lillian Dixon, was in her sixty-fourth year and was a daughter of the late John Dixon and Jane Stover of Uxbridge Township where she was born. She resided in the Township until moving with her husband and family to a farm on the sixth concession twenty-five years ago. She had been ill nearly a year. Being of a retiring disposition her interests were entirely in her home. She was a member of Ebenezer United Church.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Fred on the homestead and Bert of Toronto, and three grandchildren, two brothers and three sisters also survive, Cecil and Ernest Dixon, Toronto, Mrs. John Haines, Milliken, Mrs. Robert Brown and Miss Edith Dixon, Toronto.

After interment, which took place in Ebenezer Cemetery, service was held in the church conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. E. Owen and Rev. J. S. Humphreys. By request Mr. J. Gough sang "Crossing the Bar."

Here and There

Self-regulation of motion pictures by producers to conform with ordinary standards of decency will ultimately render boards of censors unnecessary, predicted Will H. Hays, Czar of Hollywood, interviewed recently at Vancouver where he arrived from a short stay at Banff and Lake Louise. Clark Gable was another movie star visitor at these famous mountain resorts.

All Ontario district brother officers of Norman M. McMillan, superintendent, Bruce Division, Canadian Pacific Railway, with H. C. Grout, general superintendent, as chairman, took part recently in a presentation to Mr. McMillan of a silver tea and coffee service, at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on the occasion of his promotion as assistant to H. J. Humphrey, general manager, eastern lines of the railway.

Unheralded, unrecognized and unexpected, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, after an all day motor trip through French-Canadian country east of Quebec City, motored recently into the Ancient Capital and put up at the Chateau Frontenac. The wife of the President of the United States, the following day, took in the sights of Quebec from the high seat of a calèche, the quaint one-horse vehicles characteristic of Quebec City.

"If from the conferences, speeches and exhibitions at the World's Grain Exhibition at Regina we can derive even one suggestion of importance to agriculturists, the show will be voted a success," said E. S. McCrory, manager, United Grain Growers office in Calgary, in a recent address at the Palliser Hotel in that city.
