RICHMOND HILL YOUNG PEOPLE'S COUNCIL

The second annual social evening held under the auspices of the Young People's Council on Friday evening, Sept. 29th, was a decided success.

About 150 members of the three societies were present and all went out for a good time.

The barn dance was the cause of a great deal of amusement, with all honours going to Jake Connie.

After we had all partaken of an excellent supper, Mr. Donald Frisby called upon Rev. G. Coulter and Mr. Greene, Reeve of Richmond Hill, to present certificates to the winners in the Tennis Tournament. Ladies Singles A, Mrs. Isabel Savage; Ladies Singles B, Miss Mildred Sims; Ladies Doubles, Miss I. McLean and I. Savage; Mens Singles A, Mr. Edward Mansbridge; Mens Singles B, Mr. Howard Atkinson; Mens Doubles, Messrs. Edward Mansbridge and James Kerswell; Mixed Doubles, Miss Jean Middleton and Mr. John Wilson.

Winners of A and B group—Ladies Mrs. Mabel Savage; Mens, Mr. Edward Mansbridge.

The gathering was then entertained by Mr. Stan Leno with his guitar and Greta Frelerton in Highland dance.

Miss Audrie Patrick and Mr. Jake Connie were the winners in the lucky number dance, Miss Catherine Stanford and Mr. Loftus Buckley were the winners of the spot dance.

Music for the dancing was provided by the one and only Harold Reid.

How about three cheers for Messrs Sims, Tenyson and White, who were responsible for the success of the evening.

LASKAY

Sunday, Oct. 8th, the members of the King Masonic Lodge will visit the Laskay United Church. Service will be at 7 o'clock p.m. Rev. Davis will be the speaker, Laskay choir will assist with special music.

Visitors at the Laskay service Sunday were Mr. H. Lemon, a former school teacher of the sixth line school his mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lemon, and Mrs. Hunter.

About twenty attended the Y.P.S. meeting Thursday, which was in charge of the Literary convener. The topic "Hymns Our Literary Heritage" was taken by Rev. D. Davis which was instructive as well as very interesting. A short history of the hymns used in the meeting was given by the leader, they were, "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah" by William Williams, "O Love that will not let me go" by G. Matheson, and "O Little Town of Bethlehem" by Philip Brooks. A very humorous reading by Coreene Robinson "Pat's Mistake," a vocal duet by Miss H. Campbell and Mr. L. Tankard was much enjoyed. The meeting was then dismissed and several new games were played.

Next Thursday, Oct. 5th, the meeting is to be in the hands of the young men. I am sure this will be interesting, come and give them good support by a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Scott had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Diceman Sunday.

About eighteen Y.P.S. members attended the School of Methods in Newmarket Tuesday night. The Laskay group had charge of the devotional period with Miss Vera Hunter in charge.
