PEOPLE LOOK TO LIBERALISM

The fact that the result of by-elections usually favor the government in power tends to make the results of this week's by-elections in three widely-separated constituencies all the more convincing. In the three constituencies the Liberal candidates were returned and the verdict of the people in these ridings is a clear indication of how the people of Canada are thinking to-day. Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Dominion Liberal leader, interprets the triple victory as a decisive demand for a change in Federal policies of government and as a decisive pronouncement against the efforts of the C.C.F. group to impose socialistic measures upon the administration of the Nations' affairs. "Nothing could more clearly indicate the direction in which the tide is swinging in all parts of Canada" is the observation of Hon. Vincent Massey, outstanding statesman and scholar and the head of the Dominion Liberal Federation. In these times of serious stress and strain when the great majority of people are finding it increasingly difficult to operate their business and maintain their homes and standard of living, and many are finding it absolutely impossible to find even the necessities of life, people are doing serious thinking along political lines. They are not thinking along hard and fast party lines nor taking it for granted that because in the past they have been associated with one political party or another that they must indefinitely continue that affiliation. They are not interested in empty appeals to sentiment or easily misled by cheap political catch-words or old political clap-trap. People are doing their own thinking to-day and thinking seriously along economic lines as perhaps they have never done before in Canadian history. The result of the by-elections confirms the general belief that the great body of the people are not satisfied with the record of the Bennett administration. The high tariff policies in restraint of trade and the natural flow of business which has clogged the machinery of the industrial life and crippled our basic industries does not appeal to the people. On the other hand the extensive promises and radical demands of the organization known as the C.C.F. have little appeal to the sound thinking people of the Dominion. The electors in these three widely separated constituencies have chosen the middle course of Liberalism in preference to the re-actionary policies of the Bennett government or the radical policies of the C.C.F. The results we believe indicate a true crosssection of Canadian public opinion and the people of Canada are looking hopefully to the Liberal party to give to this country the many needed reforms in the interests of the great masses of the people, give sane, safe economic administration and at the same time maintain the established institutions of this country which we all honor and love.

The interesting feature of a by-election is that it shows how people are thinking. The indisputable evidence of the ballots of the electors of these three ridings is that people are changing. In good faith they accepted the promises of Mr. Bennett in 1930 that his policies were in the best interests of this country. Those policies have had ample trial and have been found wanting, and sound thinking people, Liberals, Conservatives and men and women of all political affiliations have decided by outstanding majorities in these three ridings that at the present time the policies advocated by leaders of Liberalism offer the best way out and give promise of the restoring once again in this fair Dominion days of happiness, prosperity and security.

KING AND VAUGHAN PLOWING MATCH

The annual match of the King and Vaughan Plowmen's Association will be held this week near Richmond Hill on the fine farms of Mr. J. D. Patterson and Mr. A. J. Mitchell. The site is ideal and favored with good weather the match should be a record one.

York County has long been noted for its champion plowmen and the work which will be done at the King and Vaughan match to-morrow is sure to be of a high order.

No matter what we happen to be doing in life it is a great thing to do it well, and so Plowing Matches cannot help but be a good thing for the Agricultural Industry and for the farming communities of the province. The aim of the various Plowmen's Associations is to make good plowmen and to make good plowmen better.

The match this year being held so close to Yonge St. will probably attract a record number of visitors who will be interested to see the competitors try to excel in the plowing of a straight furrow.

* * * * * * FOWL SUPPERS

The season for fowl suppers is here again and the different churches throughout the district are advertising these popular events for the coming weeks. For forty cents or a half a dollar one can enjoy a sumptuous repast which at any first class hotel would cost a dollar or more. In addition there is usually a concert or some form of entertainment thrown in for good measure. We know of nowhere to get better value for your money than at a church fowl supper. In addition there is a social side of the event which in itself is worth the whole price of admission. Despite the depression the Fowl Suppers continue and that's one thing to be thankful for.

MAKE THEIR DREAMS COME TRUE

Do you remember the thrill of new toys and candy when you were a child? Can you remember what your Christmas would have been without them? Yet many families face this possibility in this year of stress and strain unless kind hearted citizens rise to the occasion and help in bringing happiness to children in homes which are suffering from the distress of present economic conditions.

It was with this aim in view that the Richmond Hill A.A.A. with commendable public spirit entered the Buckingham Christmas Toy Contest. In their undertaking the organization merits the wholehearted and enthusiastic support of the people of this district. Save your wrappers and help along this public-spirited organization to secure toys for distribution among needy children.
