Don't make the mistake of just filling up with any brand of Anti-Freeze.

By a special process in its manufacture "Lowtemp" will not scale the rust that corrodes your radiator walls. You may have noticed that the water in your radiator forms a heavy coating of rust that gathers on the walls and tubes. Ordinary glycerine or anti-freeze pierces beneath this corrosion and scales it off, thus weakening the radiator walls. "Lowtemp" is specially processed to have no effect upon corroded surfaces. It is non-corrosive and non-scaling. Eliminates all trouble with rust. "Lowtemp" the perfect antifreeze.
