

The election of a Liberal in East Kent by election by acclamation means that there will be one less "lame duck" supporter in the next session of the legislature.

A TESTED RECIPE
Homemade Buns

Dissolve half a yeast cake in one quarter cup of tepid water and sprinkle with a little sugar. Scald a cupful of milk and add two table-spoons of butter, one quarter of a cupful of white sugar and half a teaspoon of salt. Cool and add two well beaten eggs, one quarter cupful cleaned currants, half a teaspoon of cinnamon, a pinch of mace and enough flour to make stiff batter. Now cover the dough and set in a sheltered place to rise, preferably over night or until it has doubled its bulk. When it has doubled its bulk, add flour by stirring and kneading until of bread dough consistency and let rise once more until it has doubled its bulk. Toss on bread board and form into buns and place not too close together on greased pan, rub with melted butter. Set pan in warm place to rise and when light and puffy put in moderate oven and bake twenty-five to thirty minutes. If desired, remove from oven a few minutes before done and spread with a glaze of granulated sugar and milk. Return to oven a few minutes to dry off. (Royal Yeast was used).

IN AN OLD FASHIONED TOWN

In an old-fashioned house in an old-fashioned street, In a quaint little old-fashioned town, There's a street where the cobblestones harass the feet, As it struggles up hill and then down. And though to and fro through the world I may go, My heart, while it beats in my breast Where're I may roam, to that old-fashioned home, Will fly back like a bird to its nest. In that old-fashioned house in that old-fashioned street, Dwell a dear little old-fashioned pair; I can see their two faces so tender and sweet, And I love every wrinkle that's there. I love every mouse in that old-fashioned house. In the street that runs up hill and down; Each stone and each stick, every cobble and brick, In that quaint little old-fashioned town.

One million market-page articles of 1933 boiled down to ten words: "Stocks will go up to-morrow if they don't go down."

Death and taxes may be similar, but the dumbness of one generation doesn't make death worse for the next.

PRESBYTERIAN Y.P.S.

The regular meeting of the Young People's will be held Monday, Jan. 8th. The annual election will take place at this meeting. All members and friends are asked to make a special effort to attend this meeting.

EDGELEY

The annual meeting of the rate-payers of School Section No. 8, Vaughan Township, was held in the school room on the evening of the above date. There was a fairly representative number present. Mr. Harvey Usher occupied the chair. The trustees report was presented by Mr. Meno Smith, one of the oldest active ratepayers in the Section.

Inspector Gillies report was read by the acting secretary, E. Stong, and was very satisfactory, Miss M. E. Brown, teacher, being highly commended on her year's work. Considerable discussion took place regarding the water supply of the school, which was thought by some to be not only unsatisfactory, but unsafe and quite inadequate. Several remedies were suggested for its improvement, but the general opinion is that a new artesian well would be necessary in order to get the desired results.

Applications for a refund in taxes for those who live on the outer boundaries of the Section, and who send their children to other schools was not granted.

No. 8 is the only school section in Vaughan Township that can boast a 1 mill rate.

Mr. W. H. Whitmore, the retiring trustee, was re-elected for another term.

The board as it now stands is composed of: Mr. Homer Whitmore, Mr. J. J. Humphries, Mr. W. Whitmore; Secretary Treasurer, Mr. E. Stong; Auditors for 1934—For Ratepayers, Mr. Meno Smith; for Trustee's, Mr. Wm. Locke.

Let's Get Goin'

This title of a prize winning poem would seem to be an apt slogan for the community at this the commencement of another year. It may be that instead of sitting back waiting for the economic depression to disappear we should be busy trying to forge ahead even in the face of depression. It may be that these days which we are now accustomed to call hard times are in reality normal times and that we may never again experience the glad days of the prosperity which existed previous to 1930. So in the face of conditions whatever they may be in 1934 let us resolve to "GET GOIN'."

Instead of bemoaning our plight and saving our efforts for the day when the depression will be over LET'S GET GOIN' NOW. Merchants business men, farmers, laborers, citizens generally, let us all join hands and go forward in 1934 with a common purpose to improve business and make this community and this district a better place in which to live.

In our next issue a number of firms and merchants will endorse the slogan LET'S GET GOIN' and from week to week we hope to enlist the support and co-operation of many others as well as public bodies and organizations throughout the district interested in the future welfare of the community.

The Liberal has unbounded faith in the future of Richmond Hill and the North Yonge Street District which we have served as the Home Paper since 1878. Many aspects of the present economic depression are beyond the control of local agencies and beyond the means of local agencies to correct, but by co-operative effort, genuine and persistent hard work we can make local conditions better and help in a measure to bring back prosperity.

As we commence this New Year let us resolve to take an active part in the upbuilding of the community. Let's all join in adopting the slogan "LET'S GET GOIN' NOW."

YE EDITOR WEEPS

Consider the editor! A child is born unto the wife of a merchant of the town. The physician getteth thirty-five plunks. The editor writeth a stick and a half and telleth the multitude that the child tippeth the beam at nine pounds. Yea, he lieth even as a centurion. And the proud father giveth him a cigar. Behold, the young one growth up and graduates. And the editor putteth in the paper a swell piece. Yes, a peach of a notice. He telleth of the wisdom of the young woman and of her exceeding comeliness. Like unto the Roses of Sharon is she, and her gown is played up to beat the band. And the dressmaker getteth two score and four iron men. And the editor getteth a sweet note of thanks from the girl graduate (maybe)!

And the daughter goeth on a journey. And the editor throweth himself on the story of the farewell party. It runneth a column, solid. And the fair one remembereth him from afar with a picture postal card, that costeth six for a jinyon.

Beholdeth, she returneth, and the youth of the town falleth down and worship. She picketh one, and lo, she picketh a lemon. But the editor calleth him "one of our promising young men," and getteth away with it. And they send unto the editor a bid to the wedding, and behold the bids are fashioned in a far city print-shop.

Flowerly and long is the wedding notice which the editor printeth. The minister getteth his bit.

The editor printeth a death notice, two columns of obituary, three lodge notices, a cubit of poetry and a card of thanks. And he forgetteth to read proof on the dead, and the darned thing cometh out: "Gone to Her Last Roasting Place."

And all that are akin to the deceased jumpeth on the editor with exceeding great jumps. And they pulleth out their ads and cancelleth their subs., and they swing the hammer even unto the third and fourth generation.—Exchange.
