RICHVALE

There was a fairly good attendance at Sunday School and Church Service last Sunday. Mr. Maxwell preached and after the church service a short meeting was held by the teachers and officers of the Sunday School to arrange for the annual meeting which must be held some time this month.

The Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Allison, Yonge St., with a good attendance of members. Mrs. Farrants was appointed to represent the Association at the annual meeting of Centray Women's Association to be held in Toronto on Tuesday commencing at 10:30 a.m.

The next regular meeting of the W. A. will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 31st, at the home of Mrs. Noble, Yonge Street. There will be a contest held at this meeting. Come out and win the prize. The contest held at Mrs. Allison's was entitled "What is found in a grocery store" and won by Mrs. Noble. All ladies of this community are invited to attend these meetings held on the last Wednesday of each month, sometimes oftener, in the different homes.

There will be an entertainment given in Richvale Church on Wednesday, Feb. 7th. This is a sketch and will be put on by the Young People's Society of Carrville. Keep this date in mind, Wednesday, Feb. 7th. Fuller announcement later.

The funeral of Nelson Jarrett took place from the residence of his father, Burkholder Jarrett, Beresford Ave., Toronto, on Saturday afternoon last, and interment was made in Hillcrest Cemetery under Masonic auspices. The late Mr. Jarrett was born in Vaughan where he spent his early years and a number of years ago went to Detroit. His health began to fail him about six years ago. He is survived by his wife, his father, several brother and sisters.

Junior Women's Institute

The January meeting of the Junior Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M. Farr, 8th Avenue, with a good attendance and President Miss Margaret Wallis presided. The feature item on the program was provided by Miss Florence Eadie, Provincial Leader of Junior Women's work in Ontario. Musical numbers were rendered and lunch served with Miss Jean Huson, Mrs. Albert Barker and Miss Hazel Ella in charge.

Women's Missionary Society Meet

The United Church W.M.S. met at the residence of Mrs. J. G. Whitmore, 8th Avenue, for the January meeting. The program included a New Year's poem read by Mrs. Sam McClure, readings from the Year Study Book China by Mrs. N. G. Wallace, a number of piano selections by Miss Grunert who is associated with Rev. F. A. Robinson D.D. in the special service campaign conducted at the Presbyterian and United Churches during the past two weeks. Others who contributed to the program were Mrs. W. E. Berry and Mrs. K. Stevenson. "The Step-Husband" a three act comedy is in the course of preparation by the A.Y.P.A. of Christ Church with Miss Avis Poole directing and will be presented in the Orange Hall on Jan. 26th.
