

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

ROOFS
A roof is shingled that it may Shut out the rain and wind and snow,
But any roof may hold within
The shelter of all of life I know.

The love of woman for a man,
His love for her, their hopes, their fears,
The miracle of birth, and life,
The agony of death, and tears.

No rain-tight roof may keep the prayers
A mother prays from rising up,
Nor stay the wine from God, Himself,
Pours daily from her lifted cup.

But, oh it can hold close the peace
All parents know—the sense of right—
When every child is safe beneath
The shelter of a roof at night.

And often as I mark them there—
Small roofs stretched low along a street—
I see them through bright, sudden tears—
The things they shelter are so sweet.

—Grace Noel Crowell

It was Irish Day at the March meeting of the local Branch of the Women's Institute that convened at the home of Mrs. N. Ogden on Thursday afternoon last, and judging from the splendid response to the roll call there was definite reason for the tinge of "Ould Ireland" in the air as each member told her Irish joke in her own inimitable way, creating a fine atmosphere for the delightful program that followed.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. J. H. Chant who told of the interesting life of that patron Irish saint, St. Patrick, who, though born of Roman extraction, did so much for the Irish people, traversing the length and breadth of Ireland preaching and founding churches. He was made a Bishop and it is said spoke of the Shamrock leaf that afterwards became the emblem of Ireland as symbolic of the Holy Trinity.

St. Patrick died March 17th 493 and was buried in Gall. A humorous reading entitled "Biddy's Trials among the Yankees" and cleverly given by Mrs. R. J. Duffield was a popular item on the program. Biddy's misunderstanding of some of the Yankee phrases used by her Mistress, making considerable amusement. The musical numbers were also in keeping with the theme of the afternoon and pleasingly rendered by Mrs. A. K. Harrington and Mrs. W. J. Russell and included the Solos, "An Irish Lullaby" "Fairy Tales of Ireland" and a duet "The Last Rose of Summer." Some good old Irish songs were also sung in chorus. Important business included the report of the Relief Committee who told of relief given to the seven families under their supervision including six quilts as well as clothing, etc. A delightful tea was served at the close of the program by the hostesses Mrs. N. Ogden, Mrs. G. R. Whaley, Mrs. G. G. Maynard, Mrs. J. Thomson. Thirty-four ladies were in attendance. The President, Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite, had charge of the meeting. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite when the District President, Mrs. W. A. Young, is expected to be present.

Unionville Junior Farmers and Girls Club members are wearing broad smiles these days. The reason? Did you not hear that the coveted challenge shield presented for scoring the highest aggregate points in the annual program contest held at Pickering College, Newmarket, on last Friday night, came back home to these organizations? First in every class but one is the record reported. John Moscow winning the oratorical contest with an address on "Communism, Socialism and Capitalism" as well as the violin competition. Other honors coming to Unionville were, first for Male Quartette and Chorus; Miss Gladys Owen and Margaret Watson; first and second honors in Pianoforte; Alex Morgan, second in Vocal Solo Competition. Congratulations to the young people who were responsible for bringing this honor to the Organizations. 101 boys and 55 girls is the reported attendance for the March meeting, each club having as usual an especially fine program. At the boys meeting, the presentation of Certificates of Honour to Adam Hood, Murray McKinnon, George Mortimore and Malcolm Prentice was of special interest. These certificates were given by the Royal Humane Society for bravery shown in saving Frank Tunney of Toronto from drowning in the Unionville pond last August. In making the presentation Rev. A. E. Owen offered high commendation to these young men. "The Advisability of Taxing Savings" was presented by Mr. Gladstone Evans, who represents the Economic Reform Association. Mr. Trilby of the Soya Bean Industry and Mr. Atkinson, Assistant Representative were also present.

At the girls meeting, Mrs. D. E. Jones gave a lesson on reading properly, the debate on "Resolved that Home-made Clothing is more suitable and economical than Ready-made Clothing" resulted in a win for the negative side. The affirmative was presented by Bertha Bacon and Nellie Clark while Helen Freeman and Myrtle Hammill defended the negative. The roll call on "Suggestions on the care of Cothes" was well responded to with many helpful suggestions. Arrangements are being made for a three day course in sewing the first week in April to be held at the home of Miss Ruby Ressor and will be in charge of a Departmental Representative. Mr. Atkinson also presented the Garden and Canning Projects at this meeting.

On Tuesday afternoon the Girls Club presented the program at the Markham Branch of the Women's Institute which was highly commended. Unionville Junior Curling team, known as the "Kid" rink, brought honour to the home club by winning the consolation at the Ontario Junior Tankard Bonsel held in Toronto on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, only losing one game to Orillia throughout the competition. Other opponents were Toronto, Coburg and Thornhill who met defeat at the hands of these young experts. Andy Grant's rink better look well to their laurels! Congratulations boys. The new sweaters look fine. The personnel of the rink is Jim Clark, Davey Mackay, Aubrey Gohn and Bobbie Allan.

Several of our citizens in the south end of the Village have been suffering the inconvenience of having a depth of water in the cellars of their residences. The fire engine was called into service and the hose used to expel the water. A couple of our citizens viewing the proceedings from the sidewalk were treated to a free shower bath to the amusement of the rest of the onlookers. However, aside from a few embarrassing moments and a thorough drenching, no serious results are reported.

VOLLEY BALL NOTES

Volley ball activities were resumed on Tuesday evening of this week. All players were noticeably pleased to be back again, after an absence of two weeks. Practice matches arranged for the evening were entered into with real zest.

In response to an invitation to Elgin Mills, a team was available from that quarter. The Elgin boys enthusiastically entered into the spirit of the game, and after becoming more familiar with rules during the first match, their able style of play was sufficient to demand unexpected defence measures on the part of their opponents, and favorable comment from bystanders. It is expected that this group will again be present this season.

Other groups are slated for introductory matches before the close of the season.

Volley ball helps to fill a need at this particular time of year when a between season period divides ice sports and outdoor recreation.
