

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

THE TONGUE
The Proverbs of Many Lands Speak About It
"The boneless tongue, so small and weak, Can crush and kill" declares the Greek.
"The tongue destroys a greater horde" The Turk asserts, "than does the sword."
The Persian proverb wisely saith, "A lengthy tongue an early death" Or sometimes takes this form instead, "Don't let your tongue cut off your head."
"The tongue can speak a word whose speed" Says the Chinese, "outstrips the steed."
And Arab sages this impart, The tongue's great storehouse is the heart."
From Hebrew wit this maxim sprung, "Though feet should slip, ne'er let the tongue."
The sacred writer crowns the whole, "Who keeps his tongue doth keep his soul."
Last Sunday evening Central United Church was filled to capacity with an interested congregation to hear Mr. Jos. McCulley of Pickering College, Newmarket. Mr. McCulley brought a virile message and challenge to the church community on Christianity and our present day questions. He expressed the thought that we need to capture the spirit and daring of the early church and must not be afraid to stand for justice, right and the Kingdom of God. The Junior Farmers choir, under the leadership of Mrs. A. K. Harrington, and with Miss Isabel Scott at the organ, rendered excellent musical numbers, including the anthem "Sun of my Soul," the Quartette singing "Steal Away." It is anticipated making this an annual service.
Mrs. Susan Gibson, who on Tuesday last celebrated her 86th birthday, was "At Home" informally to many friends who came to offer felicitations to this venerable lady, and along with her daughter, Miss Margaret Gibson, gave the same splendid welcome as has always been her custom when good friends come to her home. An old school mate of yesteryear Miss Arabella Hemingway, was among the guests and many reminiscences were changed. Mrs. Gibson, a daughter of the late Thomas and Mrs. Glendenning, is a direct descendant of Mary Glendenning Thomson "The Mother of Scarborough" and although still feeling the affects of a recent illness she takes keen interest in the current happenings of the day. She is a staunch Presbyterian and actively connected with Knox Presbyterian Church Agincourt where Dr. A. L. Burch is the Minister. The Liberal joins with the friends in wishing Mrs. Gibson many, many happy returns of the day.
"There is a path called Never-Old, A most entrancing smiling road; And only those with spirits bold, Who, laughing shoulder Life's big load.
Who value beauty more than gold, Who faithful are to Love's high code,
Can find this road to walk along. And as they walk they sing a song, Oh, buoyantly the words are sung, "We are the old, forever young!" All those who've laughed at hostile fate,
Who can a tale of Love unfold, Who live for others, early, late— Have found the road of Never-Old. Thirty-three members of the local Branch of the Women's Institute were in attendance at the annual meeting held at the home of Mrs. A. Kennedy last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite presided and the Secretary reported 59 members on the roll with an average attendance of 32, along with many accomplishments of helpful service by the organization during the past year. Appreciation was expressed to Miss E. Russell for assistance given in carrying out the relief project by the use of her car. Regret was also expressed in the loss of Mrs. A. F. White to the Organization, who so willingly always gave of her time and talent. A note of appreciation to be sent to Mrs. White, who recently moved to Brampton. This meeting also being the close of the roll call competition, a fancy dish was presented to each of the tie-prize winners, Mrs. F. Frisby and Miss M. Miller. Preceding the election the President spoke on the motto, Aims and Benefits of the Institute which tend to the betterment of the home and the community. Following the report of the Nominating Committee the officers were elected. The list for 1934-35 includes, President, Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite; 1st Vice-President Miss E. B. Once again the Junior Farmers and Girls Club regular meeting goes over big with a record attendance and a good program. The lecture of the evening given by Mr. Gordon Coborn of Toronto concluded the series presented by the Economic Reform Association and proved of special interest, Mr. Coborn being considered the outstanding economist in Canada. The club has been especially favored in having such splendid speakers presenting the economic problems of the day. The review of the April lecture by Chas. Whitaker and a discussion on an annual hay crop led by Ken Deacon were also interesting items on the program. The Barndance at Jas. Grants, Wexford, on Friday next and the annual Picnic at Musselman's Lake on June 8th with the Junior Farmers orchestra in attendance at both, promise to be popular social events. Jokes (new ones) made an amusing response to the roll call at the Girls meeting and a good start was made on the sewing project with Velma Coakwell as instructor. The final lecture in the course taught by Mrs. D. E. Jones was given at this meeting. An interesting event in connection with the coaching class held last week in preparation for the judging competition that will be held at Richmond Hill on May 30th, was the visit to the Canada Packers plant, Toronto, when through the courtesy of the owners the girls viewed all departments and were served lunch at the finish of the tour. A VERSE FOR THE KIDDIES
The Calico Cat
Oh, I'm in love with a calico cat
And the calico cat loves me!
Perhaps it's because his love is blind
For his shoe-button eyes can't see
His tail is long and his whiskers too
But his nose is short and pink—
And all day long he sits by the fire
With thoughts that a cat must think!
Does he dream of mice, or of catnip balls,
Of skeins of yarn, and such?
Whatever a calico cat must think
I'm sure it can't be much!
Oh, I'm in love with a calico cat
And the calico cat loves me!
But I'd like him more if he'd purr sometimes,
And his shoe-button eyes could see!

IN MEMORIAM
OLIVER—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, who passed away on Mother's Day, May 12th, 1929.
Though her smile has gone forever,
And her hand we cannot touch;
We shall never lose the memory,
Of the one we loved so much.
Sadly missed by Husband and daughter Betty.
IN MEMORIAM
CULLEN—In loving memory of Alma Cullen, beloved wife of Henry A. Cullen, who passed away May 9th, 1933.
Days of sadness still comes o'er us
Secret tears so often flow,
God alone knows how we miss her,
Though she died one year ago.
If all the world were ours to give
We'd give it, yes and more,
To clasp the hand of mother,
And see her face once more.
You who have a mother,
Treasure her with care,
For you'll never know the value
Till you see her vacant chair.
Sadly missed by Husband and Family.
