WOODBRIDGE DISTRICT NEWS

United Church W.A. bridge meet at Nashville The Women's Missionary Societies of Bolton, Knox and Woodbridge Presbyterian Churches were guests of the Nashville branch on Wednesday afternoon of last week when Mrs. William Agar presided. A feature of the program was an address by Mrs. Archie Cameron of Vellore, Vice-President of Section 3, on Missionary work. Others on the program were the Houston Sisters and Miss Janey Nattress in musical numbers and Mrs. Adam Agar in readings. Mrs. Watson Barr, who returned home from St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, where she underwent a serious operation, is improving and gaining strength satisfactorily. Spring seeding is well advanced, many farmers have finished, and what an ideal week last week was, somewhat severe on horses of course as the midday heat was intense. The land worked into a seed bed with less labor than usual proving that Jack Frost is nature's way of pulverizing the ground. However, Jack Frost made havoc of the fall wheat, clover, alsike and alfalfa much of which will need to be resown as it is time now that these crops should show signs of life. Much regret is expressed by Woodbridge folk, whether Liberal or Conservative, over the sudden passing of Lt. Col. T. Herbert Lennox M.P. Mr. Lennox had a pleasing personality which made him popular with all.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Seedtime has come at last. The noise of the tractor is loud in the land.

At Y.P.S. Sunday evening Mr. Blackstock, sport instructor of Pickering College, enabled to make us aware that sports and recreation were an important part of our daily life and in building "the temple of the body." Two duets, one by Misses Grace Valliere and Adele Jackson and one by Miss Reva Nichols and Douglas Gee were much appreciated. Misses Reva Nichols and Dorothy Oliver had tea with Mrs. F. Brumwell on Sunday evening.

Several of our young people were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Atwood, Uxbridge, last Friday evening, at a house party.

Last Thursday evening the members of the Mission Band held a Thank-Offering meeting in the classroom. Readings, choruses and duets were much enjoyed by the little folk. Miss Dorothy Valliere addressed the group of slides on "Africa." A paper in three parts "Songs in an Eastern Village" was enjoyed by all. The Mission Band members served candy at the close.

The play "All in the Family" under the local J.F.A. and J.W.I. is becoming quite popular. The cast presented it at Headford on May 9th and at Ballantrae on May 16th.

King City will present their play "Closed Lips" in the Community Hall under the auspices of the Junior Farmers and J.W.I. on Friday, May 11th. Come out and see this fine play. Some say its better than "Wild Ginger." Victoria Square is expected a return visit to King City in the near future.

On Tuesday evening the J.W.I. held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. P. Willows where the following members were elected to new offices. Miss Laura Gee acted as chairlady. President, Miss Mabel Sanderson; 1st Vice-President, Laura Gee; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Barber; 3rd Vice-President, Ruth Caseley; Secretary, Marion Smith; Treasurer, Mabel Caseley; Pianist, Aura Klinck, Pearl Case-

Late John Mitchell

John Mitchell, aged 79, who died on Thursday of last week and was buried in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Bolton, on Sunday afternoon with Rev. David Robertson, Pastor of Bolton Presbyterian Church, in charge of the burial service. Mr. Mitchell suffered the loss of a leg by amputation a year ago and gradually declined until his death. His parents, the late James and Ellen Johnston Mitchell, were natives of Scotland, and came to Canada settling on Lot 34, Concession 10, Vaughan, more than a century ago where deceased was born and lived his entire life. He was a Presbyterian and a Liberal. He is survived by one sister Mrs. Robert Rodick at Buttonville, Markham Township, a number of nieces and nephews.

Late George Bell

George Bell died at his farm home north of Kleinburg on Tuesday of last week and was buried in Nashville Cemetery on Friday afternoon, the funeral taking place from his late residence to Kleinburg United Church where service was conducted by Rev. S. T. J. Fortner. The late Mr. Bell was born in England and was in his 77th year. He crossed the Atlantic to become a resident of Canada about fifty years ago. For a time he lived at Woodhill, Peel County, and later moved to Kleinburg District. He was a supporter of the United Church and a Liberal in politics. Surviving are his widow who before her marriage was Alice Cook, five daughters and four sons, Mrs. Charles Donnerell, Kleinburg; Mrs. D. McLean, Kleinburg; Mrs. John McLean, Woodbridge; Mrs. Lyman Copperthorn, Bolton; Mrs. Len. Westbrook, Nobleton; John Bell, Kleinburg; Gordon Bell, Kleinburg; George and Charles at home on the farm. A brother in Australia also survives.

Mr. Alf Harrington, president of York County Fish and Game Protective Association, John Whitmore, Dr. G. D. McLean and W. B. Dadds of Caledon took early advantage of the open season for trout fishing and motored to Eugenia in Gray County, and on their return reported no catch, giving for a reason the fact that the water of the trout streams in the north had not been tempered by the warm spell sufficient to cause the fish to bite. Through the efforts of Mr. Harrington the colder waters of the Humber in the Palgrave district was well stocked with brook trout last year and by now are fit for table use, many of them being one pound in weight. What is there that requires more patience than to sit on the edge of a stream with hook and line watching for a fish to nibble that never does nibble? Such patience is only equalled by a rat terrier who watches a knot hole in a board fence all day for a rat to come out, but no rat does come out. W.M.S. of Bolton, Knox and Wood-
