

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

The Junior Farmers organization report a busy schedule for June starting with the regular meeting and concluding with the visit of the Kiwanis on June 28th to Glenburn Farms owned by Col. F. H. Deacon. The annual Picnic held at Musselman's Lake comes midway on the program and is planned for Friday, June 15th. A full program of sports is being arranged and a record good time is promised. "Theology and Pigs" or "Economics and Religion" was the unusual subject chosen by Rev. A. E. Owen who was the guest speaker. Mr. Major of Whitevale and introduced by W. J. Speers dealt with the Milk Producers problems at the regular meeting held last Monday evening.

The popularity of the Girls Club is once again in evidence, an invitation being on hand to visit the Altona Senior Institute on June the 13th. Two demonstrations were included on the Monday evening's program, one on towel embroidery given by Mabel Reesor and one on Bound Buttonholes and Pockets by Margaret Milroy. An article on "The Care of Clothes" was read by Mae Thurston. The session was adjourned early to give the members an opportunity to hear Mr. Owen. The usual recreational activities concluded the meeting. The splendid instructive program with a record attendance rated the meeting the best one yet. The annual Moonlight excursion is planned for July 20th. Reserve the date and watch for particulars.

Shooting wolves seems to be a favorite pastime in this vicinity. The last event being reported as occurring on Monday afternoon last. The story goes that two small boys, Jack Harper and Milford Stotts were playing in the creek on Mr. F. L. Stiver's farm and saw what they thought were two dogs playing on the edge of the woods. Upon investigation it proved to be a wolf and a police dog, the frightened kiddies gave the alarm, Mr. F. L. Stiver, Frank Harper and Everet Harper giving chase. Frank Harper shot twice at the wolf seriously wounding it, the body of the animal being found a short time after in Raymond Brilinger's bush. This may clear up some of the mystery of recent sheep killings and is welcome news for sheep owners.

The Township Hall was filled to capacity on Friday evening last with interested patrons who came to enjoy the three act comedy "The Smart Shop" which was given under the auspices of the Live Wire Club of Central United Church. The story was full of thrills, giving each girl opportunity to star in her own particular part. The successful adventure of the owners of the Smart Shop in spite of difficulties with a "And they lived happily ever after" ending left no disappointments and the members of the club are to be congratulated on the splendid entertainment. The cast included, Mrs. Frederick Parmalee, Mae Stonehouse; Miss Delight Evans, Jean Carr; Miss Alice Repp, Marion Warne; Mrs. Ogden Banks, Gladys Dyke; Miss Mable Morrow, Mae Thurston; Mill Ella Murphy, Dorothy Carr; Miss Muriel Bancroft, Mary Champion; Mrs. Baker, Ethel Wagg; Miss Hazel Ellis, Evelyn Hurrell; Mrs. Howard Lawson, Dorothy Smith; Miss Jessie Ferguson, Margaret Martin; Mrs. Tim Callahan, Blanche Broad.

That Unionville Bowling Green will not be closed for the season of 1934 was the decision of the annual meeting of shareholders and former members held at the office of Mr. G. A. M. Davison on Tuesday evening last. This is indeed welcome news to all interested bowlers and it is desired that the membership be enrolled as soon as possible. Unionville is one of the pioneer clubs of the district being organized some 35 years ago and many good games were played when the green was not as well equipped as at the present time, but the enthusiasm of the players was not lacking. Join the Club and lend your enthusiasm in interesting others in the game and may 1934 be a most successful season for the Unionville Bowling Club. The membership fees are indeed moderate, gentlemen $2.00, ladies $1.00.

The officers elected for 1934 include, President, A. Summerfeldt; Vice-President, Mrs. A. Hood; Secretary, Helen Stiver; Treasurer, Mrs. W. M. Smith. Grounds and Games Committee, Philip Dixon, Mrs. A. Hood, S. M. Hutchison, A. Summerfeldt.

There were twenty-three in attendance at the meeting of the W.A. of Central United Church that was held at the home of Mrs. Robt. Stonehouse last Thursday. Mrs. E. Bewell presiding. The program was in charge of Mrs. W. F. Kincaid and the varied features presented splendid entertainment. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. Kincaid, the Bible talk by Mrs. N. Ogden. Reading "Bob's opinion of the new baby" by Mrs. A. J. Camplin. Reading "Mrs. Gundy's Soliloquy" by Mrs. G. Compton. Reading "What Women do for Men" by Mrs. A. L. Brown, also a selection by Mrs. John Snowball. A delicious supper was served at the close of the program by the hostesses, Mrs. R. Stonehouse, Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Champion.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen and family was burned to the ground on Wednesday afternoon last. The fire was caused by a defective chimney. The alarm brought the local fire brigade into action immediately but unfortunately, owing to shortage of water supply, the fire could not be controlled. The building was a total loss along with most of the household effects. There was no insurance. Mr. Allen's farm is located 1/2 mile west of Unionville on the north side of No. 7 Highway.

What about Unionville closing her places of business on Wednesday afternoons and alternate evenings during the week for the summer months? Our sister towns seem to find this method O. K., having followed the plan for several seasons. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is an old adage that contains a bit of real truth. Think about it!

The second game in the baseball series played with Sixth Line here on Monday night resulted in a win for the locals, score 10-7. The line-up remains the same, and looks like a strong team. Get out fans and give them your support and win the series.

"NOTED CURLER BECOMES HEAD OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH"

Last night, within the walls of the historic Knox Church, Toronto, the sixtieth general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was solemnly constituted, with that dignity and impressiveness which for age-long centuries have marked the opening of the supreme court of the ancient church. Approximately 240 commissioners—almost a full muster of this great court—elected Rev. James Sinclair Shortt, M.A., D.D., of Barrie to the highest office in the church, that of Moderator. Two names were put forward for the high office, Rev. Norman A. McLeod, D.D., and Rev. J. S. Shortt, D.D. By a standing vote Dr. Shortt was elected, after which Dr. McLeod very graciously asked that the vote be made unanimous. Thus the sixtieth General Assembly got off to a good start. Regrets were expressed at the absence of the retiring Moderator through illness but his sermon was ably delivered by an ex-Moderator, Dr. Johnston of Ottawa. Knox church was filled to the doors to greet the great assembly of commissioners. This assembly promises to be one of the most animated in the long and honourable history of Canadian Presbyterianism so a longer article will follow next week.
