NEWTONBROOK

The Young People's Societies of Toronto Centre Presbytery is sponsoring a cruise to Port Dalhousie next Saturday, June 9th. Come along and enjoy a delightful outing.

The Young People's Society took charge of the service last Sunday evening in the United Church. The president, Mr. W. T. New, presided. The Scripture Lesson was read by Miss Margaret Shaw and prayer was offered by Miss Gladys Sutterby. A choir of twenty-three young people led in the worship of praise and rendered an anthem. A solo was also sung by Miss Irene Smith, 1st vice-president. Mr. Vaughan Blueman of Toronto was special speaker and took for his subject "The grip that holds." A very successful Tulip, Iris and Spring Flower Show was held by the North York Horticultural Society last Saturday and some very beautiful varieties were exhibited. Mr. W. T. Wells won several prizes from his garden.

A number from here attended the Birthday Tea which was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Kirby, Willowdale, under the auspices of the Women's Association. The Ministerial Quartette rendered a couple of numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Soden and Miss Doris Soden spent last week-end at their summer home at Balm Beach. Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Halbert attended the Halbert re-union last Saturday in Riverdale Park, Alliston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carson and Misses Mary, Hazel and Louise Carson visited at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carson's home last Sunday.

The W.M.S. of Newtonbrook United Church is invited to visit King City Auxiliary next Thursday, June 14th, and will give part of the program.

The Girls Mission Circle will meet next Thursday evening, June 14th, at 8:15, at the parsonage.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunday School executive will meet this (Thursday) evening in the United Church Sunday School rooms.

Rev. and Mrs. R. G. Halbert of Corbetton is visiting with the former brother, Rev. A. H. Halbert, while attending General Conference.

The North York Horticultural Society is competing in the Toronto Centennial Flower Show on July 2nd and 3rd and the members are requested to give the best blooms from their gardens.

A number from Newtonbrook attended the Caines-McLean wedding at Thornhill last Saturday. We extend to the happy young couple heartiest congratulations.

The Supply Committee of the W.M.S. met at Mrs. Dempseys home last Monday afternoon and packed a substantial bale.

Rev. R. G. Halbert of Corbetton will occupy the pulpit in the United church next Sunday morning.

The Women's Association is holding an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Frank Summers, Yonge St., this (Thursday) afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Hart of Pemberton Ave. took place from her home last week. Mrs. Hart was ill only a few days with pneumonia and her husband is at present very ill with pneumonia, but is showing signs of improvement.

The Mission Band was entertained at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wells last Monday afternoon. Games were played, after which refreshments were served out on the lawn.

Mrs. Halbert and Miss Margaret Graham attended a meeting of the Dominion Board of the W.M.S. last Friday evening in Timothy Eaton Memorial Church.

The Home and School Club of Newtonbrook is holding a picnic to Exhibition Park, Area 3, from 2 until 8 p.m., on Friday, June 15th. There will be sports and baseball and the Progress Medals will be presented to the pupils attaining the highest points.

THORNHILL

Mrs. W. C. L. Ball, Mrs. Harold Rowswell, Mr. J. Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Wilson spent the week-end with Mrs. Fee at Bass Lake.

W. M. S. Meeting The June meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Sunday School rooms. The devotional leaflet was taken by Mrs. S. Elson and Mrs. Guillam read the scripture. Miss L. Spencer rendered a delightful piano solo and Mrs. J. Davidson and Mrs. N. L. Morton a sacred duet. Miss Jessie MacKenzie of Toronto was the guest speaker, telling of her work among the foreigners of the city, especially the Italians, and took for her text "that God hath made of one blood all nations of the earth," emphasizing strongly the good we can do by being kind and charitable toward our brothers and sisters of foreign countries. A social time was spent after the meeting, when a cup of tea and dainty refreshments were served. The bale of clothing will be packed at the Sunday School rooms this week.

W. A. Meeting The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of the United Church will be held on Wednesday, June 13th, in the Sunday School room, at 3 o'clock. The hostesses will be Miss Agnes Boyle, Miss F. Bowes, Mrs. A. Brillinger and Mrs. A. Connell. This will be the last meeting of the season and a cordial invitation is extended to the women of the congregation.

Mrs. R. Fee entertained a number of friends over the week-end at her summer home at Bass Lake. Mr. Rutherford Farr spent a few days last week at his home here and returned on Monday to Algonquin Park, where he will spend the summer. Miss Amy Dove, Miss Greta Strangways and Miss Miller of Toronto visited with Miss Lilian Francis on Monday.

A service of very special interest will be held next Sunday morning (June 10th) in the Thornhill United Church, under the leadership of the W. M. Auxiliary of the church.

Rev. August Lapalla, Finnish Minister of the Church of All Nations, Toronto, will be the speaker and he will tell of the very interesting work of that Institution.

Mr. Lapalla will be accompanied by a Finnish soloist, and also it is hoped, an Italian soloist. The service will therefore have a distinctly international color.

The Minister, Rev. E. E. Pugsley, will be in attendance at the Sessions of Toronto Conference of the United Church beginning Wednesday afternoon and continuing until the following Monday or Tuesday. Mr. Ed. Francis is the Lay Delegate from Thornhill.

Mr. Pugsley expects to conduct the evening service next Sunday and the subject of the discourse will be "June 10th, 1925-1934."

The closing meeting of the Y.P.S. of the Thornhill United Church was held Monday evening with the very fitting topic "The God of the Out-doors." The address of the evening was given by Mr. Victor Grainger and proved to be one of the most interesting of the topics of the season and a fitting climax for the years work.

By means of several interesting object illustrations of various rock formations and of animal life of the earliest periods of pre-historic times, Mr. Grainger traced the development of the Universe in its progressive history and linked this progress with the Supreme Being in whose mind the idea and ideal had been held for countless millions of years. He also traced the progress of Religious thought, or specifically, man's thought about God up through its various stages to the highest conceptions of ONE GOD, supreme over all life.

The young people who heard Mr. Grainger will not soon forget his very earnest and illuminating address and will have larger thoughts of the God of the Out-of-Doors as they enjoy the summer vacation.

Though this was the last of the regular weekly meetings of the season, the Y.P. Group will meet monthly through the summer. Keep your eyes peeled for the date of the Y.P. Picnic.

Mr. Wm. Noble and Miss Ruby Jeffries have been successful in passing their third year course at Toronto University, and will receive their degree B. A. on Friday at the Convocation Garden Party.

Trinity Anglican Women's Association will hold a Garden Party on June 27th on Major Basher's grounds. Further notice later.

The W.A. Deanery will meet at Newmarket on Thursday, June 14th, D.S.T.

Vaughan Council Meet at Claireville Fair

A feature of Claireville Fair was the presence of the Vaughan Council who sat together at supper with Reeve Kellam in command followed by Deputy-Reeve Robert Dooks and Councillors Duncan McMurchy, Robt. Scott and Boynton Weldrick. It was remarked that Township affairs were not mentioned as the Council partook of the good supper provided by J. Doyle, proprietor of Queens Hotel. Instead they discussed national, provincial and world problems, good land bad land, insect pests, weeds, depression, the long cold winter, and the present drought. A matter liberally discussed and introduced by Robert Dooks was how to rid the land of twitch grass, the dreaded nuisance that farmers seem unable to contend with. Mr. Dooks thought that there was nothing better than summer fallowing by which method the roots can be kept exposed to the sun which cannot fail to destroy this pest, to which the council unanimously agreed. Another matter which met with considerable discussion was introduced by Reeve Kellam and was Ontario's land, good and bad. The best land for farming purposes in the opinion of Mr. Kellam was within 25 miles in all directions from where the council was seated. Within that area can be grown sufficient varieties of grain, fruit and vegetables to satisfy the needs of the people. Among other things grown was the excellent quality of wheat, barley, apples, strawberries, plums, cherries, and vegetables, to which the council agreed.

Deputy-Reeve Dooks pointed out that through the careful study of soil varieties in different sections of the province and what it was best adapted to produce was a problem that was being considered and put into practice. Prominent spectators at Claireville Fair were: Reeve Wm. Hostrawser, Toronto Gore; John O'Reilly, Clerk, Toronto Gore; Thomas Cole, W. J. Mitchell, Levi Elliott, Neil Burton, Wm. Fleming, John Kellam, James Ross, G. W. Bagg Sr., R. T. Wallace, Woodbridge; A. J. Witherspoon, J. T. Farr, J. M. Gardhouse, Westport; J. C. Saigeon, Maple; Alf. Bagg, Edgely; B. Weldrick, Teston; Wm. Dobson, J. T. Peacock, Robert Bowman, Claireville; Albert Sleightholm, Ebenezer.

Woodbridge Wins at Baseball

The baseball season of 1934 looks bright for the Woodbridge Club, as so far the team has made an encouraging showing. The game played on Friday evening of last week with the Bolton, last season league champions, was keenly contested and witnessed by a large crowd of spectators, Woodbridge winning by a score of 5 runs to 3. The line-up was, pitcher, Kenneth Shore; catcher, Gordon Bagg; 1st base, Lynas Glass; 2nd base, Bruce Hostrawser; 3rd base, Bert Shore; S. S., Lorne Bagg; R.F., Jack Elder; L.F., Ivan Greenwood; C.F., B. Banting; Bill Hollingshead, coach. Bolton: pitcher, A. Wilson; catcher, R. Young; 1st base, W. Young; 2nd base, Ernest Robertson; 3rd base, M. A. Houston; S.S., Calvin Daine; R.F., Albert McNair; L.F., Bill Egan; C.F., Alex. Mutchison; Otto Hardwick, coach; Wilfred Maxey, time-keeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smithson spent Sunday with friends at Malton.

Claireville Fair Attended by Record Crowd

The attendance at the Toronto Gore Agricultural Society Fair, held at Claireville on Wednesday, May 30th, was one of the largest in the history of the Society. The day was ideal and farmers took advantage of the space between seed time and haying, and trooped in from many parts of York and Peel. The show of live stock was equal in numbers to any heretofore, every class being well filled. Albert Hewson & Son, Peel County leading heavy horse breeders were the outstanding exhibitors and carried away many prizes. Other well known exhibitors were, Erwin Bros., Castlemore; Norman Livingston, Claireville; J. H. Kellam, Nashville; Amos Agar & Sons, Nashville; Brownridge Bros., Georgetown; W. B. Reid, Brampton; Nat. Byrne, Bolton; Stephen Maw, Mono Road; Joseph Fewster, Thistleton. Judges were, Fred McBride, Brampton; George Jackson, Downsview; Jasen Hassard, Weston; H. Wagg, Markham. A musical program by Woodbridge Band, a pair of Pipers, a Highland Lassic in native dances, and songs by Ernie Bruce, Toronto humorist and musician, added to the afternoon's pleasure. One of the features of the Fair was the opening address of J. A. Carroll of the Ontario Department of Agriculture after which addresses were delivered by Clifford Case, North York, and Duncan Marshall, Liberal Candidate in Peel County.

Cameron Clan Re-Union at Vellore

Two hundred and fifty members of the Cameron Clan trooped into Vellore on Saturday last where the family re-union picnic was held to do honor to the memory of their sturdy ancestors who came from Argyleshire, Scotland, early in the 19th Century where some of them settled in the vicinity of Vellore. However, like other families during the intervening years the family became separated and wandered far throughout the Dominion and numbers of the Clan met on Saturday who never met before. The older members gathered in groups and recalled incidents of their youth, while the younger members contended in a program of sports which included baseball and races. Among those who received prizes were, Mrs. Curtis Vanquour, B. C., for having come the greatest distance; Mrs. John Beamish, Toronto, for being the oldest lady; Mr. Alex. McNaughton for being the oldest gentleman; and to baby Robert Pierce for being the youngest member of the clan. Officers re-elected were: President, James Cameron, Weston; Secretary, Cameron McNaughton, Barrister, Toronto; Treasurer, J. Cameron, Toronto. The Cameron Clan would not be complete without a piper so Piper Major Fraser of Toronto was engaged and was liberal with Scottish airs such as "The March of the Cameron Men." Dinner and supper were served and a dance at night concluded a most happy and enjoyable gathering of the Cameron Clan. Prize winners in the sports events were: Girls, 6 to 8, Isobel Walkington, Mary McNeil; Boys 9 to 11, David Witherspoon, Phyllis Card; Girls 9 to 11, Madelene Devins, Ruth Davis; Boys 12 to 14, Ken Devins, Frank Smart; Girls 12 to 14, Madelene Devins, Jean Cameron; Men's open race, Cameron McNaughton, Jack McNeil; mixed wheelbarrow race, Orma Devins and Alex. McNaughton; snow race, Mrs. Pierce and Wilbert Burns; married ladies balloon race, Mrs. N. Bryson, Mrs. Thompson; married men's cracker race, Archie Cameron, Doctor Connell. A contest of guessing how many grains of tapioca were in a jar was won by Billie Walkington of King.
