

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

—A Canadian Camping Song—

A white tent pitched by a grassy lake,
Well under a shady tree,
Or by rippling rills from grand old hills
Is the summer home for me.
I feel no blaze of the noontide rays,
For the woodland glades are mine,
The fragrant air and that perfume rare,
The odour of forest pine.

A cooling plunge at the break of day,
A paddle or row or sail,
With always a fish for a mid day dish,
And plenty of Adam's ale.
With rod or gun, or in hammock swung
We glide through pleasant days,
When darkness falls on our canvas walls
We kindle the camp fire's blaze.

From out of the gloom, sails the silvery moon,
Over forests dark and still,
Now far, now near, ever sad and clear
Comes the plaint of the whip-poor-will.

With song and laugh and with kindly chaff,
We restle the birds above,
Then rest tired heads on our cedar beds
To dream of the ones we love.

—Sir J. D. Edgar

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends was solemnized amid picturesque sylvan surroundings at Glenburn Farms, the summer home of Colonel and Mrs. F. H. Deacon on Saturday afternoon last, when their eldest daughter Nora Elizabeth became the bride of Mr. Robert Kendall McConnell, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McConnell of Richmond Hill, New York. Tall dignified maples formed the archway and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Bruce Hunter, D.D., and Rev. James Little, D.D. The ushers were Dr. J. L. Allen of New York, Mr. Grandison Hoyt and Mr. Ted Maybee.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, passed through an aisle formed by her seven brothers and her cousin Lloyd Black, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March sung by a trio under the leadership of Mrs. Roy Denton Kennedy. Preceding the bride were her attendants, Miss Charlotte Deacon, sister of the bride, Miss Wynifred Burgess of Ottawa, Maid of Honor and two little flower girls, Peggy Lee McConnell, niece of the groom and Kathleen, sister of the bride. The bride was charming in a white lace gown made along simple lines, with short train, the waist length veil of white net fell from a closely fitting cap of Carrickmacross lace and caught at the nape of the neck with orange blossoms. The attendants' gowns were of shirring pink crepe and net with large matching hats and the flower girls were frocked in the same shade of flowered organdie. Following the wedding reception Mr. and Mrs. McConnell left on a motor trip through Quebec and the Maritime provinces and on their return will make their home in Toronto.

Still another big event sponsored by the Junior Farmers that you will want to attend. The Dance that will be held in Stiver's new mill on Station Street, Unionville, on Wednesday evening next, July 4th. Tell your friends about it and come and join in the fun.

A delightful lunch followed the presentation.

attendance good and visits to the various gardens most entertaining. The Exhibition Park looking the very best in gala dress for the Centennial Celebration on Dominion Day was an ideal place for the picnic supper and the drive home through Lawrence Park, Rosedale, etc., finished the day in the proper way. A most enjoyable event.

DRAGGED KAISER'S STATUE IN POND

All Canada heard of the exploit of John Alexander Ferguson when at the outbreak of the Great War in 1914 he tied a rope about the statue of Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany at Berlin, Ontario (now Kitchener) and dragged it into a pond. Many read of this incident but few are aware that Mrs. Ferguson, mother of John Alexander Ferguson, is now a resident of Richmond Hill. The spirit which led to the escapade which attracted so much attention carried the young man overseas in khaki early in the war and on the field of battle he paid the supreme sacrifice. (Mrs. Ferguson, widowed mother of the young hero has been a resident of Richmond Hill for the past three years, residing on Yonge Street.

be?

There's a cake full of plums, there are strawberries too,
And the table is set on the green;
I'm fond of a carpet all daisies and grass—
Could a prettier picture be seen?

A blackbird (yes, blackbirds delight in warm weather),
Is flitting from yonder high spray;
He sees the two little ones talking together—
No wonder the blackbird is gay.

WEDDING

MAYNES-SHELLY

In the Church of the Transfiguration, Manor Road, the marriage took place quietly of Dorothy M., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Shelly, Yonge Street, to Mr. William W. Maynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Maynes, Toronto. Rev. A. Wasson officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a dress of yacht blue crepe with cowl neckline, puffed sleeves embroidered with beads, white hat and accessories. She carried lily-of-the-valley and maiden-hair fern. Miss Violet Sibley, who attended the bride, was attired in a tea rose ensemble, with matching accessories and carried tea roses. Mr. Alex. Haggett supported the groom.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left by motor for a short trip, the bride travelling in a navy blue frock, three-quarter length coat, white hat and accessories. On their return they will live on Brookdale Avenue.

GOHN-RUSSELL

A pretty wedding took place at St. Matthew's Anglican Church, when Rev. Canon Sawers solemnized the marriage of Winnifred Gladys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell, to Mr. Lloyd B. Gohn, son of ex-Warden and Mrs. Wesley C. Gohn of Gormley, Ont. Mr. Fred Binnington presided at the organ and during the signing of the register Mr. Arthur Holiday sang "Until."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of white French lace, with veil of rosepoint lace arranged in cap effect with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily-of-the-valley. She had two attendants, her sister Miss Ena Russell, as maid-of-honor, in a frock of ashes of roses triple sheer with large white mohair hat and bouquet of Butterfly roses, and Miss Reva Gohn, of St. Thomas, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, in pale green triple sheer with similar white mohair hat, and bouquet of Premier roses. Mr. Jack Smith was the best man, and the ushers were Mr. Garfield Hamilton of Markham, and Mr. Paul Russell, brother of the bride.

A reception was held afterwards at the Stoodleigh Tea Rooms where Mrs. Russell wearing a gown of figured crepe with black hat and corsage of sweetpeas and lily-of-the-valley, and Mrs. Gohn, mother of the groom, in a gown of mauve printed crepe with white hat and bouquet of roses, received with the bridal party.

TOWN COOP IS MOVED AT LAST

Believe it or not, the lock-up is moved. The controversy which has been the subject of much local discussion is settled. The building is moved from its former location at the park entrance and is now located at the northern side of the grounds, well hidden from public view.

It is now in order that several local wagers be paid. More than one five cent cigar should change hands as a result of the move. One business man who after years of hopeful waiting for some action on the moving of the building this spring gave up hope and offered to wager a box of cigars that it wouldn't be moved for a hundred years. Unfortunately he had no takers. However, there were a number of varied wagers as to whether or not the "coop" would be moved this year. It seems we have a few to collect and perhaps a few to pay. Anyway the move will be a major improvement to church street and will be appreciated by all the citizens of the town.

CARD OF THANKS

Messrs. Cecil and Elmore Harding and Mrs. Calvert Nichol wish to thank their many relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy and floral tributes in their recent sad bereavement in the loss of their father.

Safe in the arms of Jesus.
