Way Back in the Liberal Files

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
 From Our Issue of June 29th, 1899
 The firm of Newton & Bro., tanners at Elgin Mills, has been converted into a Company consisting of Mr. and Mrs. James Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Newton and Mr. Thomas Newton, secretary. The Company in order to be up-to-date is erecting a new fire-proof boiler house, and putting in a large 112 horse-power boiler, manufactured by Goldie & McCulloch, Galt. The class of leather turned out by this firm in past years has more than a provincial reputation and with increased power and new machinery added the Company will be able to rival the largest firms in the Dominion.

The annual election of officers for Richmond Lodge No. 23, A.F. & A.M., took place on the evening of Monday, June 19th, and the new officers were duly installed on Saturday evening as follows: W.M., Ernest Coombs; S. W., Isaac Crosby; J.W., Geo. Newberry; S.D., Jas. Wright; J.D., W. Trench; S.S., Geo. Leek; J.S., R. W. Glass; I.G., T. F. McMahon; Tyler, R. E. Law; Treasurer, Alex. Moodie; Secretary, H. A. Nicholls; Chaplain, A. L. Skeele; Director of Ceremonies, Jas. Elliott.

Dr. Emerson Henderson, L.D.S., Surgeon Dentist, has fitted up a dental office in the Grand Central Building next door South of the Liberal Office and will be here on Tuesday of each week.

Dr. Langstaff returned last evening from Chicago, where he took special studies in the larger hospitals of that city.

Rev. Wellwood, the incoming superintendent of the Circuit will preach his first pastoral sermon in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

As usual the annual tea party and games held in Mr. Klinck's Park, Victoria Square, last Saturday was most successful. The discourse in the afternoon was intended particularly for the Sabbath School children, but it contained much healthy food for both old and young.

The more you look at it and smell it, the more you wonder how anybody knew the Turkish kind was tobacco.

The FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER
 By ALFRED BIGGS

Nobody loves an egotist.
 Wisdom is better than wealth.
 Waste no tears over yesterday.
 It is often harder to live than to die.
 We are all slaves to habit and custom.
 Ignore misfortune and it will ignore you.
 A mind perennially young is a fountain of youth.
 Aged war-makers demand young victims.
