

ENJOYABLE PICNIC AT MUSSELMAN'S LAKE
The annual picnic of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church Sunday School was held last Saturday at Musselman's Lake. A very enjoyable program of sports was enjoyed after which picnic supper was served.

BOWLERS WON THIRD PRIZE
A rink of Richmond Hill bowlers won third prize in the tournament at Allendale, Wednesday afternoon. The personnel of the rink was: A. G. Savage, Morley B. Hall, A. A. Eden and E. T. Stephens skip.

NEWTONBROOK

A number from here attended the Centennial celebration at the Exhibition Park last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Soden and Miss Doris Soden left last Tuesday to spend the summer at Balm Beach, Georgian Bay.

The Women's Association is holding a Basket Picnic to Hanlans Island this (Thursday) afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Halbert and Mrs. Harry Smith attended the Induction Service of Rev. F. Gilbert at Headford United Church last Friday evening.

Misses Janet and Leeta Riddell, Miss Irene Smith, Miss Eva Lockyer, Miss Alice Jack and Miss Margaret Shaw spent the 1st July holiday at Georgian Bay.

A communion and reception service was held in the United Church last Sunday morning. A beautiful duet was sung by Mrs. Glen Shaw and Mr. McMullen.

The Loyal Orange Lodges of Willowdale and the surrounding community marched to the United Church last Sunday evening and were led by the Richmond Hill Orange Flute Band. The ladies of the L.O.B.A. attended also. A suitable message was given by the pastor, Rev. A. H. Halbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith have returned after spending a month with relatives in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. W. E. MacKay of Newtonbrook won first prize for his display of delphiniums (500 sq. feet) at the Centennial Flower Show at Exhibition Park, Toronto, this week. He had a most gorgeous variety and it brought forth much admiration from all who saw them. The setting was very beautiful and was the work of a real artist.

The North York Horticultural Society also won a prize at the Centennial Flower Show. Their floral display was very fine also.

Mrs. Robert Smith is able to be up again after her recent illness. Mrs. Thomas Street is also improving. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Bennett Richards, Miss Maisie and Mr. Albert Richards of King were guests at the parsonage last Sunday.

The Sunday School Executive is holding their regular monthly meeting in the Sunday School room of the United Church on Wednesday evening.

The annual Sunday School Garden Party is to be held on Wednesday, July 25th. Keep this date open and plan to come.

Next time we'll know, it's time to sell when preachers, school teachers and widows begin to buy.

There is no doubt about recovery. History shows that strikes increase only when good times are coming.
