It's a wonderful day for the ride. Edgar Guest "Then none were for the party,

And all were for the State, The rich man helped the poor man, And the poor man helped the great" Stressing that the hope of the future is not in a political party but interpreted in terms of human values and human personalities with an aim that favors co-operation, to live and let live, Prof. Jos. McCulley of Pickering College, Newmarket, addressed a large gathering at Glenburn Farms, the summer home of Colonel and Mrs. F. H. Deacon, last Thursday night, when the Junior Farmers or ganization and Girls Club entertained the Downtown Kiwanis Club of Toronto, W. Champion and Ruby Reesor, Presidents of the Clubs, receiving the guests. A delightful Garden Party that included a supper served a tables set on the spacious lawn, a delightful drive through the Deacon property, a visit to the Turkey ranch, etc., were pleasures enjoyed preceding the evening's entertainment, that was in charge of the Agricultural Committee of the Kiwanis Club, with the Secretary, Arthur Payne, in charge The program was given in the mammoth barn that had been suitably decorated for the occasion. Bil Champion, in officially welcoming the guests, also expressed appreciation to Colonel and Mrs. Deacon for their kind hospitality and Ruby Reesor on behalf of the Clubs presented Mrs. Deacon with a box of chocolates. On the program were also included Kenneth Laoheed, Kiwanis President, Col. F. H. Deacon and musical selections by the Junior Farmers Quartette, Fred Johnson, Chas. Whittaker, Ken. MacIntosh, Alex. Allen; John Moscow, violinist; Dorothea Brown, soloist; piano accordion and harmonica solos by members of the Kiwanis Boy's Club. Later in the evening a surprize was accorded the gathering Ly the arrival of Ola B. MacNaughton noted reader who delighted the audience with several pleasing selections. An old time Barn Dance to the strains of the Junior Farmers Corn Poppers concluded the event. Among those present were Mr. Wells, Mr. Evans, Mr. Coleman of the Liberal Reform Association of Toronto, Miss Ethel Chapman, Miss Petty, Mrs. Stevens, Miss Wallace of the Department, Mr. and Mrs. Bryden of Montpelier, Vermont; Mr. and Mrs. A. What thoughts does that word Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Allison and bring to you? Does it just make

If you are an old camper, it would Lake, over the week-end and holiday. not only be one thought, but many, which would perhaps bring back the Mrs. F. Coulter left on Thursday thoughts of the fellowship of those with whom you came in contact, the quiet Morning Watch, when you sat in your own special little spot and there communed with God. Perhaps you would think of your Bible Study Group, where you learned how to live more closely in Jesus' way. would you think of the fun in your interest groups, where you learned handicraft, or camperaft, or photography or other useful things? You might even think of the fun you had Miss M. Swan, Miss M. Brimstin and when in swimming, the fun of learning to swim, or dive, or some new and the stories, sing-songs, and short plays at camp-fire would be brought Mr and Mrs. A. Warrington and to your mind. But perhaps, the most family spent the holiday week-end impressive is the Vesper Service, when you sit on the shore and while singing hymns, and listening to a quiet talk by your leader, the sun dips out of sight, casting its reflection over the calm waters. Is this not really worth while? It is not just a waste of time, but, an experience never to be forgotten. How many of you are sending your boy or girl to camp? Or, how many of you are sending somebody else's boy or girl to camp? If it is financially possible, why not experiment this year and find what a change will come over that one boy or girl you send.

The C.G.I.T. camp (inter-denominational) will be held on Georgina Island, Lake Simcoe, from Thursday, July 19th, to Saturday, July 28th. The Senior Boys will return the day the girls go to camp. For further information see Jean Middleton.

A tea in aid of sending girls to camp will be held at the home of Jean Middleton on Tuesday, July 10th from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Admission 15 cents.

After the table was had never ridden a horse before obtained a good training in how to mount and descend from a horse. Baseball also helped to work up an appetite. The afternoon was so warm the girls each picked out a quiet spot and curled up with an interesting book or magazine.

Camp fire time soon came around again, marshmellows were toasted and taps were sung. The girls were just turning in for the night when a huge bright light flashed. Some thought it was the fire starting to burn again. Some thought it was the headlights of a car turning up the lane. It was a meteor, a star almost as large as the moon, a bright bluish white with a tail of fire. It lit up the whole bush almost as light as day.

The girls were glad they were camping as they might not have seen it otherwise.

Monday evening came, the girls had tidied up camp, struck tent and pack-
