A VERSE FOR THE KIDDIES

"Come hither little puppy dog,
I'll give you a new collar,
If you will learn to read your book,
And be a clever scholar."
"No, no," replied the puppy dog,
I've other fish to fry;
For I must learn to guard your house
And bark when thieves come nigh."

WEDDING

ASHBY-SAVAGE

A very picturesque wedding took place on the lawn at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Savage, Richmond Hill, when their younger daughter Lucy Irene, was united in marriage to Mr. John Chapman Ashby, son of Mrs. Ashby, York Mills, and the late Mr. Ashby, by the Rev. James Cunningham, on Saturday, July 21st. To the strains of the wedding music played by Miss Margaret Coulter, the bride on the arm of her father looked charming as she crossed the lawn in her Paton model wedding dress of old ivory suede lace, fashioned in wind-blown design, and small train. She wore a large Rebeau model sailor and carried a sheathe of white carnations and baby's breath.

Her attendant, Miss Mildred Mackie, was gowned in white organza with long taffata sash. She carried a similar bouquet of (past) pink carnations and baby's breath.

The groom was assisted by Mr. Alfred Hooper.

Following the ceremony a reception was held.

The bride's mother received in a gown of patterned georgette. Her corsage was of talisman roses and sweet peas. The mother of the groom wore a black crepe ensemble with trimmings of white, and a corsage of butterfly roses and sweet peas.

For travelling the bride chose a tailored frock of white moss crepe and royal blue bedingote with mandarin felt of the same shade. Her accessories were of white. On their return from Muskoka, Mr. and Mrs. Ashby will reside in their new home, Bathurst Street, Armour Heights.

Another need of the times is a dummy cigarette you can reach for absentmindedly when you don't really want a smoke.

YOUNG PEOPLE HELD PICNIC

Under a sizzling sun the various Young People's Societies of Toronto Centre North Presbytery met for their annual picnic at Sharon Temple grounds. The games of softball, between the four teams standing highest in the league were the feature of the afternoon. Temperanceville won from Queensville by 5-3.

Then at 5 o'clock Newmarket took on Laskay in the second semi-final game and won by an easy margin. This left Newmarket and Temperanceville to battle it out for the Thomas Sisman Shield but refreshments seemed fitting before the final tussle, so the societies gathered in informal groups about the lawn to enjoy lunch.

The final game of softball proved to be a close contest, probably closer than the score 17-10 showed. Newmarket carried off the honors and were presented with the shield.

The president of the Presbytery, Carman Tilson, presided and winners of other events were presented as follows:

Queensville, first—Catchers glove. Victoria Square, second—Ball & bat. Laskay, third—Ball.

Much interest was shown right up to the finish and splendid co-operation of all societies helped to make this annual event an unusual success.

IN MEMORIAM

STEPHENSON—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur W. Stephenson, who departed this life suddenly, July 24, 1932.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance
Just a memory fond and true;
Just a token of sweet affection,
And a heartache still for you.

More an dmore each day we miss you
Though our thoughts are not revealed;

Little do they know the sorrow
That is within our hearts concealed
Sadly missed by Wife and Children

Historic Church To Celebrate Anniversary

Bethesda Lutheran Church, Unionville, Ontario, the Rev. E. Huenergard, pastor, is now arranging final plans for a monster celebration of the 140 anniversary of the founding of the congregation. Services will be held at the church in Unionville, Ontario, August 12 to 14. Former pastors of the congregation will speak at services which will be held on Sunday, Aug. 12th, in the morning and in the evening. "Community Night" will be observed on Monday, August 13th, when ministers of neighboring churches and public officials of Markham and Unionville will be present. Peaches Quartette and the Anglican choir will furnish music at this service. "Remembrance Night" on Tuesday, Aug. 14th, an address will be made by Mr. A. J. H. Eckardt of Toronto, whose great-great grandfather was one of the founders of the congregation. Music will be furnished by the United Church choir and by the Markham Male Quartette. On Sunday evening the Raymer choir of Toronto will sing.

A prominent place will be given in these services to a pew from the first church building. It was hewn out of a huge pine log with broad-axe, and is probably 140 years old. A family of four generations will occupy it during the services. All are cordially invited to attend these services. Watch for further announcements.

People in Germany have been arrested for gossiping. What a wide field there would be for a law like this if it could be enforced in all countries.

Crickets took possession of houses at Port Credit, causing annoyance and damage. It is the revival of cricket we want, not crickets.
