Way Back in the Liberal Files

FIFTY YEARS AGO

From Our Issue of July 31st, 1884
Mr. J. Thompson's covered bus is being handsomely painted and thoroughly repaired at Mr. Trench's Works, giving it the appearance of a conveyance perfectly new. The scrolling is very tastefully executed, and reflects great credit on the workman.

A number of members of the Good Templars Lodge of this place visited the Sons of Temperance at Eversley on Saturday evening last, and were cordially entertained. They report the lodge to be in a flourishing condition.

Messrs. W. Storey and A. Linklater have the contract and are erecting a new dwelling house for Mr. Bricknell, on Centre Street West. The building is to be brick-clad, and when finished will add greatly to the appearance of that locality.

The gold medal recently won by the "Young Canadians" from the "Excelsiors" of Brampton, has been received and may be seen in Mr. A. L. Skeele's show window. The upper part of the medal consists of two lacrosse sticks; below this is a beautiful golden beaver, and below the beaver is a large plate of silver, shaped like an old Masonic apron, all enclosed in a handsome case. The workmanship was executed by Messrs. Welch and Trowern, Toronto, and is an elegant piece of workmanship.

The following were elected last evening as office bearers for the ensuing quarter at the Temperance Lodge in Richmond Hill: W.C.T., Bro. C. Ruthertford; W.V.T., Sis. J. A. E. Switzer; W.S., Bro. Geo. McDonald; W.F.S., Bro. S. Agar; W.T., Sis. J. H. Sanderson; W.I.G., Sis. H. Wiley; W.O.G., Bro. J. H. Sanderson; P.W.C.T., Bro. W. Storey; T.D., Bro. W. Harrison.

Thompson Smith & Son's new saw mill in Stouffville has been purchased by the Parry Sound Lumber Co., and will be removed in a few days to its northern home. This means a great financial loss to Stouffville.

The Toronto Council have voted $2000 in aid of the sufferers by the recent fire at Port Perry.

There were 21 failures in Canada reported to Bradstreet during the week ending July 20th, and 15 the preceding week.

VELLORE

The Women's Missionary Society held their evening service on Sunday night and was well attended. Rev. J. C. Cunningham, returned Missionary from China and Pastor of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, gave an excellent talk on "The Missionary." The choir of Richmond Hill Church led the song service and rendered special music to an appreciative audience.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bates were, Mrs. J. Bates and son Mr. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. Garrow all of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lindsay and family of Woodbridge.

Miss J. McKinnon of Weston spent the week-end with her parents.

The sympathy of the district is extended to Mr. E. O'Connor who recently had his right arm amputated to curtail a serious infection. Ernie was a prize winning ploughman and a splendid workman. We hope with all the scientific inventions of the present age that a replacement will be made to help him carry on.

Congratulations are extended to Miss E. Farr, teacher, and the pupils of Vellore school who wrote successfully their Entrance Examinations. Eleanor Oliver, Muriel Casely and Albert Foster.

The FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER

By ALFRED BIGGS

Facts dispel fancies.
You can't win if you're afraid to try.
Science, music and art know no nationality.
You may play a good game and still be a poor sport.
The vices of today often are the virtues of tomorrow.
You can't separate true knowledge from modesty.
Only ignorance measures values by money standards.
