

FRETFUL BABIES
Quieted!

"If my three baby boys were restless with colic or peevish from their teeth I gave them a Baby's Own Tablet and they were soon asleep," says Mrs. T. Tweedy, 475 Millwood Rd., Toronto. These sweet little tablets remove the cause of fretfulness and the child becomes happy and well again. All the common ailments of little folk are promptly and safely corrected with Dr. Williams' Baby's Own Tablets. Price 25c at your druggist's.

Twentieth Annual Family Reunion of Ellerby Clan

From a start of two brothers, Jonathan and Peter Ellerby, natives of Yorkshire, England, the Ellerby family has grown until it is now a clan counted in the hundreds, and like most clans many members have wandered far throughout the Dominion and the United States. However, more than 200 members assembled in Community Park, Thistletown, on Labor Day for the twentieth annual picnic. Many from points which included Chicago, Duluth Minn., Astabula Ohio, London Ontario, Thennesford, Woodstock, Toronto, Aurora, Newmarket and Shelbourne. For long distance attendance honours went to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Abenathy of Duluth, both well past the four score age, who made the long journey by automobile. The oldest person present was Colin Cameron of Thistletown. During the afternoon a lengthy program of sports was carried out which was enjoyed by the youthful members while those of advanced years discussed political problems and recalled incidents in their early lives. A feature of the event was the presence of four generations with Thomas (Pete) Farr as the head. Officers elected for 1935: Honorary Presidents, Jonathan Ellerby, Woodbridge; Colin Cameron, Thistletown; Mrs. Ellerby Farr, Toronto; Mrs. John Ellerby, Toronto; Miss Alice Linton, Toronto; James Robinson, Toronto; President, Miss May Watson; 1st Vice-President, Miss Vina Storey; 2nd Vice-President, Joseph Farr; Historical Secretary, J. W. Ellerby; Secretary, Lambert Farr; Convenor of Committees, Sports, James Maw; Refreshments, Mrs. Austin Fairchild; Program, Mrs. M. Barker; Reception, Miss May Watson. Miss Marie Winslow was the winner in a nail guessing contest and was awarded a roasted chicken. A program was provided following the day's proceedings which was contributed to by Tom Clark of Woodstock, Norman and Jack Farr of Toronto, reading by Mrs. Steadman, London, the Brown family of Milford, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Steadman and Neil Burton, Woodbridge. Lt. Col. Gilbert Jarvis, Toronto, occupied the chair and the event ended with a dance that continued until midnight.

IN MEMORIAM
McDONALD—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Murdoch McDonald, who entered into rest Sept. 8th, 1931.
As we loved you so we miss you,
And in our hearts you are never near;
Loved, remembered, longed for always
Bring many a silent tear.
Every day our thoughts are wandering
To that grave not far away,
Where they gently laid your body
Just three years ago to-day.
Ever remembered by Wife and Family.

McDonald—In loving memory of dear Grandpa, Murdoch McDonald, who went to sleep with Jesus, Sept. 8th, 1931.
How oft he comes before us,
His dear face fond and true;
Your death can never take away
Sweet memories, dear grandpa, of you.
Lovingly remembered by Grandchildren.

THORNHILL

Late Samuel Bone
Samuel Bone of S. Bone and Sons Grocers, of Avenue Road, passed away suddenly on Sunday evening at his summer home on Lake Simcoe.

Mr. Bone was in his seventy-fourth year, having been born in Hertfordshire, England, on Aug. 5th, 1861. He came to Toronto thirty-one years ago and established himself in the grocery business, and for the past twenty-six years had conducted the well-known business on Avenue Rd.

Mr. Bone was a member of St. Paul's United Church, Avenue Road, and celebrated his fiftieth wedding anniversary one year ago. He is survived by his wife, Mary Elizabeth, and four daughters, Mrs. H. M. Cowan of Toronto, Mrs. A. E. W. Bone of Harron, England, Mrs. D. B. Shepherd and Mrs. A. C. Mann, both of Toronto, and three sons, Frederick A., Percy and Cyril C., who are carrying on the business.

The funeral was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Cowan, 210 Riverside Drive. Rev. Dr. Harold Young of St. Paul's United Church conducted the service at the house. Interment took place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Morton and family arrived home on Monday after spending the month of August at Lake Simcoe.

Mr. Bill Breakey and family of Winnipeg are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Breakey.

Mrs. Lee and Miss S. Baxter returned home last week from Georgian Bay, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark of Palmyra, New York, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Findlater and daughter Elsie of Galt and Mr. Parry Thompson of Parkhill visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson.

Mrs. Charles J. Smith and Mrs. Edith Luesby left on Tuesday by motor for a ten day trip to Manitoulin Island, Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie.

John Sumner of New York and formerly of this village, died suddenly last Wednesday while at his work as Secretary for the Y.M.C.A. in New York. Mr. Sumner was a Y.M.C.A. worker in Toronto during and after the war and was a special representative assigned to troop transports moving from Canada to France and England. Surviving are his widow, two daughters Mildred and Betty and two sons Alan at home and John of Hamilton.
