UNIONVILLE GRAIN CLUB MEMBERS HOLD JUDGING COMPETITION

The members of the Unionville Grain Club will hold their Judging Competition and examination of their year's work on Thursday evening, Oct. 4th, at 7 p.m., in the Markham Fair Building, Markham.

THANKS TO THOSE WHO HELPED

Bert Cook and "Bunny" White on behalf of the Young Canucks and Night Hawks juvenile lacrosse teams wish to express their sincere thanks to those who supplied baking, and those who assisted financially making possible the banquet tendered the boys last Saturday.

MAPLE

The pupils of Maple and Hope Public Schools won quite a number of prizes at the Fair at Vellore last week. There was keen competition among the many schools that entered and from the large attendance it could be seen that school fairs are becoming more popular.

An auto driver crashed into a gas tank at Mr. R. Jones' Hotel last week breaking off a globe from the top and destroying it.

Rev. Mr. Modie of Downsview occupied the pulpit of the United church on Sunday, Rev. A. M. Partridge taking anniversary services at that place.

Misses Otille and Elsie Robinson of Toronto visited at Mr. A. C. Robinson's on Sunday.

Mrs. Leslie Kay and little daughter of Aurora spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. W. Cousins.

Misses Catherine McQuarrie, Mary Johnson and Audrey McNaughton are attending Normal School in Toronto.

A successful sale of home-baking was held on Saturday at the home of Mrs. I. Watson.

A Harvest Home Festival Service will be held in St. Stephen's Church next Sunday at 7 p.m., when the special preacher will be Prof. W. E. Taylor of Wycliffe College. It is expected that the choir of St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, will be present at the service.

Rally Day services will be held next Sunday, Dr. F. Routley to be the special speaker in the United Church at 2.30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robson of Souris Man., visited at Mr. J. B. McLean's on Monday, and called on other friends in the Village.

The choir of Runnymede United Church held a Corn Roast in Mr. C. Robeson's yard on Tuesday evening.

A meeting of the Bible Society will be held next Monday evening when Rev. Harrington, Secretary, will give an illustrated address. The Vaughan Branch of the Society will be re-organized at the meeting.

Rev. A. M. Partridge and Mr. T. McCormick attended the meeting of the Central Presbytery in Rosedale United Church on Tuesday.

A concert will be held in the United Church on Wednesday evening, Oct. 3rd. The artists will be Messrs. Idris Hopkins and Franklyn Zinger, and is under the auspices of the United Church Young People's Society.

GREAT FROLIC AND DANCE WED., OCT. 10th

There is keen interest in the great Frolic and Dance to be held in the Richmond Hill Arena Wednesday, Oct. 10th, under the auspices of Richmond Hill Trumpet Band. Art West's orchestra will supply music for modern and old time dancing. A six piece breakfast suite, a 68 piece dinner set and a wrist watch will be given away to the holders of lucky number admission tickets. There is a keen demand for the tickets and the event promises to be one of the largest and most enjoyable of the season. The admission is the popular price of 25 cents.

YORK COUNTY CALF CLUBS HOLD ANNUAL ACHIEVEMENT DAY

Included in the educational program of Calf Club boys is a Judging Competition and questionnaire on care, feeding and management of dairy cattle, which takes place previous to the annual show. The members of the Markham Calf Club will hold their Judging Competition on Friday, Sept. 28th, judging classes of Ayrshires at Vincent's, Agincourt, and Holsteins at Henry's, Oriole. Members of the Woodbridge Calf Club will hold their Judging Competition on Tuesday, Oct. 2nd, judging Ayrshires at John Riddell's, King, and Holsteins at Watson Bros., King.

CLUB MEMBERS STAGE BIG SHOW FOR FIRST DAY OF MARKHAM FAIR

Friday, Oct. 5th, should be an interesting day at Markham Fair when over one hundred club members will be displaying their live stock and field crops. The Calf Club with thirty-five members, and the Foal Club with sixteen members will exhibit their calves and colts commencing at 2 o'clock. Fifty members of the Grain Club will exhibit bushel lots of their field crops grown from registered seed this year.

So successful have been the exhibits staged by the Unionville Junior Farmers at Markham Fall Fair in past years, that the Directors have asked them to take over complete Grain Show this year. Great preparation is being made for this exhibit. In addition to the regular cash prizes given by the Society, many valuable specials have been solicited by the organization, all of which should attract a large exhibit.

Members of the Junior Institute are joining in with the other displays and showing cooking and sewing.

WEDDING

BATTY—COSBURN

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, L'Amoreaux, when Hazel Cosburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cosburn of Agincourt, was united in marriage to Allan Batty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Batty, of Brantford, formerly of Richmond Hill. Rev. G. S. Scovell officiated, assisted by Rev. W. K. Batty, brother of the groom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in blue chiffon velvet with matching Ophelia roses. The bride's sister, Miss Lillian Cosburn, acted as bridesmaid, wearing wine chiffon velvet with matching hat and carrying Ophelia roses.

Mr. Granville Crisp attended the groom. The ushers were Mr. Bruce Ross and M. Edward Cosburn. During the signing of the register, Mr. E. H. Tucker sang "At Dawning."

Following the ceremony a reception was held, at which the bride's mother received, wearing navy blue crepe with corsage of red roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Norman Batty, mother of the groom, who wore black satin with lace and a corsage of red roses. Mr. and Mrs. Batty will reside in Toronto.

DOLAN-BOYLE

At St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, with the rector, Rev. L. C. Secrett, officiating, Miss Marjorie Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver A. Boyle, of Oak Ridges, was married to Arthur James Dolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dolan of Richmond Hill. The church was decorated with pink and white asters and cornflowers and ferns for the occasion, and during the signing of the register Mrs. L. C. Secrett sang. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin made on princess lines with veil of point d'esprit and coronet lilies-of-the-valley, and carried butterfly roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jean H. Boyle, who wore a gown of seal crepe trimmed with ermine and brown hat. She carried Johanna Hill roses.

Mr. Malcolm Tennyson was groomsman and Mr. Kenneth Frisby and Mr. Alfred Dolan the ushers, and Mr. William Davies, the organist, played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Boyle receiving her guests in a costume of brown and white crepe romaine. Mrs. Dolan, mother of the groom, was in a brown ensemble and both wore shoulder bouquets of briarcliff roses.
