WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY CONFERENCE
The eighth annual Conference of the W.M.S. Northern Section, Toronto Centre Presbyterian, was held Wednesday, Sept. 26th, in the United Church, Richmond Hill, Mrs. J. A. Maitland, 3rd Vice-President of Toronto Centre Presbyterian, presiding. The Conference theme was "Harvesting the Harvest." The Worship Services, carrying out the theme, were conducted by Richmond Hill and Maple Auxiliaries, Victoria Square and Sutton Auxiliaries, and the noon-tide period was led by Mrs. E. M. Benton.

The feature of the morning session was the group conference led by the Presbyterian Secretaries followed by an Open Forum led by Mrs. Frank Rae.

Reports were given on the work of the Northern Section (comprising 18 Auxiliaries) by Mrs. R. F. Hicks, 4th Vice-President of Toronto Centre Presbyterian, and Mrs. J. A. Maitland.

Mrs. J. A. Snell, President of Toronto Centre Presbyterian, gave an inspiring address on the value of Literature provided urging the use of the Study Books and the Report which she called a "Symphony in Blue," a "Romance in figures."

Mrs. E. Ryerson Young, President of Toronto Conference Branch, gave a most informative address on The Work in Northern Ontario, in sparsely settled districts, stressing the wonderful work done by the hospitals and in homes under trying conditions. Mrs. Young also told of the splendid work among different nationalities.

A beautiful duet "I waited for the Lord" was sung by Miss Switzer and Mrs. Hall. Some one-hundred and twenty-five partook of a delightful luncheon provided by the Richmond Hill Auxiliary. At the luncheon hour Rev. G. E. Coulter extended Greetings and Miss Lillian Plewman of the Canadian Academy, Kobe, Japan, gave an interesting talk and demonstration of Japanese dress. The Conference closed with Messages from Mrs. R. F. Hicks and Mrs. J. A. Maitland.

CARRVILLE

Sunday, Oct. 7th, there will be a special Thanksgiving service and communion service in Carrville church. On Sunday, Oct. 14th, Carrville Church will hold its anniversary services. In the afternoon Rev. G. E. Coulter of Richmond Hill will occupy the pulpit, there will be special music. In the evening the Rev. J. A. C. Kell of Fairbank will speak. Victoria Square choir will render special music. Our own minister, Mr. Gilbert, will also be present at that service.

Mr. V. Pellow, who was engaged as teacher for Carrville School for this term, met with a very serious accident at the York Mills Bridge as he was driving out to school. His jaw was broken, his nose fractured and other injuries. Although only here a short time he was very popular with the scholars and all hope he will recover and be back to his school before long. Miss Lorraine Walker has been appointed as teacher in his absence.

Mrs. Jack Clement and Miss G. Thompson spent Sunday at Gravenhurst. Mr. Ray Bartlett spent Sunday at his home in Markham. Mrs. Alex Forrest, Mrs. Wm. Woods and Mrs. H. Jennings visited friends in Carrville last Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. H. Burton of Lambton Mills, Mr. and Mrs. F. Fisk of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burton of Argyle and Mr. and Mrs. H. McIntyre of Woodville spent Sunday at Mr. Leo Burton's. Mr. and Mrs. C. Clark visited friends at Downsview on Sunday. Carrville Young People's Society will hold their meeting on Tuesday evening of next week as Monday is a holiday.

VICTORIA SQUARE

When the frost is on the pumpkin—well it's about time to be getting them in the cellar.

On Saturday a fine display of vegetables and clothing were to be seen in the Hall at the York County Achievement Day. With unpromising weather conditions the day got away to rather a bad start. However, the program as carried out proved very interesting. Highlights of the program were a Health Talk by Dr. Marritt of Toronto, a dress parade by the clothing girls of Vellore and Unionville Clubs, the illustrated talk on "Home Beautification" and the demonstration on a 'Well-dressed country girl' by Vellore Club. Many lovely prizes were given. Congratulations to Misses Marion Smith, Thelma Hart and Aura Klinck of the local girls who won prizes in the Sr. Garden and Canning Club, also Miss Marjorie Hart who won first in the Junior.

Rev. Mr. Gilbert has organized the boys of the Sunday School into a Trail Rangers group with Alec Williamson chief. Come out and be a member boy.

An especially fine Rally Day service was held on Sunday in the church which was suitably decorated with autumn fruit and flowers. Each class had some part in the program which was well planned by the committee in charge. The Jr. choir and the trio by Misses Marion Klees, Dorcen Klinck and Bertie Forster were enjoyed very much. The talk was given by our pastor and the offering went to help needy schools in the province.

Mr. Eddie Hitchcock and friend of Aurora were present at the Sunday School session.

Sunday was recreation night at Y. P.S. when Miss Dorothy Valliere gave a suitable topic. Music was supplied by a male quartette and Mr. Cyril Myers as soloist. Readings by Miss Margaret Avison and by Mr. Lorne Mortson made a well rounded program.

Mr. Frank Brumwell took a carload to attend the Y.P. reunion at Centennial Church where his mother was one of the original officers. He also visited relatives in the district having tea with Mr. and Mrs. Levi Annis.

On Monday evening a large group of Y.P. gathered in the home of Mr. H. Barber to present a miscellaneous shower to Miss Velma Boston, bride-to-be. Many lovely gifts were received and the young people enjoyed a social time together. Woe to the unlucky one who had to clean up the house.

Misses Ruth Casely, Mabel Sanderson and Vera Nichols returned home from the Y.P. convention at North Bay reporting a splendid convention. Vera has now taken up duties on the Toronto occasional staff.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. H. Bennett and Mrs. Hagerman have been suffering from ill health. We wish them speedy and complete recovery.

Tuesday saw the close of the Newmarket School of Methods with a fairly good attendance. In two weeks time the annual convention will be held in Queensville Church.

Don't forget that Tuesday next is the regular J.F. and J.W.I. night when a good program is being planned for both. Have a look at the program and be on hand with your roll call response.

DON'T SUFFER WITH ACID STOMACH

Acid stomach, the cause of Indigestion, Bloating, Belching, Heartburn, Gas, Discomfort, Sourness, Pains before or after eating, quickly undermines the health if allowed to persist.
