Great Plowing Match Now In Full Swing At Maryvale Farms

Favored with ideal weather the International Plowing Match being held at Maryvale Farms, near Wexford, is attracting record crowds of spectators and a large number of competitors. Maryvale Farms the beautiful estate of Mr. Frank P. O'Connor is an ideal setting for the match and the event promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the Association. To-morrow (Friday) is the final day and the largest crowd of the week is expected. The program will conclude with a monster banquet for the plowmen and their friends at the King Edward Hotel.

The first day was sponsored by the York County Associations and was featured by a large number of entries, good work by the plowmen and a fine lot of horses.

The contest for York County teams proved a major attraction, and eight prizes were offered. Donald Farm won premier honors, with Frank P. O'Connor, Maryvale Farm, a close second. Others in order of placing were: T. A. Crow, Scarboro Junction; Colonel R. Y. Eaton, Roseland Farm; Donald Farm (second entry); Colonel Hon. H. A. Bruce, North York; and Owen Loveless, Scarboro. Ex-Premier Hon. G. S. Henry, who took ninth place, was just nosed out of the prize money, along with Hugh Elliott of Agincourt, who was tenth.

To the entrants in the county events, Tuesday was their "conditions" and without an exception they voiced the opinion that they would make a determined effort to count heavily in the intercounty competition on Friday. Halton County took honors in this event last year, and will seek to retain the trophy for 1934.

Here and There

One graduate of the Anglican Theological College of British Columbia and four undergraduates are out for a summer of adventure and color since embarking recently aboard Canadian Pacific coastal liner, "Princess Norah" for the Yukon. Her 100-odd passengers also included miners, prospectors and northern railway and steamship men going in for the season.

Portland, Oregon's 26th annual Rose Festival, world-famous for colorful pomp and pageantry, will be held June 11-14 next. The western zone of the Canadian Legion will hold its convention there as also the American Rose Society.

The Princess Elaine, popular Vancouver-Nanaimo ferry of the Canadian Pacific B.C. Coast steamship service, is back from overhaul with the very latest in lunch rooms installed aboard. It is 40 feet long and 15 feet wide, and is provided with lunch counter and tables.

General improvement in business is apparent throughout Canada although many problems still remain to be solved is the opinion of Jackson Dodds, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, who sailed for Europe aboard the Empress of Australia recently.

The Canadian Pacific 42,500-ton Atlantic flagship Empress of Britain completed her world cruise of 30,916 miles last month on arrival at New York and sailed again for Cherbourg and Southampton to be fitted for her normal season sailings between Southampton and Quebec.

An English bulldog, scotch terrier, two boxes of swan's eggs and four homing pigeons were among the Canadian Pacific Express shipments arriving at Quebec recently aboard the Duchess of York from Liverpool, Belfast and Glasgow.

"With a soundly administered unified system, Canada would be able to anticipate within a reasonable period of time, a balanced railway budget and would be able to finance any justifiable extensions which expanding settlement and development might in future demand," E. W. Beatty, K.C., chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, declared in a recent speech advocating unification, for administrative purposes of the two major railways.

Doctor: "What you really need is a little sun."

Young Bride Patient: "Oh, Doctor, you embarrass me."
