

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

Announcement is made of a union Armistice service to be held on Sunday evening in St. Philips Anglican Church, commencing at seven o'clock.

On account of the Armistice Day service the Sunday School of Bethesda Lutheran Church will convene at 1:30 p.m., the regular church service following at 2:30 p.m.

The delightful Bridge and Euchres held on Monday and Tuesday evenings respectively through the kind hospitality of Mrs. W. M. Smith at her home in aid of the Public Library were well attended, ten tables of players enjoying the game on both evenings.

The annual Thank-offering meeting held by Brown's Corners United Church W.M.S. Auxiliary, on Tuesday last, presented a varied program.

Eighteen girls and boys attended the Mission Band meeting held in Central United Church on Sunday afternoon when Miss Harriet Thompson told of her work as missionary in India and showed many interesting curios including articles of hand work made by the natives.

This district will be well represented by hunters in the north country, the following leaving last Saturday to participate in the sport, Hillard Hood, Ernest Dukes, Jim Dukes, Harold Parkinson, Nelson Boyington, Tim Patterson, Leslie Hood, Douglas Hood, James Rattle, Roy Risebrough, Percy Petch and Jim Maynard.

Mrs. Wm. Middleton (Georgina Allison) who for the past twenty-four years has been an honored resident of Unionville died at her home on Main Street on Saturday evening last, following a lingering illness.

Mrs. Wm. Middleton was in her 82nd year and retained activity until suffering a stroke that resulted in her long illness. She was a life long member of the Methodist Church, new Unionville, and a kind and sympathetic neighbor and a host of friends mourn her death.

Vaughan Twp. Council Vaughan Council, at the regular session on Monday, granted $50.00 to Albert Dick, who last year suffered the loss of his barn by fire. Mr. Dick did not call the fire brigade to the fire and as a result the Township saved the amount regularly paid to the brigade for calls in the township.

A deputation of 11th concession residents urged that since the council saved the amount which would have been paid the fire brigade that this sum be now voted to Mr. Dick. Council members agreed and the $50 was granted. A large number of road accounts were passed and routine business transacted.

UNKNOWN SOLDIER

By George E. Phair

Waiting on weary feet amid the chill November winds, his mind went leaping back, Back sixteen years across life's rugged track To stand once more beside that shell-torn hill. The guns were mute, the air was strangely still, Silent the day as if God's healing breath Had charmed away the carnival of death And purged mankind of every earthly ill. And then the welcome home, the fervent cheers, The smiling throngs that grappled him by the hand. Ah, he was proud to tread his native land, The land that would remember through the years—

The breadline moved ahead and he awoke, An unknown soldier, hungry, jobless, broke.

HOLSTEIN RECORDS

A trio of Holstein heifers, a pair of four-year-olds and a two-year-old, owned by D. S. Dunton, Brampton, Ont., have just completed records in the R.O.P. One of the four-year-olds, Diana Segis Hartog, led the group with a total production of 12,694 lbs. milk showing an average test of 3.53 % fat, the two-year-old, Holmwood Lulu Hartog, followed with 11,941 lbs. milk containing 515 lbs. butter, while the other four-year-old, Bruach Carol, yielded 10,980 lbs. milk testing (average) 3.69%. The first two records were made on twice-a-day milking in the 365 day division, while the last one was completed in the 305 day division.

KING WILL PLACE WREATH ON NOV. 11

Armistice Day Ceremonies Will Follow Lines of Other Years By command of the King, the commemoration of Armistice Day in London on Nov. 11 will follow the familiar lines of previous years. Shortly before 11 o'clock, wreaths will be deposited on the cenotaph in Whitehall by, or on behalf of the Royal Family. Following the two minutes silence the Bishop of London will conduct a short service. Representative detachments of the navy, army and air force, the merchant navy and fishing fleets, and ex-service men's associations will form a square around the cenotaph. As in previous years the commemoration will probably be watched by the Queen and other Royal ladies from the windows of the Home Office.

Church authorities have been asked to arrange that there shall be a pause of two minutes in the service at 11 o'clock.
