Those who did not attend the United Church Young People's meeting on Monday evening missed one of the most enthusiastic and interesting discussions of the season. The topic was on the "Christian Family" on which was a review by the president and followed by a discussion period conducted by Rev. E. E. Pugsley and Willard Simpson. Our young people were unanimous in voting that the home was the most important factor in building up men and women with the qualities a Christian character represents. Should the home fail in this greatest duty then there should be state laws formed by which children cannot escape the training the parents or home should provide. The question was asked "Of what value is latin to a boy or girl compared with lessons in, "How to make a happy home?"

Next Monday evening the subject will be "Our Missionaries of Northern Ontario." Come and bring a friend, you will enjoy the evening with us.

Ralph Gordon a Very Amusing Entertainer
On Tuesday evening Ralph Gordon from Toronto gave a very humorous entertainment in the United Church, sponsored by the Young Ladies Class. His drawings, readings and solos created much laughter. If you were one of the unfortunates who were not there last night then ask some one who was how they liked it, for you may have a chance to hear him this coming winter.

The funeral took place here last Saturday afternoon of William Stephen, son of Stephen Hands of fourth concession of Markham. Mr. Hands met accidental death when his plane crashed during a lesson, hurling he and his trainer to instant death. Two planes from his air port training station flew over the cemetery during the funeral service and scattered carnations. Rev. A. J. Burch of Agincourt performed the services.
