

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

ANGELUS Grief can be a mad thing, A desperate and a sad thing, But happiness creeps slowly silently...

Citizens of Unionville and community assembled in St. Philips Anglican church on Sunday evening last, the 16th anniversary of Armistice to commemorate the sacrifices and valor of the men and women who gave noble service to their country in the Great War...

United choirs from the various churches led the service of song, the special numbers emphasizing the theme of the service, the solo numbers included "There is No Death," "O Valiant Hearts" and "In Flanders Fields" rendered effectively by Mrs. W. J. Russell, Mrs. A. K. Harrington and Rev. J. J. Robbins.

THANK GOD FOR PEACE The word came to us as we knelt in prayer That was might cease. Peace found us on our knees, and prayer for Peace

Was changed to prayer of deepest thankfulness. We knelt in War, we rose in Peace to bless Thy grace, Thy care, Thy tenderness. Join hands! Join hands! ye nations of the stock!

And make henceforth a mighty Trust for Peace;— A great enduring peace that shall withstand The shocks of time and circumstance; and every land Shall rise and bless you—and shall never cease To bless you—for that glorious gift of Peace.

—Thank God for Peace— —John Oxenham.

It was a gala evening at the Township Hall on Tuesday last, when the officers and members of Court Willing Workers, No. 1880, I.O.O.F. held the second open meeting.

All ages were made welcome and a goodly number of children were on hand and were highly complimented on their good deportment.

The high light of the evening was the open initiation ceremony conducted by the Court Fair oak Degree team, resplendent in their scarlet trimmed uniforms and performing the duties with accuracy and precision.

Ten applicants were presented to the Chief Ranger for membership in the Court, and after being duly admonished as to their duties toward their fellowmen their organization and their Creator, the administration and acceptance of the oath enrolled them as co-workers in an organization that stands for the good and benefit of all mankind.

Protection for the widow and children, loving care for the sick and suffering, numerous such instances being related by the speakers of the evening where such help had been given freely to many beneficiaries.

Following the initiation, the young ladies of the Degree team gave an exhibition of fancy marching forming the letters of the name of their Court during the performance with ease and grace.

The program included timely remarks by visiting officers, Bro. Leo A. Mitchell, Assistant Chief Ranger spoke on the object of and privileges received from being members of the I.O.O.F. and presented the Juvenile Court proposition, wherein the youth are trained for the making of good citizens.

Bro. Chas. Woolly, High Councilman and Bro. F. M. Kay, High Vice Chief Ranger as chairman of the evening were also in attendance. Fifi, the funny clown, whose funny antics delighted the crowd and Master John Anderson, with clever tap dancing and songs provided good entertainment.

Bro. Geo. Musgrave at the piano also added to the enjoyment of the visitors. And last but not least enjoyable were the refreshments that were served by the ladies that brought to a conclusion this event.

The Court now boasts of 30 members, and at the December meeting the election of officers will be an important item of business.

ACKNOWLEDGE GIFTS

The following letters have been received acknowledging donations of vegetables which were sent to the West in the ear which left here recently:

Mona School Huntoon, Sask., November 1st, 1934 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bone, Maple, Ontario Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bone—

The most wonderful relief car from Ontario, which contained your lovely gift arrived in Huntoon last night. I am sure it will be appreciated by everybody.

The fruit and vegetables are over in the town hall and a committee has been appointed to distribute the contents of the car. We school children have just been over to see the things and I noticed your name on a tag of vegetables.

The people around here are getting a little disgusted since there has been no crop for about five years, but I think these relief cars of fruit and vegetables will brighten them up a lot. I am sure it cost you people a lot of hard work growing all those things. If sometime you people are in need I hope we can return the kindness.

Thanking you again, I am Yours sincerely Helen Evans, Grade X

Mona School, Huntoon, Sask., November 1st, 1934 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bone, Maple, Ontario Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bone—

The relief carload of vegetables and fruit, came last night to Huntoon. A committee was appointed to look after the contents. We were just over and noticed your name on some of the vegetables, and we realize how much time it must have taken to provide us with them. We have had hard times for about five years now, and certainly appreciate your kindness. I hope we shall be able to return the favor you have done us, if you are ever in need. Thanking you again for your kindness and helpful gifts, I am

Your Western friend Cecil Hanson, Grade VI

Perhaps you were lucky enough to have been born in a small town. If so, you had hardly let out your first yell on this terrestrial sphere before the local editor ordered the fact of your arrival announced to a baby-loving world.

When you reached the age of three or four and had your first real birthday party with invited guests, your friends, the editor, told all and sundry who was there and what a fuss they made over you.

When you got on the honor roll at grade school he let all your admiring friends and neighbors know about it. If you got into any minor scrapes he apparently forgot about them as soon as he was told for he wanted to play up the things which might make you great.

All through your High school course he was keenly watching to see if you did anything worthy of note in athletics, letters or debate. And when you finally graduated he again seized upon the opportunity to put your name in print.

If you decided to go to work then instead of going to college he heralded the fact in such a manner that made any prospective employers realize that here was an ambitious lad who wasn't leaning unnecessarily on the folks. He wanted all whom it might concern to know that if work was to be done, there was a live-wire all set.

When the supreme object of your heart's desire was won your editor-friend seemed to know about it almost as soon as the "lucky" girl and warned all other aspirants to her sole attention to lay off as he printed the announcement of your engagement. Once more you were the conquering hero, or thought so. The girl may have had other ideas on that subject.

If after that you accomplished anything worthy of note the world was told in letters bold: "SMALL TOWN BOY MAKES GOOD!"

When those near and dear to you, were, by death, taken out on "The Great Adventure" the Chief of the Columns apparently forgot their vies, and proceeded to laud their virtues and remind the world of their fine family connections, — including you.

When illness overtook you he let all the neighbors know so that mayhap the power of their prayers could be added to the forces of medicine.

And someday (should he perchance out-live you as he has so many others) he, being kind and faithful unto the end, will once more use good paper and ink for you. He will probably tell mankind far and wide that one has passed who was a useful and worthwhile addition to the race, that you have gone to join the glorious company who have become the "guests of God."

Yes, from the cradle of birth to the casket of death, the small town editor is your friend. He puts you on the map.

WAR PREVENTABLE

Sir Norman Angell, the great peace advocate, writes: "War is not a 'natural' catastrophe like a tidal wave or an earthquake. It is not inevitable; it is preventable in Europe like cannibalism, cholera or witch-burning, all of which, though once common in this continent, have been abolished by civilization. War depends upon the human will; upon what goes on in the heads of human beings, upon how they decide to order their society and to arrange their relations with their fellows. Any intelligent man, can, with little trouble, understand the problem of preventing war."
