BUTTONVILLE

A well attended meeting of the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. D. Brown last Thursday afternoon. The well-planned program consisted of two solos by Miss Emma Barker, a bean guessing contest which was won by Mrs. Brillinger of Richmond Hill, an illustrated talk by Miss Jessie Thomson on the various cuts of beef, and an address by Mrs. McDonald of Agincourt on education. She pointed out that education is in the reach of everyone through special classes. There are opportunities for obtaining an education to-day that were undreamed of a few years ago. More of us should take advantage of these opportunities. Community singing and lunch brought the meeting to a close.

Miss Jessie Thomson was appointed delegate to the annual convention convening in Toronto this week.

A pleasing feature of this meeting was the presentation of presents by Miss Rosezema Hord to the two recent brides of the society, Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Dimma, who were formerly Misses Laura and Della Brown. The best wishes of the Institute were extended to these two young brides and they in turn thanked the members for their beautiful gifts.

Mrs. G. F. Kelly and Mrs. R. J. Cunningham were guests of Mrs. D. Brown last Monday afternoon. They report that they had to finish the bigger half of the quilt which was started by some of the younger ones last Saturday afternoon. It must have been a case of more work and less talk.

A Scotchman and his wife and three sons sat down to their evening meal.

Sandy inquired of the boys which of them would rather have a nickel than a slice of roast beef. All three boys preferred the nickel and Sandy gave them each a nickel. Then he turned to his wife and said:

"Put away the roast beef till tomorrow, and bring on the pie."

When the pie came, Sandy turned to the boys and asked:

"And now, who wants a nickel's worth of pie?"

McMullen sang "Let the lower lights be burning."

NEWS AND INFORMATION FOR THE BUSY FARMER

Manitoulin Island will contribute its share of turkeys again for the Christmas season. A survey indicates that the number of birds for market will be about the same as last year when 50,000 pounds were marketed by the co-operative association.

Reduction of one-half per cent. in interest on loans made by the Ontario Agricultural Board has been announced by Premier Hepburn. The interest in future will be only four per cent. compared with the previous rate of four and a half.

Timothy

If the severity of rust attacks on timothy in the grass breeding nursery. Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, is any indication of the amount of damage which may result from this disease throughout the country, then the efforts which are being made to develop rust resistant varieties of timothy should result in considerable benefit to this crop. More than half of the plants from commercial seed at the Central Farm have been practically destroyed by rust during the past two years and many others have been more or less injured. In marked contrast are the plants and strains selected for rust resistance. These show no rust, whatsoever, and in consequence they have made a strong vigorous growth. Only rust resistant selections are being used as parent plants in breeding new varieties of timothy. At the same time, an effort is being made to determine the losses due to rust on timothy as it is grown in farm practice.

Replace Apple Trees

Agricultural Societies in Grey and Bruce are to be commended for giving leadership in the very worthwhile project of replacing apple trees killed last winter, states J. A. Carroll of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

At an Agricultural Society District Meeting in Paisley, November 8th, discussion revealed some Agricultural Societies were not only recommending that apple trees be planted, but were prepared to give advice on suitable stocks and also arrange club orders from reliable Nurseries to take advantage of special rates.

This is another indication how the Agricultural Societies may assume responsibility for agricultural welfare in their respective communities.

New Home Ready For

Chicago Stock Show Finishing touches are now being made on the mammoth new home for the International Live Stock Exposition which will celebrate its 35th anniversary at the Chicago Stock Yards from December 1 to 8.

When completed, it will be the finest structure in the world devoted to such uses. The central section, or amphitheatre, will seat nearly double the number who could be accommodated in the old building which was destroyed in the fire that swept the Chicago Stock Yards last May.

The foremost herds and flocks from every state in the Union and provinces of Canada will contest the continental championships of their kind at the 1934 Exposition. According to the management, entries closing on November 1st were the biggest in the history of this largest of the continent's agricultural shows, where over 12,000 animals were exhibited last year.

Clover and Grass Seeds

The Current report on production of clover and grass seeds in Canada gives the following information: RED CLOVER—It is believed that the total 1934 crop in Canada may be around 1,500,000 lbs. as compared with 3,000,000 lbs. last year. This drop was due to an almost total failure in the principal production districts of Southwestern Ontario due to drought.

ALSIKE—This seed in Ontario was practically a failure this year. The total production may not have exceeded 375,000 lbs. as against 1,500,000 lbs. in 1933 and an annual average of 6,500,000 lbs.

ALFALFA—Production will be less than last year due to wet weather and damaging frost in August. The total Canadian crop is estimated at 1,650,000 lbs. as against 2,500,000 lbs. in 1933.

SWEET CLOVER—Total production of this seed in Canada may equal the average for the last five years, 4,000,000 lbs.

TIMOTHY—The total yield in 1934 may approximate 5,000,000 lbs. as against 4,000,000 lbs. last year and an average of 2,000,000 lbs.

CANADA BLUE GRASS — This seed was practically a failure this year due to drought in Southwestern Ontario where its production is largely confined.

To Train Young Farmers

Under the auspices of the Workers' Educational Association of Ontario, University of Toronto, a two-week school for young farmers has been arranged, commencing Monday, Nov. 26th, in the Department of Economics University of Toronto.

The object of the school is to develop the latent talent for leadership among young men and women on the farm so that they may fill important places in their respective communities in developing an understanding of the economic position of Agriculture and its relation to the general field of Canadian and International Economics. It is hoped that the success of this school will result in the formation of County schools and also of study circles in each rural community.

The school will meet for two sessions each day—morning and afternoon at the University. At dinner each evening an interesting address will be delivered by prominent educationists and others.

At it is proposed to limit the number of successful applicants, everyone who wishes to attend should send in an application now.

Co-operating with the Workers' Educational Association in the promotion of this Agriculturist Varsity are the New Canada Movement, United Farmers of Ontario, Junior Farmer Associations, and the Co-operative Union.

The cost, apart from living expenses, will be a registration fee of one dollar.

Applications should be mailed to Donald R. McLean, Muir Kirk, chairman of the Organizing Committee, or Drummond Wren, Secretary of the Workers' Educational Association, University of Toronto.

ADVERTISING IS GOOD FOR US

That dusty picture of an optimist and a pessimist — the optimist seeing the doughnut and the pessimist the hole — is just a way of describing most of us: some of us habitually look on the bright side of things; others of us on the dark side. Always there are those who have a melancholy pleasure in fault-finding. And so there are always those who look upon advertising as an economic waste and a means by which the sale of inferior merchandise can be promoted. It is quite possible to discover wrong things about advertising — just as it is possible to find wrong things about water and air, about books and speeches, about motor cars and aeroplanes, about schools and churches, about Canadians and Scotsmen, about knives and forks.

Advertising is news and information, and who shall say that it is wrong to communicate news and information? It would be a pretty dull world, full of people, if there ceased to be a dissemination of news and information.

In all ages and in all countries those giving out news and information have attracted to themselves attentive audiences; and this is as true today as it was 1000, 2000, 3000 years ago.

What stores are busiest? Is it not those stores which give out most information about what they have to sell? The public is daily spending money — probably $2 a day for every man, woman and child in the trading area covered by the circulation of our newspaper — or, say, $2000 for every 1000 persons. So you can calculate for yourself — you, a retailer, what is spent daily in our own community for food and shelter and clothing, and for all the other things.
