Pupils of Madam Ethel Holland Give Recital

All available space in the Orange Hall was occupied on Thursday night of last week, the attraction being the Recital given by Madam Holland, who for a number of years has been a resident of Woodbridge, is contralto soloist of the Metropolitan United Church Choir, Toronto, and has established a high class reputation as a vocal teacher. The recital program included numbers by Madam Holland, a minuet and choruses by the ensemble together with solos by the pupils Misses Betty Wallace, Margaret McKenzie, Vera Smith, Mildred Shore, Jessie Watson, Mrs. William Dalziel, Viola Huggill, Mary McLean, Isabel Smith, Marie Allen, Avis Poole, Thurza Boys, Tillie Miller, Mrs. Gillham, Marjorie Blake. Pianists were Mrs. G. D. McLean and Miss Jean Lawrie.

Prizes Won by the Baggs Family at the Royal Winter Fair

Frank O. Reeves, Gardener.

Big Winner at Royal Fair

That the Woodbridge district is going forward as a producer of table vegetables is evidenced by the many prizes awarded Frank O. Reeves whose field of operation is at Humber Summit where he cultivates about seventy acres. Prizes won by Mr. Reeves were: 1st for display; 1st for cultivation of cauliflower; one 2nd and one 3rd for individual cauliflower, one 2nd and one 3rd for cabbage; one 1st and one 2nd for carrots; second in collection of squash; one 2nd and one 3rd for single squash; second for artichokes; 3rd for citron; two 3rds and one 4th for onions; 2nd for salisay; 3rd for vegetable marrow.

Young People's Society Holds

LITERARY NIGHT

Monday night's meeting of the United Church Y.P.S. was given over to Literature with Miss Edith Hyslop as convener, when the devotional period was taken by Miss Marjorie Blake, Messrs. W. R. Scott and Norman Jackman. The program included community singing, contests, a synopsis of the Life of Peter McArthur, Canadian poet, together with a reading, selected from the Author's book of Poems, by Mrs. Leo Watson, and a synopsis on the high spots of the Treaty of Versailles by Don McCallum.

Because of the many churches, lodges and other activities announced for the coming weeks it was found necessary for the Choral Society to discontinue for the present season.

Mrs. Frank Vanderlip, Mrs. Sam Charters and Mrs. Reg. Charters of Brampton visited Woodbridge friends on Thursday last.

THORNHILL

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 4th, at 3 o'clock, in the Sunday School room. Election of officers for 1935 will take place at this meeting.

The December meeting of the Young Ladies' Class of the United Church will be held on Thursday, Dec. 6th, at the home of Mrs. L. R. Marwood, Centre St. The girls are all asked to be present at this meeting.

Miss Rosa Harris, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Annie Harris of Toronto, will leave this week for Miami, Florida, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Couse of Windsor returned home on Tuesday after spending ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Morrison.

Mrs. Billings is spending a few days this week with her mother in Trenton. The United Church Women's Association held a very successful bazaar last Saturday, officially opened by Mrs. C. L. Burton, who was introduced by the president. Tea and supper were popular features with the visitors and the booths were well patronized.

A very vivid description of a motor trip across Canada from Toronto to Vancouver was the main topic at the United Church Young People's meeting on Monday evening. Mr. Len Shortt described clearly the entire trip bringing out the various things that impressed him most. "Of course, the Rockies are magnificent in their towering splendour. No one can describe them, you must see them yourself to realize their grandeur" was one of Mr. Shortt's remarks. In concluding his talk he stated that although Western Canada had much in its favour he was glad he lived in Ontario and Toronto was most certainly the most beautiful city.

Next Monday evening all the members are asked to meet at the car stop at seven o'clock sharp, where motors will convey them to the Rally in Trinity United Church. All members are urged to be present.

A meeting of the Thornhill Ladies' Curling Club was held on Tuesday evening at the home of the President, Mrs. James Pearson. The members were anxious for the club to continue active and should there not be ice Social Get-together evenings will be held during the winter months. New members are welcome and although you may not be able to curl join the club for a social time. After the new officers were elected and all business was transacted the hostesses, Mrs. Pearson and Mrs. Howard, entertained the members to Euchre followed by a dainty luncheon. The new officers for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. S. S. Findlay; Vice-President, Miss J. Seager; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. E. Luesby.

Twenty-six tables were played at a Bridge and Euchre held by the Women's Institute in the Lawrence Memorial Hall, Wednesday night. The prize winners were, bridge, Mrs. C. P. Johns and Mr. H. Roswell; euchre, Mrs. Talbert Findlay and Mr. Raymond Riddell.

Dr. L. R. Marwood's father, who was operated on for appendicitis on Sunday night, is improving nicely. The Caroline Jubilee Singers will render a program in the United Church on Saturday, Dec. 8th.

SO IT'S GOING TO BE

A MILD WINTER

It is going to be a mild winter. There is but little doubt about that. Chief Sam Snake of the Ojibway Indians at Rama and his tribal prophet, Dave Simcoe, both agree that all signs point that way. As Chief Snake is sixty-four summers old and Prophet Simcoe seventy-four, roughly 138 years of experience are packed into the prophecy, and Prophet Simcoe admits that he has forecast the weather conditions for the past two decades without a single slip-up.

According to J. H. Roberts, traveling railway passenger agent, who met the chief and the prophet of Rama recently, the forecast was not a hard one to make. The proof was found on six points in the animal, vegetable and aquatic kingdoms. First comes the fact that beavers are not donning their "woolies" this season, their fur-coverings being very scanty indeed. Then the muskrats are unusually indolent; they have not even begun construction work on their winter apartments. Next comes the big woods cafeteria; it's doing no business whatever. The usual healthy appetite of the groundhog is conspicuous by its absence and he is anything but fat; the squirrel has lazed away the sunny fall days without bothering much in filling his numerous storehouses, and all animals, whether moose or chipmunk, are as thin as this season's debutante. Even the corn has gone on strike. Both chief and prophet point out that the ears have refused to grow their usual hirsute adornments; in fact, their whiskers are scraggy enough to give the average city tonsorial artist the willies; the wild fruit and nut supplies are scanty, and, above all, there is a scarcity of water in the lakes and rivers which indicates plenty of rainfall up until January.

WHAT MERCHANTS THINK ABOUT

The editor of the Bowmanville Statesman ran short of subjects of editorials (as we all do), but he certainly didn't run short of bright ideas about how to get new ones. He called on various merchants and asked them to suggest some one subject on which they would like to see editorial comment made. They were to give him their ideas and he might add comment of his own, the editor doing the actual writing. As a result, Mr. James has two wide columns of editorials, dealing with five subjects suggested to him.

Perhaps our readers would be interested to know the subjects which merchants think out to be brought before the people. Here they are:

1. "Ticket Selling a Real Racket," wherein the merchant complains of the number of organizations which try to make money by selling tickets to people, the merchants being the chief targets. In one week, this man paid out over $3.00 for tickets, chiefly to various church organizations.
2. "More About Home Town Buying," the chief complaint of this man being that so many people buy things out of town, which can be bought at home, though they don't know it. (Advertising would probably provide a solution).
3. "Free Gratis—Absolutely without Cost," being a denunciation of the practice of offering special inducements to buy something by giving away something else and charging it to advertising costs.

4. "Price Cutting Has Boomerang Effect," and 5. "The Golden Rule in Business," both of which titles are explanatory of the articles which follow.

THRIFTY SAVES MONEY

Washing at home costs money—more money than you perhaps think. It's hard work, too hard for any lady. When you send your laundry bundle, ask for thrifty service. At a moderate pound rate all flat work is beautifully ironed, wearing apparel is returned damp ready to iron at home. Shirts, of course, are finished if you wish at a small additional charge.
