Dr. Ross and Mrs. Wesley Given Hearty Welcome into the Circle of Young People of This Village

The young people of this village wished to demonstrate to Dr. Ross Wesley and his bride their desire to welcome them into their circle, so last Thursday evening around fifty young folk congregated in the public school where progressive court whist opened the evening's fun, Miss Marguerite Boyle winning first for ladies and Elmore Hooper carrying off the gents prize. This was followed by refreshments. The room was then cleared and with Mr. Jack Todd at the piano, all were enjoying a lively fox-trot. At the height of the fun Dr. and Mrs. Wesley were announced winners of the spot dance, the young folk taking this opportunity to present them with a walnut end table, Mr. Willard Simpson giving the address. Dr. Wesley responded expressing gratitude not only for the gift but also what it conveyed. A suggestion was then made that a Community Young People's get-together be held monthly. This was evidently the wish of all so a motion was made to that effect and the following committee was formed to take charge of the next meeting in January. Isabel Farr, Edith Davies, Geraldine Wesley, Muriel Dean, Jack Todds, Bruce McDonald, Dr. Wesley, Willard Simpson and Elmore Hooper.

Miss Geraldine Wesley is supplying as teacher at Thornhill School taking the place of Miss Morris who is ill.

Late John Allen Pierson

The funeral of John Allen Pierson, aged 76, who died at his late residence Church Street, Weston, on Wednesday, November 28th, took place on Saturday with interment in Riverside Cemetery, Weston. Mr. Pierson was a son of the late George Pierson, and was born on Lot 9, Con. 9, Vaughan, where he spent his early life and attended the Lower 9th school. Following his marriage to Miss Deborah Linton he lived in Clairville for a number of years and worked at the carpenter trade. In 1886 he moved to Weston and in addition to his trade he took to breeding fancy fowl and was an extensive exhibitor at the C.N.E., the Royal Winter Fair and other Fairs throughout the Province. He was the first constable appointed by the Weston council and also attended to the pumping of the Village water. His father, a native of Yorkshire, England, when coming to Canada with his young wife, about 1840, was shipwrecked. The journey had a sad ending for Mr. Pierson as his wife was numbered among the drowned. However, later on Mr. Pierson married again and started farming on Lot 11, Con. 10, Toronto Gore, and established a reputation as a breeder of high class draft horses. The late John Allen Pierson is survived by one son Allen Weston and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Dobson, Brampton, and Mrs. Sam Charters, Brampton.

Y.P.S. Discuss Home Influences

The weekly meeting of the United Church Y.P.S. held on Monday night last was devoted to Fellowship with Mrs. Leo Watson, convener, in the chair. The devotional period consisted of a tableau on the Story of Ruth and Naomi explained by Jack McCallum, and the characters portrayed by Misses Ila Watson, Marion Watson and Doris Hendry. "The Christian Home" was the topic taken by Mrs. W. E. Berry all of which was followed by a discussion on influences that weaken or strengthen the home with Clare Birch, Miss Laura Neal, Mrs. A. Doane and Wilfred S. Scott taking part in the discussion. Musical numbers were contributed by Miss Mary Bagg and the Y.P.S. quartette and a reading from the poems of Edgar Guest by Miss Bessie Natress.

Late William Graham Dick

The death of William Graham Dick occurred suddenly at his home in Weston on Monday, Nov. 26th, the funeral taking place on Thursday with interment in Sanctuary Cemetery, Weston. Deceased was a son of the late William Dick, farm implement manufacturer of Bolton. He spent much of his early life as salesman of his father's products, and several decades ago was well known to Vaughan Township farmers. We recall with sadness when deceased and the Liberal scribe were pals more than four decades ago.

Bishop Owen Officiates At Confirmation Service In Christ Church

Christ Church, Woodbridge, and St. John's, Castlemore, united on Sunday last with a confirmation service held in Christ Church at 11 a.m., when Bishop Owen, primate of Canada, officiated. A musical program fitting the occasion with Miss Queenie Dumbleton, organist, conducting, was furnished by the choir. Christ Church also celebrated the 13th anniversary of the opening of the new structure, following the destruction of the original building by fire in 1921. The evening service with the Rector, Rev. J. H. Kidd in charge, was devoted to the anniversary celebration. The services were largely attended.

Special Meeting of Mission Band

A special meeting of the Mission Band of the Presbyterian Church was held in the Sunday School on Wednesday night of last week when a feature of the meeting was the presentation of a life membership certificate to Joyce Coles. An interesting item on the program was a playlet entitled "Why We Work For Missions" presented by Lillian Brown Kathleen Farriand, Irene Farriand, Joyce Coles, Irene Brownlee, Orpha Farr, Thelma Uppington. Other items on the program were a piano duet by Orpha Farr and Ruth Mayhew, and a dialogue by members of the band.
