Women's Association
The Women's Association of the United Church held their annual meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 12th, with the President, Mrs. N. J. Smellie, in the chair for the first half of the meeting. After the devotional exercises and business, the various reports were presented, their reports which were accepted by the Society and showed a successful year. Rev. E. E. Pugsley presided during election of officers and gave a talk on the constitution, emphasizing important factors, to make this organization a success.

The following officers were elected for 1935: President, Mrs. J. L. McDonald; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. R. Simpson; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. A. Brilling; Recording Secretary, Mrs. B. Oke; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Armstrong; Financial Secretary, Miss F. Bowes; Treasurer, Miss A. Boyle; Devotional Secretary, Mrs. H. Connell; League of Nations Secretary, Mrs. E. E. Pugsley.

Young Ladies Pass Enjoy Splendid Program

The members of the Young Ladies Class met at the home of Mrs. Marwood last Thursday evening with almost a full attendance. Considerable business was transacted including arrangements for Christmas Cheer. Miss Geraldine Wesley C.G.I.T. Class gave a Missionary Play which was very appropriate for this time of the year. Dr. Quigley gave a very instructive talk on the Life of Capt. Lawrence. The girls greatly appreciated the contribution to the evening's program. The next meeting will be the Christmas gathering at the home of Madeline MacDonald on Dec. 20th. Santa will be there, so, every member is urged to meet him.

Church Union was the Subject at The United Church Y.P.S.

The topic for last Monday's program at United Church Young People's meeting was Unity of Forces. A short history of the origin of the 3 great denominations forming the United Church in Canada was given. Hymns and Scripture Lesson suitable to the topic were also chosen. The Monday evening meeting will discontinue until the New Year, but a Sunday evening service will be arranged for Dec. 30th. All members are asked to keep this date open.

A meeting of the Past and Present Representatives and President of the Northern Division of Toronto Centre Presbytery of the United Church was held at the home of Mr. Goode, Willowdale, on Wednesday evening. Arrangements were made for a meeting of the officers of Toronto Centre Presbytery and Northern officers in January. The next regular presidents meeting will be held at the home of Mr. James McLean, Richmond Hill. Notices will be sent out later.

A Christmas Tree and entertainment of the United Church will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 19th. A good program is being prepared by the teachers of the school. Santa Claus will call around during the evening.

Do not forget the play "Strictly Business" by Trinity Women's Club on Friday night, Dec. 14th, in the Lawrence Memorial Hall.

The Carolina Jubilee Singers gave their return entertainment on Saturday evening to a full house and were enjoyed fully as well as last year, when they made their first appearance last March. Out of 30 numbers given four or five were repeated and were received and appreciated as well as the rest. Different ones sought to get an appointment with them for a future date in their community, consequently, we hear they have been booked for the early part of January at Victoria Square. They gave the most popular entertainment that has been given in the village for some time. At the Sunday morning service they gave two numbers which were very fine and left immediately after for Galt where they sang at the evening service and also gave an entertainment on Monday night. While here they were entertained by members of the church.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. J. A. Thompson, Yonge St. Roll call was answered by a gift for Christmas Cheer. Mrs. Wabb, who was delegate to the Provincial Convention gave a splendid report. The hostesses were Mrs. Harman, Mrs. J. Fisher, Mrs. Hasler and Mrs. Holmes. A number of visitors were in the village for over the week-end the attraction being the "Carolina Singers."

The Public School entertainment will be held in the school on Friday evening, Dec. 21st. Everybody welcome.

Junior Women's Institute Presents Minstrel Show

What can beat a Minstrel Show for good all round wholesome amusement with jokes, singing and dance comedians to say nothing about the rattle of bones and jingle of the tambourine?

Woodbridge Junior Women's Institute were fortunate in procuring the Wesley Minstrels composed of members of Wesley United Church, Toronto, for their entertainment on Friday night of last week. The Orange Hall was well filled with an audience that enjoyed the program to the limit. Heading the committee in charge was Miss Evelyn Brown, President, and Mrs. Leo Watson, Secretary.

George Kellam, Vaughan Township Reeve, A Candidate For York County Wardenship

We are approaching the date of which most municipal councils are elected. Some have already been elected. George Kellam, who for many years has served Vaughan Township Ratepayers in the council and has given good service, not only to the Township, but to the county as well. He is in the field as a candidate for the Wardenship of York County, the banner county of the Dominion, and for different reasons Mr. Kellam is entitled to the honor. He is capable, has had vast experience in municipal affairs, and if for no other reason than that from the standpoint of seniority he should deservedly be given the honor of the highest office as a gift from the York County Council.

Late Duncan McKinnon
Duncan McKinnon, aged 74, died
