VICTORIA SQUARE

A little philosophy from the pen of Elbert Hubbard is worth consideration from each one of us. "Do unto others as though you were the other."

We are called upon to weather many different temperatures these days and find it not the most comfortable thing to do.

On Wednesday last the young people of Wesley Church presented a fine play "The Street called Sham" in our community. The rather small number who braved the extreme cold to attend enjoyed the play.

Thursday evening found the temperature moderated considerably and a fair representation of our J.F. and J.W.I. members enjoyed the county skating party at Richmond Hill arena. A few prizes in costume and racing came to our local clubs.

A number of our Y.P.S. made a visit to Teston Y.P.S. on Friday evening. Readings by Thelma Hart and Lulu Beatty, a solo by Boyd Moun and a good paper on "Personality and the modern economic order" by Lorn. Mortson were items on the program given by our society. Games and lunch under the supervision of the Teston folks added to the enjoyment of the evening. In spite of the flat tire everyone had quite a pleasant evening.

Of special interest in Sunday School session was a report of the convention by Mr. Avison.

Y.P.S. had a fine program and attendance on Sunday evening. The scripture and explanation by Pearl Caseley, a duet by Murray Baker and Aura Klinck, a reading by Thelma Hart, a solo by Ruth Caseley and the topic by Floyd Perkins were well chosen to bring forward the idea of pioneering for service.

On Monday evening there was a large gathering of young people when the three societies Headford, Carrville and Victoria Square met in the church basement. A splendid program of short talks, music, readings and recitations with games at the close made a very pleasant evening. We are indebted to Carrville and Headford for such an evening of enjoyment.

Next Tuesday evening the regular meeting of the J.F.A. and J.W.I. comes once more. Mr. J. H. Frisby is the boys speaker on the subject "Seed cleaning and the value of sowing good seed." The girls meeting centres on music with a paper by Miss Aura Klinck and the roll call on "A song, it's writer and composer"
