"Do You Know" Contest Very Popular One

THE LIBERAL READERS ARE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO WIN
CASH AWARDS

Readers of The Liberal are to be given an opportunity to join in the "Do You Know" cash prize contest which will prove educational as well as being remunerative to many of the contestants.

The purpose of the contest and the articles is to further explain and educate the buying public as to the activities and services of some of the worthy institutions of this community.

Whether you are interested in the contest or not, it will be worth the time to stop and read the stories. Cooperate in this movement and at the conclusion you will agree that the time has been well spent.

In order that each and every one may understand thoroughly just how the contest is conducted the rules are explained as follows: First, it is necessary that you locate each of the articles in this issue. Upon reading the stories you will note that the last sentence of each is concluded with a question. It will also be noted that the question pertains to the service of the firm that has been spoken of in the article. Therefore it is necessary for the contestant to call the firm to obtain the answer. This must be understood, the questions are asked in such a manner that the only way they can be correctly answered is by first getting that information from the firm.

The contestant has now progressed to where he or she has called every firm written about in this issue of the paper. Another thing is to note that each and every contestant will have the same identical answers.

One might wonder how it would be possible to select winners if everyone has the same answers. This is made possible because in addition to having the right answers, you must use your own originality in constructing those answers in any clever or unique manner that will attract the attention of the judges. As a suggestion we might say that you could write an essay, or paste pictures, that are in keeping with the services of the firm on paper and writing answers to questions beside the picture. Or again, if you are so gifted, write them in poetic form, in fact, any way that, to you, seems original. Now you have completed your answers in your own fashion, the only thing left to do is to send them to the "Do You Know" editor of The Liberal. The prizes are $3 in cash weekly.

VOLLEY BALL CLUB NOTES

All roads for volleyballers led to the gym on Tuesday evening of this week, when the four local teams registered their entire membership in attendance and got under way with the program for season honors. While "serious play" was the watchword, the proceedings lacked nothing in lubricative humor and was much enjoyed by active participants and spectators.

Bert Cook's "Dukes" won from Horner's "Hustlers" 43 to 31 in the first match.

"Veterans" captained by Bennett, won from Bill Charles' squad on a score of 43 to 36.

Next Tuesday, evening, two more matches will be played.

Popular Play to be Repeated Next Tuesday

Capacity audiences greeted the production of "The Belle of Barcelona" by the Richmond Hill United Church Choir last Thursday and Friday evenings, and as hundreds were unable to gain admission the show will be presented again next Tuesday evening, March 26th.

If you missed seeing this show last week don't fail to attend next Tuesday evening. It is a bright amusing two and a half hour entertainment and all members of the cast merit commendation for their part in the production. The costumes are colorful in keeping with the traditions of Spain in which country the play has its setting, the music is beautiful and there are enough amusing situations to provide lots of comedy.

Miss Olive Switzer as "the Belle of Barcelona" took her part well and with Mr. Rand Phipps as Lieut. Harold Wright was heard in several delightful musical numbers! Miss Dorothy Angle and Mr. Lauder Glass were featured in different numbers which were greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the audience. Mr. Wes Middleton as "Pat" was the comic of the show and his splendid handling of the part added greatly to the life of the presentation. Miss Lola Jones as Martha Matilda Ayres, an English governess, was particularly clever in portraying this role of an eccentric maiden lady, and her various numbers were repeatedly enjoyed by the audience. Mr. Clarence Mylks, Mrs. N. J. Glass, Mr. Joe Billbrough, Mr. Joe Mills, Mr. Harry Charles, Mr. Reg. Watkins, Miss Jean Middleton, Miss Isobel Coulter and Mr. P. E. Angle completed the cast and all filled their various roles in a most pleasing manner. The members of the supporting chorus heard in several fine numbers included Marguerite Stewart, Pauline Angle, Betty Rumble, Phyllis Glass, John Dew, John Wilson, Harry Sayers and Mac Cooper.

If you haven't seen "The Belle of Barcelona" mark it down in the diary now for next Tuesday night.

The show was directed by Miss Anna Phipps who was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses Friday evening, and Mr. Adelmo Melecci presided at the piano.
