

WEDDING

HOPPER-KERR

Quantities of pink and white peonies, blue delphinium and roses amid ferns were the beautiful decorations in the rooms of Mrs. A. Kerr's home on Wednesday evening, when her oldest daughter, Cathrine Campbell, became the bride of Harry Hopper, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Hopper of Richmond Hill. Rev. J. D. Cunningham, minister of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, officiated. The bride was charming in a gown of pale pink chiffon and wore a shoulder bouquet of gardenias. Miss Flora Kerr was Maid of Honor for her sister and wore blue flowered chiffon with shoulder bouquet. Mr. Ray Hopper, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. The bride's mother wore navy blue dotted crepe and the groom's mother was in white. Following the reception and wedding supper the bride and groom left on a motor trip, the bride wearing pale pink crepe with navy blue jacket and white accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hopper will reside in Richmond Hill.

KING-COLLARD

A charming wedding took place on Saturday, June 29th, at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mortson, Victoria Square, when Mildred (Mollie) Viola, second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Collard, Victoria Square, was married to Mr. John Harvey King, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. King, Lefroy, the Rev. Frank A. Gilbert, B.A. of Victoria Square United Church officiating. The ceremony took place on the tree-shaded lawn before an altar of peonies and ferns. The bridal party preceded by the flower girls, Joy and Margaret Mortson, nieces of the bride, dressed in green and pearl crepe frocks carrying old fashioned nose-gay, took their places to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Herman Fawcett of Melbourne. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Charles Collard of Toronto, wore a white satin gown made on long lines with tight fitting sleeves, trimmed with rows of tiny satin buttons, Peter Pan collar and buttons down the back. Her veil of white embroidered net was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of talisman roses and bovardia. During the signing of the register Miss Margaret McCague of Toronto, cousin of the bride, sang "Until." After the reception a delightful luncheon was served at little tables dotted over the spacious lawn. For traveling, the bride donned a charreuse green suit trimmed with yellow, and yellow and brown accessories. The bridal couple left on an extended motor trip to Montreal and the Gaspe and the New England States. On their return Mr. and Mrs. King will reside in Toronto.

NEWTONBROOK

The traffic on Yonge Street over the week-end was exceptionally heavy owing to the Dominion Day holiday. On Saturday afternoon there was a blockade of cars for over a mile, south of Steeles Ave. to Newtonbrook. Police reserves from Toronto were called on to control the traffic. Mr. and Mrs. Varcoe attended their son Lloyd's wedding in Toronto on July 1st. Mr. Alvin Brown returned last week from a trip to Noranda. Miss Galbraith, who has spent the last two years at the Pacific Coast and Winnipeg, is visiting with her brother, Mr. A. W. Galbraith. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. New and Jack attended a family reunion at Shelburne last Monday in honour of Mrs. New's parents golden wedding anniversary. Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Halbert left this week for Port Carling, Muskoka, to spend their holidays. They will occupy the church bungalow. Mr. Halbert will be the extra supply for the month of July, where he was a former pastor for four years. Mr. A. Park of Toronto will occupy the pulpit of Newtonbrook United Church next Sunday, Sunday School at 10 a.m. Newtonbrook United Church choir sang at special services at Oriole United Church on Sunday. Mrs. Frank Summers and little grandson, Bruce Summers, left last Friday evening for Montreal, after receiving a wire that her son Harold was critically ill in Montreal General Hospital. Misses Alberta and Eunice Brown spent the holiday with friends at Midland. We are pleased to hear that Mrs. Fred Danby is improving. We hope she will soon be around again. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Soden and Miss Doris Soden left last week to spend two months at their summer home at Balm Beach, Georgian Bay. Miss Gwendolyn Barber and Miss Ruth Allan spent last week-end at Caledonia. Special Dominion Day services were held in the United Church last Sunday. The pastor spoke on "The Patriotism." Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Halbert, Clare and Marion Halbert of Alliston were guests at the parsonage last week. Miss Gladys Sutterby left on a motor trip with friends last Saturday for Boston and points south. Mrs. J. L. Caines of Drewry Ave. is confined to her home through illness. We wish her a speedy recovery

Vaughan Twp. Council

At the regular meeting of Vaughan township council held Tuesday, a resolution was passed providing that all applications for Hydro service before being approved by the township must have certificate that taxes on property are paid in full. Reeve Kellam presided and all the members were present except councillor McMurchy who is still convalescing from injuries received when he fell recently. Members expressed satisfaction that the relief account for June was considerably reduced.

Historic Abbey Sees Gathering Of Scouts Historic Glastonbury Abbey was the scene of a gathering of more than a thousand Boy Scouts over Whitsuntide. They came "up from Somerset," Devon, Gloucestershire and Wiltshire.

A "West Country" Jamboree Scouts from seven European countries — Denmark, Sweden, Holland, France, Norway, and Russian Scouts from London and Armenian from Paris — were guests at a West Country (England) Whitsuntide Scout Jamboree. The program included boxing, camp-craft, bridge building, signalling and first aid.

BURTON CLAN ANCESTORS RE-MEMBERED AT REUNION ON DOMINION DAY Members of the Burton Clan gathered in Community Park, Thistleton, on Dominion Day to pay tribute to the memory of their ancestors who originated in Roxborough, Scotland, and crossed the Atlantic for Canada in 1825, and pioneered in York, Welland and Brant counties. Clan members were present from Boston, Mass.; Syracuse, N. Y., and the State of Wyoming. The nonagenarians and octogenarians corner had for its guests Neil McGillivray, Donald McKenzie, James E. Devins, Mr and Mrs. James Bell, all of Woodbridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Colin Cameron of Thistleton, and while the youthful members took part in athletic contests they discussed current problems and recalled incidents in the life of the community in the days of long ago when chickens sold on Toronto market for as little as 25 cents a pair and butter was 10 cents a pound. Other guests were Misses Mary and Annie Patterson, Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ellerby, Woodbridge. The oldest man member of the clan present was James E. Devins, the oldest lady member Mrs. Robert Burton, and the youngest John Burton Johnston, Nashville, for long distance the honours went to Mrs. J. French of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Donald Burton, Lander, Wyoming. A feature of the event was the address of Neil Burton, President, when at the banquet served in the hall basement he proposed a toast to the King which were added the names of the Fathers of Confederation which was consummated just 68 years ago, and Dominion Day became our National Holiday. He also urged that the Clan conduct its picnics as a memorial to their pioneer ancestors and spoke feelingly of the hardships they endured as they prepared the new World for what it is to-day. Other addresses were given by James McEwen, Oliver Burton, Eldrid Johnston, S. D. McKechnie, J. W. Ellerby, Harry Ezard and Miss Violet Hewson, Clan Director, who detained an account of a history she is compiling and also informed the Clan that she had been successful in recovering a lost tribe of the Clan in Scotland, descendants of Gilbert Burton, many of whom are at present in different parts of Canada and other lands. At the business meeting Miss Mary J. Burton led in community singing and officers elected were as follows: Honorary Presidents, J. E. Devins, Woodbridge, Mrs. M. Adams, Chicago, Mrs. D. Steel, Richmond Hill; President, Neil Burton, Woodbridge; 1st Vice-President, S. D. McKechnie, Toronto; 2nd Vice-President, Oliver Burton, Bradford; 3rd Vice-President, Wm. Burton, Buffalo; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Violet Hewson, Brampton.
