Some co-eds go back to school to get their M.A. and some to get their MAN.

Sports Review

Perhaps the sport fans of the district do not realize that they're missing some high class athletics when they pass up the local field days. But they may need to be told that the records of the North York Inter school Track and Field Meet compare very favourably with those set at the Ontario High School meets, which are held annually under the supervision of the Ontario Athletic Commission, and in which the pick of High School athletes from all over Ontario perform.

R. H. H. S. took two of the four championships at the Interschool Track and Field Meet at Aurora last week, the local athletes making a very creditable showing. But the boys aren't finding it easy to brag about because both championships were won by the girls, Bea Rumble taking the Senior with Ruth Angle right at her heels. Isobel Ainslie won the Junior, putting R.H.H.S. far in front in the girls' section. Incidentally, Bea Rumble set up two new records.

However, there are more events held for boys than for girls in the meet, with the result that the school with the strongest boys' team takes home the silverware. The local lads put on a rather mediocre display, although "Stu" Rumble grabbed off a couple of firsts. The slightest evidence of any training on the part of the boys was conspicuous by its absence. A little more effort would put their teams in a class with the girls', and R.H.H.S. would capture the Eckhardt cup every year.

The Midget Lacrosse Tournament at the Arena last Saturday carried on without a Richmond Hill representative after the first game. The local midgets defeated Beaches 12-0 in the opener, only to find themselves declared ineligible. They were then informed that the age limit was 14 and under, and through some misunderstanding, (so 'tis said), the homesters had collected a team of 15-year-olds. What's wrong with the Richmond Hill managers, anyway? They don't seem to be able to get away with anything!

We still think someone pulled a fast one on the Richmond Hill officials, because anyone knows that the midget age limit is, or should be, 15 years and under.

Now that the Detroit Tigers have won their first World Series, we can forget baseball and turn to hockey in earnest. Manager Conny Smythe of the Leafs seems determined to build up a team that will not let the Stanley Cup slip through their grasp next spring. He appears to think it possible by adding more young blood to his roster. He has secured George Parsons, Jimmy Fowler and Normie Mann, who were the stars of the City Leagues last winter. They will accompany the Leafs to Kitchener in the near future where they will open their training camp. "Nucker" Irwin, formerly of the Moncton Allan Cup team, may also come to the Leafs through Detroit in connection with the "Hec" Kilrea deal.

The local High School boys are determined to make good their losses in track and field, and have already donned their basketball uniforms for the first time. The green and white are assured of the strongest line-up in several years, and are sure to make a strong bid for the Interschool Cup. They have such a good chance that here's a prediction that they will take it, even though it is months ahead of time.

LACROSSE NOTES

A benefit lacrosse game, the proceeds of which will go to "Super" Mabley injured in a recent game, will be played at Richmond Hill arena Wednesday evening, Oct. 16th. Silver Bennett of Toronto will bring his Midget "Beaches" team to play the local midget crew for the first game, and the second game will be a clash between the Beaches and Roden A.C. juvenile teams. Two excellent games are assured the fans.

MELVILLE

The ninetieth anniversary of Melville Church, 6th Concession of Markham, will be observed on Oct. 27th and 28th. Watch the Liberal next week for full particulars.

LIBERALISM OR BENNETTISM? The Liberal Party and Liberal policies are needed by Canada at this time. Nothing proves this better than the political and economic history of the past ten years. It is a matter of staying with Bennett and what he has given or returning to King with his record of a prosperous country. There should be no lack of emphasis in the demand for a change.

WEDDING

RODICK-TATE

Trinity United Church, Grand Valley, was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding on Saturday at 1 p.m., when Eva Belle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Tate, Grand Valley, became the bride of Mr. William Johnstone Rodick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rodick, Markham. Rev. Morrison Sellar officiated assisted by Rev. Crawford Tate, uncle of the bride.

Tall standards of yellow mums, oak leaves and ferns formed the church decorations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned on princess lines. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and wore a white gold watch, the gift of the groom.

Miss Lilly Tate, who attended her sister, was becomingly gowned in autumn leaf chiffon velvet with hat and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of bronze mums.

Mr. James Rodick, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Harry Tate, Mr. Will Rodick, Mr. Sam Stephenson and Mr. Henry Harper.

Miss Muriel Grant of Toronto was soloist and Mr. Frank Houston presided at the organ.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Tate received the guests in a gown of black malika crepe, with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Rodick, the groom's mother, wore a gown of black triple sheer with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The couple left by motor for a trip to Washington, D.C. For travelling the bride chose a dress of black crepe with gilt trimming, silver tone tulle coat and silver fox collar, black velour hat and matching accessories.

OBITUARY

LATE BENJAMIN DREW

At eventide it shall be light. The late Benjamin G. Drew was born and grew up in the county of Gloucestershire, England, in 1851. One of the old families from the time of Wm. the Conqueror, brought up in a home where God was honored, educated in a fine boys school, Mr. Drew stood for all that is finest and best in British traditions.

After the death of his wife, also that of his only son in South Africa at the close of the war, Mr. Drew came to Canada in 1908 well prepared to buy land and build a home for himself and the dear sister who survives him.

The soul of honor, it was difficult for him to realize that others were not the same, was one of the victims of the unscrupulous dishonesty of a Canadian who posed as a friend of new settlers.

He moved to Brookside about 1910. Like many Englishmen he was a born gardener with a passion for flowers.

For eighteen years he spent three and four days a week in our home, sitting at our table, meeting our friends, sharing in our joys and sorrows.

With a firm belief in the dignity of labor there was only one way to do things and that was the right way.

A close student of the Word of God, he could as a rule, give chapters and verses when a religious topic was being discussed.

Outspoken in his condemnation of wrong doing, he was always ready with a helping hand and a kindly word.

I have never known him to say an unkind word, or indulge in gossip. Always the courteous Christian gentleman.

Ill only a few days he slipped quietly away to the Homeland early in the morning of Oct. 2nd.

A loyal member of the Plymouth Brethren, taking an active part in the weekly gatherings in the city when able to attend, the funeral service was conducted by three of their Readers Friday afternoon, Oct. 4th. We shall miss him but do not mourn his passing.

He "fought a good fight and finished his course."

"Say not Good Night But in some brighter clime Bid us Good Morning."
