CAPITOL THEATRE

BOYER WOOS LORETTA YOUNG IN 'SHANGHAI'

Fresh from his triumphs in "Private Worlds" and "Break of Hearts," Charles Boyer launches his new bid for starrng fame in Paramount's "Shanghai," which comes next week to the Capitol Theatre.

With the colorful and mysterious capital of the Orient for its background, the picture tells the story of two who dared hatred and prejudice for love and won. Loretta Young is starred with Boyer.

Boyer is the mystery man of Shanghai. Unaided, he has shot from the gutter of the great metropolis to the pinnacle of financial power. Unimpeded by love, he has kept the secret of his origin from even his closest friends.

But when Loretta Young, a young and beautiful American, crosses his path, he knows suddenly that his thirst for power has blinded him to the most precious things in the world. He pays devoted courtship to her, wins her heart, and even as he does prepares the coup which will make him complete master of the Orient.

On the eve of his final successful move, he reveals the fact that he is the son of a Manchurian princess—a despised Chinese.

How Shanghai society reacts to this strange information, and how Loretta Young proves her true worth are revealed in the touching, dramatic climax of the picture.

Prominently featured in the supporting cast of "Shanghai" are Warner Oland, Fred Keating, Alison Skipworth and Charles Grapewin. James Flood directed the film and Walter Wanger, who made "Private Worlds" and "The President Vanishes," released "Shanghai."

LET SOMETHING GOOD BE SAID When over the fair name of friend or foe

The shadows of disgrace shall fall; inside Of words of blame, or proof of so and so,

Let something good be said. Forget not that no fellow being yet May fall so far but love may lift his head,

Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet

If something good be said. No generous heart, may vainly turn aside

In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead

But may awaken strong and glorified

If something good be said. And so I charge ye by the thorny crown,

And by the cross on which the Saviour bled,

And by your own soul's hope for fair renown,

Let something good be said.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Young People Form Discussion Group

The young people of the United Church met at the parsonage last Tuesday evening to make arrangements to hold a discussion period each week instead of the regular young people's program put forth by the Young People's Council. The members agreed that there are current problems that are of vital importance to young men and women which should be better understood, and, when discussed in a group of this kind under a capable leader, will be unfolded in meaning and importance so that the events of the day can be grasped more readily.

The meetings are to be held on Tuesday evening each week beginning at 8.15 sharp. Rev. E. E. Pugsley was chosen leader and a number of subjects were handed in by those present. A few of the topics desirous of discussion are, Social Credit, Communism. How far can a nation go in sanctions and still remain neutral?

The Canada, United States Agreement, Pictures and Plays, Books, Is Britain going too far in forcing sanctions in the present Italo-Ethiopian cause?

A period of ten minutes each evening will be given to current events of the week. Those who wish to belong to this group must join at once and attend regularly as the membership is not to exceed twenty.
