The optimist sees the sunshine, The pessimist sees the gloom; The optimist sees the starlight, The pessimist sees the tomb.

The optimist sees the progress, The pessimist sees the retreat; The optimist sees achievement, The pessimist sees defeat.

Even our Canadian winter which is setting in meets with different points of view. To youth it means fun and sport on the ice and snow...

Last Thursday evening the Red Ribbon Workers S. S. Class and their friends met in the home of Miss Bessie Valliere.

Mr. Ralph Boynton presided over the Sunday School session on Sunday and gave a short address.

The stormy weather last Saturday failed to check the enthusiasm of the shooters in this vicinity for they turned out in large numbers to the first shoot of the season at Mr. Herman Mortson's.

The monthly social evening of the Junior Farmers and J.W.I. will be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 10th.

The December meeting of the J.W.I. proved interesting and Christmassy. The Christmas story by Mrs. D. Gee brought to our minds the first Christmas while the roll call and motto reminded us of our childhood...

The December meeting of the W.M.S. met on Wednesday with a good attendance. After the opening worship and minutes Mrs. McDonald led in an interesting study on Africa.

The Y.P.S. meeting was fairly well attended Sunday evening. In the absence of Miss Mabel Sanderson, Chr. Fellowship Convenor, Miss Viola Avison presided.
