THORNHILL
The Young Ladies Class of the Thornhill United Church have arranged for a very enjoyable Social Evening on Thursday (to-night), Dec. 5th, at 8 o'clock, in the School room of the Church.

A varied program has been arranged and a special feature of the evening will be an interesting address on the work of The Church of All Nations, Toronto, by the Superintendent, Rev. J. I. Mackay.

Through the generosity of the Department of Education (Public Libraries Branch) thirty-five books have been added to the Juvenile Section of the Thornhill Public Library, and are now in circulation.

The Library Membership Canvass is progressing favorably and quite a number of books that had been forgotten about because of the months the library was closed, are being turned in for circulation.

There will be a service of special interest in the United Church, Sunday evening next (Dec. 8th), at 7 o'clock. Dr. A. E. Armstrong, for several years a Missionary in India, will present a very fine set of Colored Lantern Slides on that entrancing country.

A successful sale of work and supper was held by the W.A. of the United Church last Saturday afternoon, in the Sunday School rooms, which were prettily decorated with colored crepe paper and Christmas lights. It was officially opened at 4 o'clock by Mrs. S. Bone of Toronto, a former and one of the oldest members of the association. Following her address, Margaret Martin presented Mrs. Bone with a beautiful corsage bouquet. The booths were well patronized and over one hundred sat down to supper.

The regular monthly meeting of the W.A. of the United Church will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 11th, at 3 o'clock in the Sunday School room. Election of officers will take place at this meeting. Rev. E. E. Pugsley will preside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clubine and Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Laskay visited last week with Mrs. J. Wells.

Election of officers took place at a well attended meeting of the W.M.S. of the United Church on Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. A. Thompson presiding during election. The following officers were chosen for 1936: President, Mrs. W. J. Wesley; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. N. L. Morton; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. E. E. Pugsley; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. P. Johns; Treasurer, Mrs. N. J. Smellie; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. R. Simpson; Literature Secretary, Mrs. J. Davidson; Temperance Secretary, Mrs. C. Spencer; Supply Secretary, Mrs. J. L. Davis; Missionary Monthly Secretary, Mrs. M. McLean; Strangers Secretary, Mrs. J. Wells; Press Secretary, Mrs. N. J. Smellie; Pianist, Miss A. Boyle.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Thursday, Dec. 12th, at the home of Mrs. W. Riddell, at 2.30 p.m. The hostesses will be Mrs. J. Fisher, Mrs. S. Findlay, Mrs. Echlin and Mrs. Heslop. The women of the community are cordially invited to attend.

Cecil Clarke Gets Pilots License
Congratulations and the best of good wishes are extended to Cecil Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clark and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummer, John St., Thornhill, on receiving his pilots license from the Toronto Flying Club. Cecil, who is seventeen years old, began training last June and is the youngest licensed pilot of the Club. He is now training for his passengers license, taking solar flights for varied lengths of time. Last week he flew over this district and gave a flying exhibition to his parents at German Mills. This youthful pilot is a student at Earl Haig College and won the gold medal for public speaking. His friends and school chums wish him real success in his new venture.

RICHVALE

Sunday School met at the usual hour of 2.30 p.m. last Sunday with a very good attendance of scholars and two new scholars enrolled. Church Service was held at 3.30 p.m. with Mr. A. Rapson in charge who preached an excellent sermon from the text Matthew Chap. 11, Verse 28, "Come unto Me, all ye that are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Church Service at 3.30 p.m. with Mr. Rapson in charge. Also Sunday School will be held next Sunday at 2.30 p.m.

Friends of Mrs. Huestis will be pleased to hear she is better again following a heart attack last week.

The Women's Association met for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Smith, Stop 23 Yonge Street, when a very successful meeting was held. After the business a social half hour was spent and refreshments served. Owing to the date of the next regular meeting being Christmas Day it was decided to hold the December meeting on the second Wednesday in January which will be Jan. 8th, 1936, and will be held at the home of Mrs. Rowden, Carrville Rd.

The Public School annual Christmas concert will be held December 20th. Reserve the date. Admission free.

Mr. Leonard Millard spent Monday and Tuesday at his home, Oak Ave. Miss Jean Ellard spent the weekend at her home in Toronto.

Santa Claus will visit Davies Dry Goods Store, Richmond Hill, soon. See advertisement in this issue.

MAPLE

The concert by the Carolina Jubilee Singers in the United Church on Saturday evening was well attended and a splendid program given. All of the artists were received well and every number was heartily enjoyed. The group sang three selections at the service in the church on Sunday morning, and Miss Price, the pianist, whose parents are missionaries in Liberia, Africa, gave a very interesting address on Mission work in that country.

On Wednesday of last week, a number of members of the Women's Missionary Society attended the fortieth anniversary of King City Society and spent a pleasant afternoon with the members of several other societies.

Several from here attended the missionary conference and supper in Thornhill United Church last Thursday, and heard addresses on Work in China from Rev. Dr. Armstrong and Rev. W. Mitchell who are home on furlough.

A canvass is being made of the village in the interests of the Canada Bible Society.

Miss Lorraine Davidson of Thornhill is assisting Mr. J. B. McLean, with clerical work in his office.

Keep in mind the sale of useful and fancy articles and the supper in St. Stephen's Parish Hall on Saturday of this week. Bazaar will be opened and chicken supper served at 5 p.m. Mr. A. J. Dawson has given up the butcher business and Mr. Wm. Brown of Toronto has started work in his place.

A box social was held on Monday night by the Young People's Society and a very pleasant evening was spent.

The regular monthly meeting of the Maple Women's Institute is to be held at the home of Mrs. Parnel White on Tuesday, Dec. 10th, at 2.30 p.m. Please notice the change of date.

VELLORE

All roads lead to Vellore on Tuesday night, Dec. 17th, to hear the pupils and ex-pupils annual Christmas concert.

Keep in mind the regular meeting of the Vellore Junior Farmers and Farm Girls Club on Tuesday evening, Dec. 10th. A good program is being arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDonald attended the sale of farm stock and implements of the latter's father, Mr. Maston of Newmarket, who is seriously ill.

Mr. Herb Joslin, who has lived in the neighborhood for a number of years, has moved to the ninth line.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rutherford and Laurena attended the Mackesy-Craze wedding at Grace United Church, Niagara-on-the-Lake, last Saturday. On Sunday they motored to Simcoe to visit Mrs. (Rev.) P. Nichols and family, formerly of Unionville and Bolton.

Miss Mary Constable left on Saturday to join a group of winners from their respective counties for an organized trip to Chicago. Fred motored with Mary to London where he will spend the week visiting friends.

Albert Rutherford, Norman Bagg and Clarence Graham attended the banquet given by the Kiwanis Club of Toronto to club members of York and Ontario Counties at the Royal York Hotel on Wednesday, and later attended the Royal Winter Fair.

The Young People's Guild of St. Paul's and St. Andrew's Church met at St. Paul's on Sunday evening. Mr. Bob Manning, Devotional Convener, was in charge of an excellent program. Miss Isobel Oliver of Maple was the guest speaker and gave a very interesting talk.

The Vellore Euchre Club met on Monday evening with thirteen tables of euchre. The prizes of the evening were won by Miss Sarah Mathewson, Mr. W. Crane, Mrs. Bates and consolation, Mrs. N. Kerr. The winners for the men were Mr. Bert Peeler, Mr. Wm. Bates, Mr. Frank Foster and consolation "Butch." Prize winners for the freeze-out were, for the ladies, Miss Jean McKinnon and Mrs. Crane, and the gentlemen, Mr. Pete Craib and Mr. Turner. Owing to the Vellore Xmas concert, the euchre club will meet the Friday night before Dec. 13th.

ANNUAL MEETING

Annual meeting of the Markham Township Liberal Association, to be held in the Township Hall on Tuesday evening, Dec. 10th, commencing at 8.30 p.m. Large attendance appreciated as important business will include election of officers for 1936 and reports of last year's activities.

W. C. Thompson of Pickering will address the meeting and Goldie Fleming will be in attendance.

Max Reesor, President
Wm. Champion, Sec.-Treas.

WOODBIDGE DISTRICT NEWS

Woodbridge Young People Visit EDGELEY

A return visit of the Y.P.S. of Woodbridge United Church was made to the Edgeley Young People on Thursday night of last week when following an address of welcome to the visitors by Charles Agnew, President of the Edgeley Y.P.S., Don McCallum, President of the Woodbridge group, took the chair and was in charge of the program contributed by the visitors and included vocal numbers and readings by Misses Mary McLean, Marie Allen, Mary Bagg, Bertha Whitmore, Laura Neal, Agnes McCallum, Bessie Nattress and Thelma Shore.

Temperance Address Was Feature Of Y.P.S. Meeting

Miss Thelma Shore, Assistant Fellowship Convener, was in charge of the United Church Young People's meeting when they assembled in the Sunday School on Monday night. Following prayer by Bert Smithson and Scripture reading by Ross Cameron with explanation of Scripture by Miss Jean Hostrawser, a program was presented that included a quartette number by Misses Thelma Shore, Mary McLean, Messrs. Everett Kellam and Bert Shore. A poem entitled "Courage" by Miss Bessie Nattress, a piano solo by Miss Marie Allen, and a feature item on Temperance based on the topic "Living in the Upper Story" by Mrs. W. E. Berry.

St. Andrew Subject of Address at Christ Church

Saturday, Nov. 30th, being St. Andrew's Day, Rev. J. H. Kidd, Rector of Christ Church, made Scotland's Patron Saint the subject of his address at the morning service on Sunday when Corporate Communion was administered, the service being chiefly in the interest of the Afternoon and Evening Branches of the Women's Auxiliary. A fitting program of music with Miss Queenie Dumbleton at the organ.

Christ Church Young People Enjoy Travelogue

The feature of Christ Church Young People's meeting on Monday night of this week was the Travelogue presented by Miss Avis Poole together with views of scenes collected when making a tour of England in July last. Incidentally it may be mentioned that Miss Poole won the right to the trip by winning a small town competition subscription contest staged by a Toronto Daily Newspaper. The meeting was in charge of the President of the A.Y.P.A., Wilfrid Maxey, who operated the lantern and was assisted by Miss Mary Maxey.

A cast selected from the members of the Young People's Association have in preparation the comedy "Mrs. Temples Telegram" and will produce it on a date in December to be announced later.

The verdict arrived at by the inquest jury held in Dufferin Hall,

Weston, with Coroner H. Charlton and assistant county crown attorney Frank Moore representing the Crown was that little Eddie Timmerman, 12 year old Humber Summit boy, was killed on the Woodbridge-Weston Rd. as a result of excessive speed by W. A. Hornick when driving his car. Mr. Hornick is charged with man slaughter.

The Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Woodbridge held their annual Supper and Bazaar at the residence of Misses Bessie and Mary Wallace which was a splendid success. All the booths which were filled with the various supplies were soon patronized and purchased by the many buyers. A large sum was added to the treasury. Ladies in the different booths were: in the fancy and useful articles Mrs. T. Cole and Mrs. Lulu Willis; aprons, quilts and smocks, Mrs. Fred Stark and Mrs. Earl Ring; baking, candy and flowers, Mrs. J. Robb, Mrs. S. Stratford; tea room, Miss Olive Wallace, Mrs. Alf. Thompson, Mrs. Ross Livingstone, Mrs. Murray Ingram, Mrs. S. J. Howl, Misses Olive Weatherill, Evelyn Brown, Annie Kersey, Irene Maxey. Others in charge were Mrs. J. H. Kidd, Mrs. Y. W. Hicks, Mrs. H. N. Smith, Miss Bessie Wallace, Mrs. A. Weatherill, Mrs. H. Marston, Mrs. Fred Elliston, Mrs. W. Rymill, Mrs. G. H. Maxey, Mrs. J. Uppington, Mrs. S. Cowdry, Miss Violet Watts, Miss Mary Maxey, Miss Mary Wallace, Rev. J. H. Kidd, Rector.

TESTON

Frank Robson was in charge of the Y.P.S. meeting on Sunday evening. There was a splendid attendance to hear the guest speaker, Mrs. Dr. Berry of Woodbridge. Her subject was "Living in the Top Story," a temperance theme with illustrations. The speaker had intended to bring slides but as these were not available charts were used. She stressed the necessity of the young people being protected from the vice of the beverage room and showed the effect of alcohol on brain—the top story. Mrs. Berry is a convincing speaker and her address should have been heard throughout the province. Many favorable comments were made on this address. Misses Robson sang a duet.

Miss Margaret Oliver was home on Sunday.

Mrs. McCuskey and Miss Elma McCuskey of Toronto made a short visit to Teston on Saturday evening.

There are signs of Christmas activities in the schools where programs for the season are being prepared.

Mrs. A. Duncan and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marwood on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robeson and Miss Hatwood of Maple were visitors at Young People's Society on Sunday evening.
