Mr. C. L. Burton, president of the Robert Simpson Company, opened the bazaar held by the Thornlea Public School last Thursday night. Mr. Burton's donation of manual training and household science equipment was used by the pupils in preparing the articles on sale at the bazaar. Mr. N. Porter, on behalf of the school, thanked Mr. Burton for the splendid donation and in response Mr. Burton stated that in his opinion the children of to-day should be taught to "work with their hands as well as their heads."

A pleasant time was spent last Saturday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Simpkins, when a euchre was held in aid of the Memorial Hall fund of the Anglican Church. Despite the unfavourable weather, seven tables were in play. The following were prize winners: Ladies, Mrs. George Weaver, Mrs. Blackburn, consolation Mrs. H. Bryant. Mens, Mr. Percy Simpkins, Mr. A. Clapham, consolation Mr. A. Weaver. A social time and refreshments brought the evening to a close.

Miss Annie Doer of Langstaff held the lucky number for the beautiful quilt which was drawn for at the Thornlea Public School bazaar last Thursday night.

The Young People's Study Group of the United Church met at the "Parsonage" on Tuesday night. Different educational topics were discussed, among them, current events by Miss Hazel Riddell, British North American Act by Miss Ruby Jeffries, Canadian Government by Willard Simpson (which caused much discussion), Should Canada have a National Flag by Miss Hazel Riddell and Miss Nora Johns, History of Canada up to Confederation by Donald Smellie. Mrs. Edith Luesby will take up current events at the next meeting.

Rev. E. E. Pugsley presided at the December meeting of the W.A. of the United Church.

Satisfactory reports were presented by the secretaries. Election of officers took place and the following are in office for 1936: President, Mrs. J. L. McDonald; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. R. Simpson; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. N. L. Morton; Recording Secretary, Mrs. P. Bone; Treasurer, Miss A. Boyle; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. A. Brilling; Financial Secretary, Miss F. Evening Branch of Christ Church W.A.

The Evening Branch of Christ Church Women's Auxiliary met at the home of Misses Isabel and Vera Smith, Pine Street, on Thursday evening of last week when following the business period the Study Book "The Jew and The World Ferment" was read by Miss Avis Poole and Miss Isabel Smith.

Afternoon Branch of Christ Church W.A.

Christ Church Afternoon Branch of the Women's Auxiliary met on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 5th, at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Weatherill, Lot 9, Con. 10, with the President, Mrs. F. W. Hicks, and Mrs. J. H. Kidd, Literary Secretary, in charge, when an interesting item on the program was the reading of the third chapter of the Study Book by Mrs. S. Stratford. The hostess served lunch at the close assisted by her daughter Mrs. Ross Livingston and Mrs. Harry Fieldhouse.

Ronald Thomson's Barber Shop Scene of Fire

Early Monday morning Woodbridge folk were stirred to the point of excitement when the fire bell rang out an alarm. The fire proved to be at Ronald Thomson's Barber Shop which on the arrival of the fire brigade was soon extinguished. An overheated stovepipe was the cause, but as little damage was done so far no estimate on the loss has been made.

Women's Association Elect Officers

Officers of the United Church Women's Association elected for 1936 at the annual meeting held at the home of Mrs. Charles Tamblin were, President, Mrs. G. W. Shore; Vice-President, Mrs. D. Shannon; Secretary, Mrs. G. D. McLean; Treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Allen; Financial Secretary, Mrs. John Kellam; Pianist, Mrs. J. E. Anderson; Social Committee, Mrs. Kearney, Mrs. Russell Ward, Mrs. G. W. Bagg, Mrs. J. E. Anderson and Mrs. C. Tamblin. Among reports submitted were the financial condition by Mrs. Shore and a report on the meeting held in Grace United Church, Toronto. The rest of the afternoon's program consisted of a Christmas reading by Mrs. R. Ward, a talk by Rev. J. E. Anderson, and a quartette number presented by Mrs. R. Ward, Mrs. Kearney, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Shore. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by the committee.

United Church Y.P.S.

Friends of Mr. George Bean, at present living at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Cousins, will regret to learn of his illness.

Saturday morning, Dec. 7th, will be remembered for some time to come because of the icy condition of roadways and sidewalks. Many cars and trucks were stranded and pedestrians found it difficult to navigate. Youngsters were delighted as they made good use of the streets with their active, fell which in some cases was more or less serious. Mrs. William Fleming, when making a call on her invalid friend, Miss Mary J. Burton, fell and fractured several ribs and at present is confined to her bed.

Mrs. Thomas Jenkins and daughter Edith of Toronto spent Sunday with Mrs. Herb. Kaiser.

Senior Women's Institute Have Christmas Carols

The Senior Women's Institute were entertained at the home of Mrs. Deborah Rowntree for the December meeting which was based on the Christmas season of Peace and Goodwill. The President, Mrs. Russell

Ward, was in charge of the meeting and the program included Christmas Carols, and a special speaker for the afternoon was Rev. J. H. Kidd, Rector of Christ Church, Woodbridge, who spoke on Peace and in his remarks brought to the meeting some helpful and practical thoughts. A report of the Toronto Convention by Miss Lillie Bell and Mrs. W. O. Duncan were interesting. The Institute are arranging a means of raising funds by the sale of quilts. Mrs. Dix was in charge. Relief Committee is always active during the Christmas season. Luncheon was served by the hostess and the ladies in charge of the program, Mrs. Lulu Willis, Mrs. A. B. Cousins, Mrs. D. Longhouse, Mrs. Boyle Kellam.
