NEWTONBROOK

The W.M.S. held their December meeting at the parsonage with the Vice-President, Mrs. A. W. Stephenson, presiding. The meeting was opened by a call to worship, a Christmas hymn and prayer.

Mrs. Harold Moore read the Scripture lesson taken from St. Luke 2nd chapter, and Mrs. Halbert gave a Christmas devotional message. Mrs. Allan Wiltshire sang a very beautiful solo "The Wondrous Story" which was in keeping with the devotional service. Mrs. W. T. New gave a reading on the story of Christmas and the customs in other lands on celebrating Christmas. The third chapter of the Study Book on New Africa was very capably reviewed by Mrs. Herbert James. After the business period, Rev. A. H. Halbert received the annual reports of the departmental secretaries. The Baby Band Secretary reported 74 babies on the roll at the first of the year. Fourteen of these had graduated and there were 2 removals. During the last month she had received three life members. She made 47 calls. The Mission Band held nine meetings and had used the Study Book. For a time this fall the meetings had to be withdrawn owing to illness among the members.

The Secretary of Young Women's Work reported the most successful year since its organization. They contributed a substantial bale consisting of babies layettes, childrens clothing, etc., and had made a fancy quilt. A social was held in Sept. and the proceeds were used for buying material for work on the bale. The Study Book was used, each member taking their turn at reviewing the chapters at the meetings. They had exceeded their allocation. The Corresponding Secretary reported letters written to sick and bereaved families. The Christian Stewardship Secretary reported the largest membership the W.M.S. has had since its organization. The Strangers Secretary had made calls on new comers.

The Supply Secretary also gave a very gratifying report, a splendid bale had been sent in May. Mrs. W. T. New, the Secretary, gave a very fine resume of the year's work. There was an average attendance of 23 at each meeting. One of the outstanding meetings of the year was held in November when the tenth anniversary of the organization was celebrated. Temperance was also given a place on the program. Mrs. James Murray presented the report of the nominating committee and this was received.

The officers for 1936 are: Hon. Presidents, Mrs. C. Dempsey, Mrs. H. B. Schmidt; President, Mrs. A. H. Halbert; Vice-President, Mrs. James Murray; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. J. C. Bales; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. T. New; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Fred MacDonald; Treasurer, Mrs. W. T. Special Christmas services will be held in Newtonbrook United Church next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. There will be a Coral Service at the evening service. Come and worship with us. Mr. Herbert James has returned from Sudbury where he has spent the last couple of months on a building contract. Mrs. Thomas Wice spent the week-end with her sister at Goodwood. Rev. and Mrs. R. G. Halbert of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Knowles and Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Kerr of Alliston were guests last week at the parsonage. The Sunday School anniversary was attended by large congregations at both services last Sunday. The Sunday School choir of 25 voices gave special numbers at the morning service and Rev. W. E. Hassard gave a very helpful message. At the evening service the pastor was assisted by Mr. C. R. Conquergood of Toronto who told the Christmas story. This was illustrated by 50 beautifully colored lantern slides. Rev. A. H. Halbert officiated at the funeral in Toronto on Tuesday of Mrs. Prosser of Port Carling whose death occurred in the General Hospital this week. Miss Edna Street and Miss Irene Smith, teachers of the Primary and Beginners Department of the United Church Sunday School, entertained their classes from 2.30 to 5 last Friday afternoon in the Sunday School room. The mothers of the children and Rev. and Mrs. Halbert were guests. Although the day was extremely stormy about forty attended the party. The little tots sat down to a table brightly decorated with Christmas colors and enjoyed a lovely repast. The mothers enjoyed a social time together and afternoon tea was served.

BUTTONVILLE

More than forty ladies attended the December meeting of the W.I. at the home of Mrs. O. Cox last Thursday afternoon. Many gifts were brought for the Children's Home at Willowdale and books, magazines and a special collection were received and sent to the Frontier Camp. Mrs. Lyman Kennedy spoke on the "Responsibilities and Privileges of the Fair Woman." She spoke of the mother's position in regard to the School Fair. Just what is helping a child? Should the child be left to use his own judgment or is the parent justified in explaining to him just what is desirable in fruit, vegetables, etc.? She said it was discouraging to the child who took many exhibits and yet received no prizes. It would be much better to put more time on one or two articles, and while the child should do the actual choosing he should be given instructions that will enable him to choose well. The mother in the home can do much to give her family an appreciation of good music and poetry by a proper use of the radio. Reports of the Toronto Convention were given by Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Kelly and Miss Hilda Hord. A duet by Misses Betty Hord and Myrtle Burr was much appreciated. A contest in which each member was given a clothes pin, needle and thread and a piece of crepe paper and asked to dress the clothes pin was won by Mrs. Brillinger. Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. O. Cox, Mrs. A. Cox, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. L. Hord and Mrs. Clarke. Later the members and their friends enjoyed an evening of progressive euchre and crokinole. There were nineteen tables in all and prizes were won by the following: ladies, 1st Miss Helen Fierheller; 2nd, Mrs. Brooke; gents, 1st, Mr. Roy Glover; 2nd, Mr. Cessford Thomson. Mrs. Hamilton was winner of the crokinole prize. Mr. Douglas Hord, Mr. Newton Burr and Mr. Nelson Boyington attended the funeral of Mr. H. Rider, North York Fire Chief, who had been a member of their hunting expedition in November.
