CAREFUL ATTENTION TO CIVIC BUSINESS

VICTORIA SQUARE

Once more Christmas is come and gone. Concerts in the schools and by the Sunday School were enjoyed this year and many were the happy family gatherings in homes in this district.

The closing meeting of the Y.P.S. for 1935 was in charge of Harold Hendrick, recreation convenor. In the worship service fitting for this New Year season Fraser Gee led in prayer. Alvin Caseley read the scripture, Mr. Avison sang, and Laura Gee gave a reading. Gordon Glenister, in his well-delivered topic, placed a rousing challenge before Canadian young people, and Marion Smith gave a splendid reading. In the business session Thelma Hart was appointed to replace Lorne Mortson as a delegate to Pickering College Conference. Lorne has been fortunate in securing a school near Oshawa and will be leaving our community this week.

On Monday evening a very fair representation of Sunday School members met in the basement of the church for the annual meeting with Rev. J. McDonald in charge. Reports given showed fair interest in the work, a considerable decrease in attendance and a good financial balance. The following slate of officers was the result of the election: Superintendent, Mr. R. F. Boynton; Assistants, E. Avison, H. P. Collard, R. F. Klinck and F. D. Gee; Secretary, Fraser Gee; Assistants, Frank Brumwell and Alvin Caseley; Treasurer, Wilnot Brumwell; In charge of Home Department, Mabel Caseley; Pianist, Pearl Caseley; Assistants, Mrs. H. F. Collard, Mrs. Ratcliffe; Song Leader, Laura Gee; Assistants, Marion Smith, Dorothy Oliver; Librarians, Harold Mortson and Douglas Gee; Lantern Operator, Alvin Caseley; Teachers, Adult Bible Class, L. L. Nicholls; Assistant, Mrs. R. F. Boynton; Junior Girls, Dorothy Valliere; Assistant, Bessie Valliere; Junior Boys, Mrs. W. Haig; Assistant, Frank Brumwell; Primary, Ethel Mortson, to choose assistant; Beginners, Mrs. H. Collard; Assistant, Mrs. H. Barber. Motions were made in regard to material for primary room, a look-out committee for a piano and a donation toward the church. At the close of the meeting the customary season's gift was made to the minister and caretaker.

On Tuesday evening, Jan. 7th, a public meeting will be held in the Community Hall to hear reports on the year's work and to appoint trustees for the Hall for 1936. All are welcome to this meeting.

The first meeting for 1936 of the W.M.S. will be held in the Sunday School room on Wednesday, Jan. 8th, at 2.30 p.m. The ladies and girls in the community are kindly urged to come and have their names placed on the roll at this meeting in readiness for the year's activities. A good program is being prepared and all are cordially invited.

A meeting of the caste of "The Alley Daffodil" was held in the home of Mrs. Willows on Friday evening to close accounts for the season. A donation was made to the Community Hall to cover the final debt and a theatre party planned. This resulted in the members and their friends enjoying a show New Year's night followed by an oyster supper at the home of Miss Thelma Hart who generously offered to act as hostess.

TESTON

"Ring in the New."
Happy New Year to all readers of The Liberal.

This is the wish we extend to you outside of our community and in it. Christmas passed quietly with many home gatherings and the usual festivities.

At Y.P.S. on Sunday evening there was a fine attendance. This was the last meeting of the year and Miss Jean Hadwin was in charge. After the opening exercises Mary Carson read the lesson and Harry Cunningham one of Edgar Guest's poems on Christmas. Little Misses Ruth and Audrey Oliver gave a pantomime on the Christmas Carol "Asleep in a Manger." This number was well presented and with the colored lights looked beautiful. Also lantern slides on a trip through Europe were enjoyed.

Mr. Eddie Simni visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. MacDonald last Friday. Mr. E. Marwood's visiting his son Dr. L. Marwood in Thornhill.

Master Glen and Miss Audrey Murray of Port Hope are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Diesman.

Mr. J. McLaughlin spent Christmas with his son Walter in Toronto. Mrs. Moody visited her sister Miss Ella McLaughlin.

Friends of Mrs. Frank Piercey who has been in poor health for some time hope she will soon be feeling quite well again.

Amusing experience: Anything that would have seemed an adventure when you were 20 years younger.

BOYNTON WELDRICK

Councillor in Vaughan Township in 1935 who was promoted to the office of Deputy-Reeve for 1936 by the electors.

MAPLE

The Masonic Hall was filled on the evening of Dec. 18th., at the concert given by the pupils of Hope Public School and an interesting play was contributed by the ex-pupils. A lovely tree held many gifts for all. The pupils were trained by Miss Doris Cook who received a beautiful Vanity Case for her work, and the teacher Mr. H. McDonald was presented with a Leather Travelling Case.

There was a good attendance at the concert given by the pupils of Maple Public School and the Sabbath Schools of St. Andrew's and the United Churches. The drills, choruses, dialogues and recitations were well given and the play featuring the dream by Helen Cousins, of the wedding of the tin soldier, Bruce Laver, and the Doll, Agnes Kinney, had a beautiful effect. In changing the character of Scrooge, Desmond Partridge and several other boys did some good acting. The play Mortgaging the Farm was well received. The concert ended with the distribution of many gifts by Santa Claus.

The children of St. Stephen's Sabbath School were treated to a supper in the Parish Hall on the Monday evening before Christmas.

At the last meeting of the Missionary Society all of the officers were re-elected for the coming year.

Miss Doris Cook was re-elected as President of the Young People's Society at the annual business meeting and convenors and committees were appointed.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Keys and daughters and Mr. E. Mathewson and family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Keys.

At the annual meeting on Thursday of last week the trustees W. Oliver, R. D. McNaughton and George Mathewson were all re-appointed.
