

To the Electors of RICHMOND HILL

Ladies and Gentlemen—I wish to thank you most sincerely for the expression of confidence given me in Monday's election and my re-election as your Reeve for the coming year. I will continue to give the ratepayers the best service possible and I look forward to receiving from you the same splendid co-operation which I have always received in the past.

J. A. GREENE (Reeve)

TO THE ELECTORS OF RICHMOND HILL

To all those who voted for me and worked on behalf of my candidature for the reeveship I extend my thanks. I wish to congratulate the winners and give them my best wish for success and progress in the coming year.

BILL NEAL

To Electors of Richmond Hill

I wish to express appreciation to the ratepayers of Richmond Hill for the confidence which they placed in me by electing me a member of the 1936 council. I will try to carefully guard the best interests of Richmond Hill and I extend to all best wishes for the coming year.

P. C. HILL

To Electors of Richmond Hill

I extend thanks to all those who voted for me and worked on my behalf on Monday's municipal election. While not successful in gaining election I appreciate the measure of support given me and I may be a candidate at some future time.

CHRISTIAN NELSON

To Electors of Richmond Hill

Ladies and Gentlemen—I appreciate the honor of re-election as councillor in 1936 and the fact that my service to you as a member of council for the past three years has met with your approval. It will continue to be my aim to give careful attention to all civic matters during the coming year.

ALEX LITTLE

To the Electors of Richmond Hill

Please accept my sincere thanks for the support accorded me at the polls on Monday. I appreciate the confidence of the electors of Richmond Hill and I will continue to give the public affairs of this village my best attention.

JAMES McLEAN

To Electors of Richmond Hill

I extend my thanks for the honor of re-election as councillor for 1936. As in the past it will be my aim to serve your best interests.

H. J. MILLS

BUTTONVILLE

The January meeting of the Buttonville Women's Institute will be held next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Norman Reid. Mrs. Wm. Rodick will give an address at this meeting. Roll call to be answered by "your favorite hobby." A good attendance is requested.

Another enjoyable evening under auspices of the Women's Institute was held last Friday evening at the home of Miss Drew Kelly. Twenty-six tables of euchre and two of crokinole were in progress. Euchre prizes were won by Mr. R. L. Stiver, Mr. Leslie Hill, Miss Irene Wright and Miss Lillian Risebrough. Mrs. Fred Tennyson was winner of the crokinole prize.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cunningham, Mrs. A. Duncan, Mr. Kenneth Duncan and Mr. Wm. Leathers were guests of Mrs. G. F. Kelly on New Year's Day.

Miss Cora Hooper visited with Miss Annie Brown, Toronto, over the holiday.

The first meeting of the year of Browns Corners Missionary Society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Craig, Buttonville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Brown were New Year's guests of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craig and family were New Year's guests of Mr. John Johnson and Miss K. Craig.

COURT WHIST PARTY

The Richmond Hill Women's Institute are holding a Court Whist Party in the Gymnasium of the High School on Friday, Jan. 24th, at 8 p.m. All ladies and gentlemen of the community are cordially invited. Proceeds in aid of Library Fund.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Once again the Community/Life Conference at Pickering College helped the New Year get away to a good start. Marion Smith, Thelma Hart, Bessie Valliere, Hazel Nelson, Leonard Wellman, Jim Valliere and Stanley Slack represented the young people's organizations of this vicinity as full time delegates whilst others enjoyed some of the night sessions.

Mr. R. F. Boynton had charge of the opening Sunday School session of the year during which he brought a New Year's message to the scholars emphasizing the lesson theme.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed in the regular church services with elders R. F. Boynton, Rev. W. Haig, E. Avison and R. E. Sanderson assisting the pastor.

Miss Thelma Hart presided over the Y.P.S. meeting Sunday evening. Margaret Avison, Marion Boynton and Laura Gee assisted in the worship service while Marion and Walter Smith sang a duet. Annie Avison gave a reading and Dorothy Hart presented the topic in the program which followed.

The annual public meeting of the Community Hall was held on Tuesday night. Following reports on the year's business an election took place which resulted in Dalton Romney and Harvey Collard being returned to the office of trustee for another term.

The Y.P.S. executive met at the home of Miss Thelma Hart on Tuesday evening. Plans for commencing the year's work were discussed. Miss Marion Smith was chosen Vice-President and Mr. Harold Henricks Recreation Leader, with Boyd Mount assistant. These offices were left vacant by the departure of Mr. Lorne Mortson from our community. All the young people of the community are invited to come out next Sunday evening without fail. The installation service for the newly-elected officers will take place, also there will be a reception of members, so do not fail to be on hand and have your name placed on the 1936 list of members. Practice for a special musical night will also be commenced under the leadership of Boyd Mount to which all are welcome. Misses Dorothy Oliver, Ruby Avison and Marjorie Hart were chosen as social committee for the year's activities.

An interesting and well attended meeting in the home of Mrs. Avison commenced the W.M.S. program for 1936 on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. McDonald, the newly elected president, opened the meeting and reports were given by the various departments. The treasurer reported a slight shortage on the $270 allocation, other secretaries reported an active mission band and live temperance work. Mrs. Willows will gladly receive your subscription to the missionary monthly and Mrs. McCague solicits your help in interesting non-members in the work. The annual quilting day was set for Thursday, Feb. 6th, at which there will be an offering for supply work. The regular monthly meeting day was changed to the second Wednesday in each month. Mrs. R. Perkins was appointed Christian Stewardship

Secretary and also a delegate to annual conference in Toronto along with Mrs. Willows and Mrs. R. Nichols. A splendid program on Racial Brotherhood planned by Mrs. Avison and Mrs. Bpatty followed in which Mrs. C. Smith and Mrs. R. Nichols sang and the study on Africa was taken by Ethel Mortson and Annie Avison. Quilt blocks or material for lining, etc., should be handed to Mrs. E. Caseley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Klinck visited Locust Hill Sunday School last Sunday.

The newly organized Victoria Square hockey team will play their first game on Friday night at Unionville rink with Claremont team.

Highlights of next week's activities are the Junior Farmers and J.W.I. Banquet on Tuesday, the 14th, the annual meeting of the Victoria Square congregation on Thursday, the 16th, and the annual Sunday School Convention on Friday, Jan. 17th.

NEWTONBROOK

Newtonbrook United Church Sunday School held its annual meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. A. W. Galbraith with sixteen officers and teachers present. The reports of the departmental secretaries were very gratifying. Miss Edna Street Supt. of the Home Dept., reported 25 on the roll, she had made 58 visits and the collections amounted to $22. The Temperance Supt., Mrs. F. Summers, reported three special Temperance Sundays with speakers. The Sunday School contributed to the Temperance Federation. The Primary Dept. had 31 members. A Christmas Party was given to the children and mothers with over forty in attendance. The Treasurer, Miss Eva Lockver, reported $158.00 in treasury with all bills paid. The Secretary, Miss Janet Riddell, gave a very splendid resume of the year's work. The Sunday School raised over $57.00 for Missions.

The meeting was then handed over to Rev. A. H. Halbert who conducted the election of officers which resulted as follows: Supt., Mr. A. W. Galbraith; Assistant Supt., Mr. Leslie Grisdale; Secretary, Miss Janet Riddell; Assistant Secretaries, Miss M. Shaw and Mr. Hicks Smith; Treasurer, Miss Irene Smith; Supt. of Cradle Roll, Mrs. Grisdale; Assistant Supt. of Cradle Roll, Mrs. Halbert; Supts. of Primary Dept., Miss E. Street and Miss Irene Smith; Temperance Supt., Mr. L. Grisdale; Missionary Supt., Mrs. F. Foreman; Home Dept. Supt., Miss Edna Street; Treasurer of Sunshine Fund, Miss Mary Douglas; Lantern Operator, Mr. Will Douglas; Pianist, Miss Cora Good; Assistant Pianist, Mrs. Halbert.

The teachers were re-elected. Refreshments were served at the close of meeting.

The W.M.S. will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday, Jan. 14th, at 2:30 p.m., at the parsonage. All the ladies of the church are cordially invited.

The Y.P.S. of the United Church met last Monday evening with a full attendance. At the close of the meeting the officers were elected for 1936. The meeting next Monday evening will be in charge of the Missionary Vice-President, Miss Gladys Sutterby.

The Girls Mission Circle met at the parsonage last Tuesday evening with the President, Miss Irene Smith, in charge. Five young ladies conducted the devotional service. These were Misses Emma McPhail, Thelma Riddell, Ruth Allan, Gladys Riddell and Lorene Brown. The life of one of our missionaries was very ably given by Miss Gwendolyn Barber. A questionnaire on the 5th chapter of the Study Book in which several members took part made the study more interesting. Plans were made for the February meeting which promises to be an exceptionally interesting one. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting when everyone enjoyed a social hour around the fire place.

The Women's Association is holding a Thimble Tea this (Thursday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wells.

The Week of Prayer is being observed this week in the various churches in this district. Last Monday evening a prayer service was held in Willowdale United Church. Rev. A. H. Halbert gave the address on "Thanksgiving and Confession." On Tuesday evening the meeting was held in Lansing United Church with Rev. L. C. Secrett giving the address on "The Church Universal." On Wednesday evening the meeting is being held in St. George's Anglican Church with Rev. F. N. Bowes giving the address "Nations and their Rulers." On Thursday evening in Newtonbrook United Church with Rev. J. C. Davis giving the address on "Missions." On Friday night the prayer service will be held in Westminster Presbyterian Church with Rev. G. S. Smith giving the address "Home Life and Education."
