

TESTON

The congregational meeting of the United Church will be held on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 15th. The W. A. will also hold their meeting on the same afternoon. A full attendance of both church and W.A. members is requested.

Friday evening, Jan. 3rd, the annual meeting of the Sunday School and Young People's Society was held with a small attendance. Reports of both these organizations were given and were very favorable. The officers and teachers of the Sunday School were again elected, the only change being Miss Louise Carson, who was elected secretary, assistant Miss Sadie Windas. A change was also effected in the distribution of the Onwards. The Y.P.S. election followed: President, Miss H. Diesman; Vice-President, E. J. Hitchcock; Secretary, Miss Eleanor Heacock; Assistant, Mary Carson; Treasurer, Mrs. George Tagga; Assistant, E. J. Hitchcock; Christian Fellowship, Miss Sadie Windas; Missionary, Frank Robson; Citizenship, Louise Carson; Social, Roy Bowen; Literary, Jean Hadwin. This society had a very successful year and after all payments has a balance of over twenty-six dollars. Approximately two thousand were in attendance for the year the average being forty-two.

For the first Sunday evening the newly elected Convenor of the Young People's Society, Miss Sadie Windas, presided. Harry Cunningham read the lesson and Muriel Kyle gave the Worship Period. The topic was taken by Mr. E. J. Hitchcock on "Lack of Faith in Adversity." Miss Dorothy Castator sang "In the Garden" which was well rendered. Plans were discussed for the coming year and two leaders, Robert Watson and Howard Heacock, were chosen to take part in a contest of which further notice will be given. Plans also were made for the visit to Wesley on the 16th. There was a splendid attendance at this opening meeting and everyone enjoyed the program.

Miss Marie Morton of Concord visited with her friend Miss Grace Jackson last week.

Miss Hattie Diesman visited her sister, Mrs. D. Murray in Port Hope, last week.

Friends of Miss Laura McCluskey will be sorry to hear that she received severe injuries while tobogganing at Woodbridge last week, and hope for a speedy recovery.

The young people are enjoying the winter. Coasting on the hills seems to be the vogue these days.

Rev. D. Davis impressed on his congregation last Sunday the fact that a good commencement to anything generally means success. His advice was to start right in the New Year by putting God first in our program for the year and for life. To impress this the first Sunday of the year Holy Communion was partaken by the congregation.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society will be held on Saturday, Jan. 11th, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the Municipal Hall. Reports will be given and election of officers will take place. All members are urgently requested to be present.
