The Kinsmen Quartette comprised of Messrs. Raymer, Steckley, Sider and Pike of Toronto rendered several beautiful selections at the service in the United Church last Sunday evening, and Mr. Raymer preached a powerful sermon which was listened to with close attention by a large audience. At the close of the service, the hymn "Lest We Forget" was sung as a memorial to the late writer, Rudyard Kipling.

Last week Levi Watson Sr. passed away at the home of his son in his eighty-ninth year. The funeral took place on Saturday to the Lutheran Cemetery the services being conducted by Rev. A. M. Partridge and Rev. Mr. Huenegard.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Knight of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Keys on Friday last.

At the meeting of the Horticultural Society announced for last Wednesday evening there were not enough members in attendance to carry on the business.

Miss Lucy Norman is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Aurora.

Mrs. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Farr spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson.

HOW OLD IS OLD?

The world was prone to regard the late King George V, who died this week at the age of 70 as an old man. But when we look on some of the real old men of our day the late monarch was comparatively young. For instance, Sir William Mulock was old enough to vote when the late King George was born.

GEORGE PLEWMAN SUFFERED SEVERE INJURIES IN AUTO CRASH

George Plewman of Richmond Hill is in the Toronto General Hospital suffering from severe injuries received when he was injured in a motor car crash on the way to work on Wednesday morning. At the time of going to press hospital authorities reported his condition as fairly good. He suffered a double fracture of the right leg, a fracture of the left leg, a broken left arm, severe facial cuts including injury to his eyes, teeth and head. At the time of the accident he was endeavouring to push the car of Mr. A. E. Plewman in whose car he was a passenger when he was struck by a truck from behind. The car was badly smashed but Mr. A. E. Plewman the driver escaped with back injuries and a general shaking-up. The unfortunate accident occurred on the avenue road cut off, south of the York Mills bridge and near Wilson Avenue. The many friends of George "Unc" Plewman wish for him a speedy and a complete recovery.

Hockey Notes

Richmond Hill Midgets remain undefeated in the T.H.L. schedule and to-morrow night (Friday) play a regular fixture at Willowdale rink with the Holy Ramblers. The kids are going in fine form and already have their eye on the championship. Tuesday night they defeated Fairbank 3-0 and last Friday played a tie game with the same team. The intermediates while putting up some good games hardly fared so well for victories and were defeated last Friday and Tuesday nights both times by a 4-1 score. Friday night they lost to Richardson A.C. and on Tuesday bowed to Mimico.

Among the newcomers are Arthur H. Williams of East York, B. Wheeler of Scarborough, N. G. Wallace of Woodbridge, Stanley Gardhouse of Etobicoke, Charles Cashman and F. J. McRae of York, A. T. Leich and F. G. Gardiner of Forest Hill Village.
