STOUFFVILLE HOLDS RECORD SHORT COURSES

A record number of young people are attending the Short Courses, in Agriculture for boys and Household Science for girls, at Stouffville, York County. Ninety-nine girls and fiftyone boys are registered with an average daily attendance for the first two weeks, of sixty-four girls and forty-nine boys. Visitors average about ten to twelve daily in the classes. This is the record attendance for such Courses in York County.

Fifty per cent of the boys attending, have high school education and this splendid group of boys and girls are very talented musically, playing such instruments as accordion, saxophone, guitar, piano, mandolin, mouth organ, etc. The boys have been privileged indeed in having the opportunity to visit such farms as Donalda, Senator F. P. O'Connor's and Col. F. H. Deacon's and G. S. Henry's farms.

On January 14th, both boys' and girls' classes took a trip to Toronto where the girls went through Eaton's factory, Loblaw's Groceteria, the Royal Ontario Museum and Parliament Buildings where they were privlileged to hear the Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture and Mr. W. J. Gardhouse, member for West York. The boys visited Acme Farmers' Dairy, Canada Packers, Massey-Harris, Daily Star Building and the Parliament Buildings.

This group of young people have particular ability in organization as was indicated by the splendid literary programmes on Friday afternoons and social functions, such as class skating parties.

The staff assisting Mr. R. E. White Agricultural Representative, include Mr. R. E. Goodin, Spencerville; Miss Grace Annis, Scarboro and Mrs. E. A. Wright, Odessa.
