MAPLE

A congregational meeting was held in the United Church last Wednesday evening when reports were received from all the departments and a cordial invitation was extended to Rev. A. M. Partridge to remain as Pastor. Hot supper was served by the ladies of the church.

In the different churches Memorial Services were held last Sunday for our late beloved Sovereign King George V. The altars in Hope and Maple United Churches were draped in black and purple.

On Monday evening the Young People of Edgeley were entertained by the Maple Society, the visitors furnishing the program which included a Playlet "Too Much Married."

Under the auspices of Hope Sabbath School a play entitled "Coming Through the Rye" will be presented in the Masonic Hall on Friday evening, Feb. 7th, by the Dramatic Club of St. Columba's, Toronto.

On Saturday of this week the annual sleigh drive of the United Church Sabbath School will be held to be followed by hot supper and a program in the vestry of the church.

Skiing is enjoyed on the hills north of the Village by a large number of young people from the City.

J. O. LITTLE IS 1936 WARDEN
J. O. Little, deputy-reeve of Newmarket, was chosen warden of York County for the year 1936 at the opening session of the County Council on Tuesday. He was elected with a substantial majority over R. J. Wallace, reeve of Swansea. This is the second time in the history of York County that a deputy-reeve has held the office of Warden.

Citizens of Richmond Hill and surrounding district joined with their fellow citizens of the British Empire in paying a final tribute to the late King George V on Tuesday, the day of his funeral. A community service held in the Richmond Hill United Church at 11 a.m. attracted a capacity audience and every seat in the church was filled for the impressive and memorable service. The service was sponsored by the municipal council and was conducted by the local clergy and a choir composed of members of the different church choirs led in the singing.

Rev. C. W. Follett of Richmond Hill United Church presided and following the call to worship the gathering joined in singing the hymn "All people that on earth do dwell." This was followed by a scripture reading by Rev. C. W. Follett and prayers by Rev. R. S. Mason representing St. Mary's Anglican Church. Then followed the hymn "Praise my soul, the King of Heaven" after which the address was given by Rev. J. D. Cunningham of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church. In his address Rev. Cunningham paid sincerest tribute to our beloved monarch and the useful life he lived in service of the Empire and its people. The hymn "Abide With Me" a particular favorite of the late King was followed by an impressive two minutes silence, the sounding of the last post by Bandmaster James Butler, the benediction and the National Anthem.

It was a most impressive service and marked in fitting manner Richmond Hill's tribute to a beloved Monarch who served his people faithfully and well.

Reeve J. A. Greene and Mrs. Greene, members of the municipal council and their wives, W. P. Mulock K.C., M.P. and Mrs. Mulock, Morgan Baker M.L.A., Reeve R. W. Scott and Deputy-Reeve Boynton Weldrick of Vaughan Township, members of the Board of Education, former members of council, members of the Veterans Organization, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides Trumpet Band, School Children occupied reserved seats in the church for the service.

FAIR BOARD MEETS SATURDAY

The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society will be held in the Municipal Hall, Saturday afternoon, at 2 p.m. All officers and directors and all interested in the Richmond Hill Fair are invited to attend.

PLAN DISTRICT SEED FAIR

A proposal is now under consideration by the Richmond Hill, Markham and Woodbridge Agricultural Societies to hold a district seed fair sponsored by the three Societies. Such a fair undoubtedly would attract the best in seed exhibits and should prove a success.

FREE TALKING PICTURES AT MASONIC HALL

Next Monday evening, Feb. 3rd, I. D. Ramer & Son of Richmond Hill will sponsor the showing of the talking picture "HIDDEN HARVEST" at the Masonic Hall, Richmond Hill. According to I. D. Ramer & Son this film is of exceptional interest to anyone engaged in farming. It is a full two hour regular film that is highly interesting and amusing. It is made doubly interesting because the story deals with farm life from start to finish. Included in the film are many excellent scenes of familiar farm activities. Complimentary tickets for farmers and their families are being issued at the office of I. D. Ramer & Son, Richmond Hill.

PAYS BACK TOWNSHIP RELIEF RECEIVED

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Smith of the second concession of Markham who plan shortly to sail for England have reimbursed Markham Township in full for relief received from the municipality. This action on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Smith has been highly commended by the members of the council and is deeply appreciated, as evidence of the right kind of spirit towards relief payments.

REGULAR EUCHRE AND DANCE

The regular Euchre and Dance of the Vaughan Workers Social Club will be held in Richvale School on Wednesday, Feb. 5th, at 8.30 p.m. sharp. Good prizes and refreshments. Also a grand prize for highest score will be given at the close of the season. Admission 25c. plus tax.

Rev. W. F. Wrixon Named Rector of St. Mary's

Rev. W. F. Wrixon of King City has been appointed rector of St. Mary's Church, Richmond Hill, as the successor of Rev. L. Claude Secrett, who became rector of St. George's Church, Willowdale.

The appointment of Rev. W. F. Wrixon was announced to the Annual Vestry Meeting on Monday evening in a communication from Rt. Rev. A. R. Beverley, Suffragan Bishop of Toronto, who in making the appointment confirmed the unanimous choice of the parishoners at a previous meeting. The new rector will assume charge on March 1st.

Rev. Wrixon comes to Richmond Hill after a period of over seven years in the three church parish of St. Stephen's, Maple; All Saints, King City; and St. John's, Oakridges, and his departure from these churches is regretted by citizens in all phases of municipal, social and religious circles in Maple, King City and Oakridges districts. On first going to All Saints Church, King City, in 1929, it was united with St. Stephen's Church, Maple, and both were hardly able to maintain their work independently. Later, St. John's, Oakridges, was linked with King City and Maple and to-day, this three church parish is entirely self-sustaining and in excellent condition. During his stay in King City, he introduced a surplice choir at All Saints' Church, which had never previously been organized.

Previously, Rev. Wrixon was rector of Trinity Church, Liverpool, in the Diocese of Nova Scotia for five years and because of climatic conditions he was advised to come to Ontario, in order to improve his health. In the missions of Wybridge and Cobocok in the north of the Diocese of Toronto, he began his ministry and served several years in that district.

Rev. Wrixon is a graduate of Wycliffe College, Toronto, and Bible College, Glasgow, and received his early education in the National Public School of Bournemouth, England. He was ordained deacon in 1917 and priested in 1918 by his grace, Archbishop James Sweeney. At the present time, Rev. Wrixon is Chaplain of West York Deanery Local Council of the A.Y.P.A. and Treasurer of Wycliffe College Alumni. Mrs. Wrixon has rendered valuable services in all of her husband's various parishes in the work of the Women's Auxiliary and has been honored by appointment to Life Membership in the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Nova Scotia and as a Dominion Life Member of the W.A. The citizens of Richmond Hill welcome Rev. and Mrs. Wrixon to their new field of service in our midst.
