FORTY YEARS AGO

From Our Issue of Feb. 27th, 1896
Two curling rinks went to Parkdale on Tuesday and played a friendly match with the curlers of that place. Our teams were victorious by 4 shots. Rev. Mr. Vickery of this place, and Rev. Mr. Burns of Parkdale, arranged the match.

The house of Mr. N. S. Reaman, Carrville, was filled to overflowing last Friday evening. As Mr. Reaman is leaving his farm and is going into business in Toronto, his friends and neighbors assembled to say goodbye. All Carrville turned out to express its sorrow at the departure of a much respected resident. The evening was very pleasantly spent and about 10:30 o'clock refreshments were served after which Mr. Henry Keffer took the chair and called the assembly to order. Having spoken briefly of the object of the meeting, he called upon the following: Mrs. Wm. Cook, Rev. Dunlap, Mr. E. Coombs M.A., Mr. J. Williams and Mr. Jacob Lahmer. All replied briefly speaking in the highest terms of Mr. and Mrs. Reaman and Mr. Will Reaman. Everyone seemed to regret their departure because they had been useful in so many spheres and the church is losing valuable workers. The company dispersed about midnight and everyone left with Mr. and Mrs. Reaman their best wishes for success.

Mr. James Wellman, who has been village merchant and postmaster at Headford for a number of years, is moving to Gornley this week. He has sold his premises here to Mr. Legge of Bond Lake, who has rented it to Mr. Rutherford of Jefferson. We wish Mr. Rutherford success and extend to him a hearty welcome to the village. We regret to see Mr. Wellman and his family leave the neighborhood and hope that he may prosper in whatever enterprise he may decide to embark in. We understand that he intends to farm after this year.

Mrs. Wm. Rumble died at the residence of her son, Mr. H. Rumble, Maple, on Friday last at the age of 87 years. The remains were followed to their last resting place on Monday by a large company of relatives and friends. Deceased was for many years a resident of Maple and was highly respected.

The following curling matches for the Smith Medal have been played since last issue:

P. G. Savage 20; H. A. Nicholls 13;
Rev. J. Vickery 17; M. Boyle 8;
M. Boyle 15; J. Mortson 14;
W. H. Pugsley 18; P. G. Savage 12.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From Our Issue of Feb. 22nd, 1906
The members of Victoria Square Off-hand Rifle Club met at their range on Saturday afternoon for practice. The following are some of the scores: R. Agar 86, C. P. Read 84, W. Scott 83, L. Stoutenburgh 61, R. Frisby 68.

The Local Option By-law carried in Richmond Hill Monday by a majority of 21. The result of the voting was as follows: Votes cast 177. For the By-law 99, against 78. There was one rejected ballot. The above is the largest vote ever polled in this municipality.

The annual report of the Richmond Hill Public Library, recently forwarded to the Education Department, shows the receipts of last year to be $218.87, expenditure $185.36, leaving a balance on hand of $33.51, about $6 less than the year previous. There were 64 volumes of books purchased during the year, 2634 volumes issued to readers, and there are now in the library 3295 volumes. In the reading room are 3 daily newspapers, 6 weeklies, and 11 magazines. The library and reading room are open Tuesday and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Mr. W. H. Pugsley, President of the Western Ontario Good Roads Association, is in Toronto this week attending the fifth annual convention of the Association which is being held in the County Council Chambers, Adelaide Street East. A number of prominent, practical men are billed to give addresses on subjects relative to good roads. The last session will be held Friday.

General News & Views

Spring is in the air—true we may have a few cold days but it won't be long now.

There is an old saying that severe winters are followed by bumper crops. If this be true we can certainly look for bounteous harvests in York County this year.

James Malcolm of Markham who recently celebrated his 55th wedding anniversary declared that his wife's cooking was one of the most important factors in their happiness.

Stouffville which as a municipality has been fortunate in escaping heavy relief demands had a relief bill in January of over $200.00.

The town council of Newmarket wrote Constable R. W. Phillips, commending the work of County Constable Sidney Barraclough of Richmond Hill, in clearing up local burglaries.

Hon. E. J. Davis, who on Thursday evening last was presented with a Gold Medal provided by Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. for members of the Order for fifty years. The Hon. E. J. Davis was initiated in Vaughan Lodge, Maple, on March 11th, 1873.

Publication of those in arrears for taxes has been made in the Acton auditors' report for the past ten years, and the Acton Free Press doubts if any municipality has a smaller list of arrears than that town; admittedly, the scheme is effective, says The Hanover Post. Yes, even advertising in an auditors' report is effective.

Arthur is developing a reputation as furnishing a steady market for rabbits. On Wednesday last, Pickering Farms, Ltd., of Toronto, bought at H. R. Fair's, 154 rabbits for which fifteen cents each was paid. On the previous Wednesday, 133 were bought at the same price. Mr. Lowe, the veteran buyer for this firm, reports at present there is a good market for the rabbits. The rabbits are sold skinned and dressed and supply very tasty meat.

There's something to be said in favor of saddling future generations with part of our financial load in the shape of long-term bonds. They ought to pay for the privilege of living then instead of now.

What a fine world this would be says an exchange if all the people who have the money would use it the way people who have not money say they would use it if they had it—which they wouldn't.

A farmer named Allison Walker, of Kincardine Township, had an unusual experience while out hunting rabbits with a party of friends. One of the hunters fired at a bunny. The shot struck a rock, ricocheted, and struck Walker in the jaw. It followed the jawbone into the mouth and was swallowed by the surprised victim. No permanent ill effects were suffered.

A new term was given "The Music Goes Round and Round," by Premier Hepburn in the Ontario Legislature Tuesday night. The premier compared the number with the 1934 provincial election. He and Opposition Leader, George S. Henry went "Round and Round" the province during the campaign. "But he came out there and I came out here," said Mr. Hepburn pointing to Government and Opposition benches.

There was a time when we could hear the old timers telling about the winters they used to have away back when—but this line of chatter has suddenly ceased since we have taken on the job ourselves of trying out one of these grand old winters. It is a matter of different liking to get some of these individuals to start talking like they were last year and a few years ago. Apparently Old Man Winter has made a return visit just to remind our good friends that he is not weak and feeble yet. There is no one in this part of the country this year who can say that the winters are not what they used to be. There are a great many who do not remember what they used to be like, but this winter has given them a very good idea and they are quite willing to let it go at that—and aren't we all?

There seems to be a great deal more lecturing going on in different parts of the country than there used to be. This is, of course, in connection with the use of gasoline in the home. This is not a very pleasant subject to be talking about but one sentence caught our eye the other day and it was this, a statement made at a meeting in Toronto: "One teaspoonful of gasoline, properly vaporized in a room, can do as much damage as a case of dynamite." If the individuals who use this liquid for cleaning clothes, etc., were aware of this fact, it is not likely that they would take the chance of having it near the house, let alone in near the fire. These constant warnings are being given all the time, in all parts of the country to educate the public in the danger of such a procedure.

What kind of a face are you carrying around underneath your hat? What kind of an advertisement is your countenance for the fellow who lives behind it?

"I am bald-headed," writes Roe Fulberson in the Kiwanis Magazine. "I have to wear spectacles. My nose is too big for my face. My mouth is twisted so that one corner goes up and the other goes down, and my chin recedes like the chin of a sheep. The best that can be said about me is that my face is quaint. In a contest for Mr. America, I would run last in a field of a thousand.

"These things are not my fault, however. But one thing is my fault. I can at least make my homely mug a pleasant one to look at. It is my advertisement to the world, and I have no business letting it look sour as well as homely. My wife is used to it and so doesn't suffer so much. My baby is not old enough to realize what a homely daddy she has. But I owe it to other people who have to look at me, to wear a smile on the doggone thing.

If there is any moral to all this, you will find it in your bathroom mirror."

EAST YORK REEVE UNSEATED IS RE-ELECTED

Arthur H. Williams, unseated as reeve of East York township on Feb. 8, because of rent arrears, was re-elected by acclamation Saturday. Mr. Williams filed qualification papers immediately and Clerk William Heaton administered the oath of office.

More than 100 persons crowded the small council chambers and adjoining halls and gave a deafening five-minute cheer when the result was announced. Led by 30 women, about 300 men paraded from the township offices along Sammon Ave. to the workers' headquarters on Woodbine Ave.

"If anyone wanted an exhibition of the utter stupidity of the unseating, it is the acclamation here today," declared Reeve Williams. Commenting on the legislation invoked, he said, "My acclamation shows clearly that the people do not want that legislation on our statute books."
