

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

WHAT IS A GARDEN? What is a garden— Goodness knows You've got a garden I suppose: To one it is a piece of ground For which some gravel must be found, To some, those seeds that must be sown, To some a lawn that must be mown. To some a ton of Sheddar rocks; To some it means a window box; To some, who dare not pick a flower— A man, at eighteen pence an hour. To some it is a silly jest About the latest garden pest; To some a haven where they find Forgetfulness and peace of mind... What is a garden? Large or small, 'Tis just a garden After all.

—Reginald Arkell. Eleven interested young women were in attendance at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. A. K. Harrington on Monday afternoon last when Miss Wallace, Departmental representative reviewed the present project being taken up by Institute young women and outlined the new one for the coming year. A practical demonstration on baking tea biscuits was also given by Miss Wallace. Miss Ruby Reesor has charge of the project now being considered by the local Junior Institute. Reference was also made to Achievement Day that will be held in May at Richmond Hill.

The Kinsman Quartette of Toronto presented a very fine service at Central United Church last Sunday evening. The several musical selections brought a splendid message in song and Mr. Lewis Raymer left many inspiring thoughts with the young people as he spoke on "The Choice of a Young Man," from the story of the Rich Young Ruler. The service was under the auspices of the Men's Club.

You are again reminded of and invited to attend the Lenten Services that are being held in St. Phillips Anglican Church on every Thursday evening during Lent and on Wednesday evening Bethesda Lutheran Church. A cordial welcome awaits you.

The March meeting of the W.M.S. Auxiliary of Central United Church was held at the home of Mrs. A. Coulson, twelve members present and the president, Mrs. C. Crawford in charge of the program. Following the devotional and business part of the meeting, Mrs. W. Young read some information regarding Stewardship and Finance. An interesting chapter from the Book entitled "The Crowded Ways" by Rev. W. Allan was read by Mrs. A. Coulson. This chapter "Help for the perplexed," was a message from the 73rd Psalm. In the absence of Mrs. Sabiston, Mrs. Crawford gave a synopsis of the 2nd chapter in the Study Book, that dwelt on the Religious Faiths of Africa and what superstitions the natives had until Christianity dispelled them. Mrs. J. A. Gibson gave a review of the Missionary Monthly, touching on the African Baby Clinic, Chengtu College graduates. The meeting closed in the usual manner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller entertained a party of friends at a pleasant evening of Euchre on Thursday evening last. The honors of the evening for having the highest score went to Mrs. J. R. Hood, Mrs. W. Summerfeldt, T. Burnett, G. Murphy. Mrs. Pyndale of Orangeville who has been spending two weeks with her mother Mrs. Reid Boyes returned home on Saturday.

Miss Margaret Lawrie of Markham spent Thursday with Miss M. Somerville. Mr. and Mrs. N. Eckhardt of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrington on Sunday. Mrs. Ewart Stiver who has been ill in Toronto General Hospital is making favorable convalescence at her home here.

Mrs. J. R. Hood visited her daughter Mrs. E. Parkinson in Toronto last week. We regret to report so many of our citizens ill with severe colds, Flu and measles.

Mrs. Geo. Kelly, Sr. of Buttonville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Duncan on Tuesday last.

Mrs. W. M. Smith has been spending a few days in Toronto.

The C.G.I.T. of Knox Presbyterian Church, Agincourt were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Muirhead on Monday evening last. A St. Patrick's party was the order of events.

Miss Allison Hood was hostess when the Y. W. Auxiliary of Knox Presbyterian Church met at her home on Saturday evening last.

Mrs. Ruby Boyle of Richmond Hill visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller on Thursday.

The Men's Banquet at Central United Church on Wednesday night was delightful, humorous and instructive. Mr. W. H. Goodwin of Montreal and prominent leader in Laymen Work brought the challenging message from the experience of the Prophet Isaiah. In the year of the crisis Isaiah went to church to find God. Out of that experience we find that God was above the crisis and was able to solve it, and we are ready to co-operate. Mr. R. H. Gold with Mrs. Gold at the piano sang several splendid selections with good interpretations. The toast list included, to the King, Mr. A. E. Milner who was also toastmaster; the church by Mr. W. Hiltz and Rev. A. E. Owen; the men by Mr. G. G. Maynard and Mr. A. Dyke; ladies by Wm. Noble and Mrs. J. Russell. These addresses were all well handled. The ballot for election of officers resulted in the following: President, A. E. Milner; Vice-President, S. Hiltz; Treasurer, W. Melville; Secretary, Ernie Appleton; Organist, Bob Thompson; Assistant, Elsworth Roscurth. The executive includes Fred Baggs, A. L. Brown, A. C. Kennedy, B. Weatherill, R. Holden, J. Brown, A. Dyke, Lloyd Stephenson, Bill Champion, J. P. Carr, Percy Payne, Mr. Brookfield. Messrs. C. E. Stiver and A. C. Kennedy moved a vote of appreciation to Mr. Goodwin and Mr. Gold. One matter that was overlooked was the appreciation to the ladies for the splendid supper. The meal was well prepared and well served.

A FAVORITE TESTED RECIPE Corned Beef Sandwiches 8 slices of corned beef, Mayonnaise, 3 teaspoons horseradish, 2 tablespoons chili sauce, 12 slices of bread. Toast bread on one side. Place corned beef on each of six slices. Spread with mayonnaise, horseradish and chili sauce. Make sandwiches and toast. Make six double sandwiches. Sandwich Filling 1/2 cup dates, 1/2 cup raisins, 1/2 cup of walnuts. Put through grinder, add juice of 1 orange and 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Mix together thoroughly. Spread between buttered slices of brown bread. 1/2 cup of peanut butter may be used instead of walnuts if preferred.

VERSE FOR THE KIDDIES The Wind O wind, a-blowing all day long, O wind, that sings so loud a song! I saw you toss the kites on high, And blow the birds about the sky: And all around I heard you pass, Like ladies' skirts across the grass. I saw the different things you did, But always you yourself you hid. I felt you push, I heard you call, I could not see yourself at all. O you that are so strong and cold, O blower, are you young or old? Are you a beast of field and tree, Or just a stronger child than me? O wind, a-blowing all day long, O wind that sings so loud a song! —Robt. Louis Stevenson.
